THANKS UMPIRE!

From The CEO

This weekend is the 'Thanks Ump' round, an AFL initiative which encourages everyone to have a positive impact on match day at all levels of football. Often umpires are lost to the game due to poor environments consisting of abuse and intimidation, and this round aims to show umpires our appreciation of their involvement in the game and assist with recruitment & retention in the junior ranks. 'Thanks Ump' round aims to emphasise the responsibility we all have to create a positive football match day environment.

Umpires have a huge responsibility to the game, in particular at a junior level where their capacity to control the game is paramount to the enjoyment and safety of all young participants. They must be supported in this endeavour as their role is as important as anyone else in the game.

Changing the culture of how spectators see umpires starts at a community level, and the Western Region Football League is proud to be driving this change by promoting positive match day environments as part of this round. We ask all involved in our league to acknowledge the two key messages of this round:

- Community umpires who wear green are first year learning umpires that need to be encouraged and supported at all times.
- We need to ensure that spectators, players & coaches created a positive match day environment for umpires, so we can retain & recruit umpires in our league.

We often take these individuals for granted, but in reality there are plenty of young umpires who get involved in the game and then quickly drop out due to intimidation or abuse from players, coaches or spectators. This weekend we ask that you respect the men, women, boys & girls in white, and set a precedent that your club can carry forward throughout this season and beyond.

WHISTLEBLOWERS IN THE WEST

A WRFL Special Feature

The Western Region Football League continues to lead the way in umpiring throughout Melbourne's suburban leagues, with three academies and scores of juniors now taking up the whistle. At this stage there are hundreds of registered umpires in our league, and they have different backgrounds, work at a wide variety of jobs, live in various suburbs, are educated at a range of schools and all have a unique journey through life. In this, the 'Thanks Umpire' appreciation round, WRFL Goal Umpiring Advisor Graeme Hodgart takes a look at three very different umpires and their unique journeys through the world of umpiring.

RICHARD WATT, aged fifty, is a very well-known local football identity. He played junior football at West Footscray before crossing to North Footscray where he played in the seniors. For thirteen years he coached various teams and helped the club on the administrative side of things. His father, Gordon, who umpired in country locations for the VFL (and is a life member of the AFL), urged Watt to try umpiring but he wasn't interested. Then, one day, he decided to do something for himself and joined the local umpiring association as a field umpire. He began twenty-three years ago in the lowest junior grade. It didn't take long for people to recognize his talent and he was promoted through the grades. For much of his career he has been doing three games every weekend. Watt wants the football community to know that the umpiring association is just like any football club with its characters, big heads and heroes – with the good people hanging around and succeeding & the 'bad' usually leaving after a short while. The 50 year-old believes that he still has plenty to give the game, and aims to umpire well into the future.

LIAM DARCY is only sixteen years of age and is entering his first year of umpiring. Darcy lives in Werribee but plays cricket at Yarraville with fellow umpires James Scholes & Cameron Rycroft who initially invited him down to Scovell Reserve to take up the challenge of becoming an umpire. At first he found the training difficult but he soon became accustomed to the pace of the role as he had played football at Werribee for five years and was used to the intensity. Darcy has also played competitive basketball & cricket, trains with an athletics group and also plays the drums in a local indie rock band. Even at this early stage of his umpiring career, Darcy says the experience has allowed him to see the role of the umpire much differently to what he had considered it to be when he was just a player. Darcy admits he now has a much greater respect for umpires and the job they do, and looks forward to running the boundary throughout Season 2011.

Melanie Thompson-Allen, Boundary Umpire

MATTHEW MATHER is only fourteen and comes from a long line of umpires. Mather is in Year Nine at Caroline Springs and is in his second year of umpiring in the WRFL. It was a natural progression for Mather to become an umpire as he followed in the footsteps of his father (Mark) and two brothers (Josh & Tim). Mather enjoys the training at Scovell which he says is tough but rewarding and helps him to get fitter. He started by running the boundary in the Under-18 grade and due to positive reports he progressed to the reserves last season. Now his small frame can be seen controlling the boundary lines in the Division One seniors competition. As a player he racked up forty-five games with Caroline Springs before deciding that umpiring was a better option. Mather says that sometimes the abuse from over-passionate spectators can be a negative when umpiring, but he still thoroughly enjoys running the boundary in the WRFL.

Steve Sutton, Umpires' Association Vice-President

DIVISION ONE

By Leigh Eustace

Whilst we never underestimate the importance of four points in the close Division One competition, this afternoon's matches sees a little more added intrigue with several teams urgently needing to make a stance and relaunch their tilt at their finals or face the reality of falling short of their 2011 ambitions.

This is none more evident than for the Kangaroos who after notching their first victory last weekend now face the toughest test in the league as they travel to McLean Reserve to face the Woodsmen. Despite Spotswood being heavy favourites Sunshine will be looking to capitalise on last week's win, and a big performance here will get their season back on track. A bad loss however and the Kangas are back treading water, and will be firmly entrenched in the bottom three.

Another team who can make a similar stance this week is St Albans who were taken to the cleaners last week by a rampaging Spotswood. Still yet to prove their credentials as a real title challenger in 2011, the Saints get a second chance to step up against a Grand Final outfit this weekend when the travel to Albion. The visitors will go in underdogs but will still put up one hell of a fight – and a win here would give the Saints plenty of confidence if the sides were to meet again at season's end.

A different kind of stance is required by the Vikings who tackle North Footscray this weekend at Hansen Street. A gutsy performance last week against Albion saw the Vikings fall just three goals short, and the side are keen to remain in the leaders' shadows knowing they're capable come post-season. Anything other than a resounding win against the Red Devils this weekend will see all that momentum gained from last Saturday's fixture lost.

In the final two games of the round, Hoppers Crossing don't have to trek far to tackle Glenorden, and the Warriors must win and win well if they hold hope of getting back in the frame. Meanwhile Port Colts entertain Sunshine Heights, with the four points critical as they look to get back in the game.

WARRIORS GO PINK

Hoppers Crossing Stage Annual Ladies Day

The Hoppers Crossing Football Club hosted their annual Ladies Day Luncheon last weekend, and while the Hoppers boys took on Sunshine Heights, Kylie Buckingham, Nicole Dowie and the social committee hosted more than a 100 ladies for the now traditional 'touch of pink' get-together in the Warrior social rooms.

Hoppers Crossing Club President Greg King said it was a great day for the HCFC, especially the ladies of the club.

"They had an enjoyable day with a real party atmosphere," said King.

"I always say that the ladies of the club, whether it is a junior player's Mum or senior player's partner or girlfriend, are one of the most important groups. If they feel a part of the club, it really helps the whole club and ensures success off the field and a happier playing group."

This year's event coincided with Mother's Day and the WRFL Ladies Round, and in keeping with this theme the Hoppers Crossing social rooms looked befitting of a lady, decked out with hundreds of pink balloons and decorations. A big thank you to Shane Buckingham the clubs Senior Football Director who helped create the amazing pink atmosphere.

Ladies from all parts of the club joined the celebrations with a mix of committee members or partners, junior and senior player Mums, sponsors, wives and girlfriends who all joined in the fun of the day. A very special guest who took on the responsibility of tossing the coin for the senior game was Hoppers Crossing junior female player with the under 12's Kayla Koropecykj.

The annual Hoppers Crossing Ladies Day is an important event on the social calendar and is used to raise much needed funds for the club. This year the money raised will go towards purchasing new run out jackets for the under 18's teams. To commemorate and acknowledge the efforts of the ladies from the footy club a pink Hoppers Crossing logo will be emblazoned on the top.

With the serious side of fundraising over the ladies took to the field at half time for the now famous goal kicking competition. Showing that goal kicking in stilettos is a real skill junior mum Sandra Bistisi blitzed the field and won a gift hamper courtesy of Liquor Legends.

The "best touch of pink" outfit went to the beautiful Gabby, while the raffle prizes were won by junior mum Leigh Meddings, committee member Anne McKenzie and junior coach's wife Lisa Allen. Hoppers Crossing Football Club would like to thank everyone who attended and in particular Kylie Buckingham and Nicole Dowie who did a wonderful job planning, organising and hosting the event. A special thank you to George and staff from the sports club for their continued support.

FROM DEER PARK TO DEMONS

Mahkae Selected For Exclusive Academy

Deer Park Football Club Youth Girls player Bianca Mahkae was one of only 55 girls from across Victoria, recently accepted into the Melbourne Football Club 'Trident Girls Football Academy'. Deer Park Football Club, in the first year of participating in the Youth Girls Competition, are extremely proud of the way Bianca represented the club during her time at the Academy and can already see the benefits of the football and life skills that she received.

The Academy is aimed at supporting, promoting and championing young girls and women, playing and administrating the game of Australian Rules Football. The Academy was held during the school holidays, with 55 Youth Girls players from around Victoria participating in the program. The program offered an extraordinary experience that was designed to enhance the girls' football abilities, as well as further develop their media, communications and leadership skills.

Mahkae said that she was grateful with the opportunity, and that attending the Academy was an invaluable experience that would further her career in the game.

"The two days that I attended the MFC Trident Academy I learnt about things such as leadership, teamwork, dealing with the media and careers within the AFL," said Mahkae.

"The highlight of my time was definitely running a clinic for the Auskick kids, teaching them how to play football. Also making new friends with the same interest as me and meeting the Melbourne FC players. In the future I can definitely see myself having a career within the AFL, hopefully playing football in the league".

The Academy was held at the MCG, with participants undergoing a wide range of activities to gain a greater understanding and insight into working within an AFL club. Highlights of the two-day Academy included a full day workshop with Leading Teams, focusing on leadership development and goal setting, media training, a careers in football workshop, a training session with Melbourne Football Club coaches and VWFL state players and the delivery of a junior membership clinic in conjunction with Melbourne Football Club players.

Deer Park President Mark McGoldrick said Mahkae's selection was a great boost for her own individual development as well as the club strives to get a female team on the park.

"Bianca's selection was a real bonus for the club in its push to field a girls team," said McGoldrick.

"It has added some real excitement to the group which has now grown to 15-20 girls training two nights a week just like the boys do. It has inspired other girls to take the plunge and have a try at a game they obviously have watched from a distance for some time. Most of Bianca's team mates have never played football before but are loving the opportunity presented to them."

"The most impressive thing about the girls is seeing a group of 10 – 12 of them at the senior games on Saturday afternoons still dressed in their footy jumpers – proud of themselves for having a go and opening doors for other girls, in a domain dominated by males!"

DIVISION TWO

By Leigh Eustace

When the cats are away the mice will play. In this case a big, powerful cat, the Deer Park Lions. Deer Park have the bye this week and therefore it presents an opportunity for other sides to make amends on previous efforts or to capitalise on good form – giving those teams the chance to hone that dream and take down the almighty king of the jungle.

For Deer Park's closest rival in the standings, Albanvale, the opportunity exists to join the Lions on points when they entertain Laverton at Station Road. The Cobras have a fair bit at stake this next fortnight, firstly the chance, as aforementioned, to match their fierce rivals perfect start to the season, but more importantly a good performance today is critical because of next week. The cobalt-and-whites needn't get ahead of themselves and must stay focused on a much improved Laverton side who will back themselves for the upset - however over the horizon the match of season awaits when the Lions take on the Cobras. So far it's all been about Deer Park, but conceivably we may have a new league leader in a fortnight's time, so for Albanvale it all starts today against the Magpies.

Elsewhere, we see Coburg Districts travel to Wyndhamvale. The Lions matched the league front runners for three quarters last week, while the Falcons have been more than impressive and want to make third their own with four points today at home.

Parkside will head to West Footscray eager to bounce back after a gallant four goal loss to Albanvale last week, and the Roosters all of a sudden have the chance to go three-two with a win over the Maggies.

Elsewhere two teams desperate for a win face off at Caroline Springs, the Lakers haven't won since the opening round, the Roadrunners haven't won yet in 2011. And finally the Yarraville-Seddon Eagles head to Braybrook looking to maintain sixth spot on the ladder and stay in touch with the top five.

UMPIRES CORNER

News From The Umpires' Association

Players & coaches might think they are the only ones who strive to be involved in a Grand Final, but for umpires these games are also a big event. It doesn't necessarily have to be a Division One or Division Two final, even if it is the Under 11C fixture it is still a massive event for all involved.

The umpires selected to officiate in the WRFL Grand Finals are told to put their best foot forward when the big day dawns. Hopefully by that stage of the season they are as fit as they ever will be and ready to cope with nerves, weather, hostile spectators, agitated players, infuriated coaches and a host of other possible problems and unexpected surprises.

Some umpires do get disappointed when they are told which game they have been appointed to as they have set their hearts, minds and souls on umpiring at a particular standard. Just as players experience heart-breaking let-downs, the same can occur with field, boundary and goal umpires. While some umpires fall short of their objective and others attain their wish, there will always be a group that far exceeds their goal. It may be a case of hard work, outstanding performances or maybe even a slice of luck.

Getting a grand final can be the pinnacle of a career or it can even be a stepping stone to bigger and better things. Some of those who umpired in the WRFL's Division One Grand Final between Spotswood and Albion last year have already taken a step towards officiating at a higher level. Tim Carrington (field), Leslie Aldrich (boundary) and Ricky Wallace (goal) were all selected to trial with the VFL squads during pre-season in the hope that they be asked to join. After a series of practice matches all three earned a place on the respective panels and are now officiating in various VFL matches around the metropolitan area and beyond.

DIVISION ONE (U18)

Proudly Sponsored by Werribee Tigers Football Club

Four rounds into the season and it looks like there are three real contenders in the race for the flag, with last weekend's winners Hoppers Crossing, Altona & St Albans all sitting comfortably atop the Division One ladder.

After a slipup in Round One against Altona, the Warriors have been in dominating form with wins over Albion (121 points), North Footscray (186 points) and Sunshine Heights (230 points) over the past month. With a percentage sitting above 650 and less than 100 points kicked against them in four games, one has to consider Hoppers the true 'form' side of the competition.

Above them on the ladder are two undefeated sides, Altona, who last weekend accounted to Albion by 26 points and St Albans who snuck home against Spotswood by 7 points. While both are sitting on top of the ladder with flawless win-loss records, the fact the Vikings didn't depose of Albion by more last weekend does raise some concerns for their next meeting with the Warriors later this season.

Similarly St Albans were all but gone at the final change against a fired-up Spotswood outfit, but charged home in the final term kicking five goals to one to win by 7 points. It makes for another few interesting contests over the coming weekends, with the top sides all having to play each other by the conclusion of Round Nine.

This weekend Hoppers Crossing enjoy the bye, while Altona travel to North Footscray and St Albans play away at Albion. Both games could potentially see a further gap put between the top three and the rest of the field and will add further enticement to those fixtures in the coming weeks that pit the ladder leaders against one another.

In the other game of the round heavyweights Spotswood and Sunshine meet at McLean Reserve, with both sides only having won one 'real' fixture but showing promise in other matches. If Spotswood play anything like they did last weekend, then they may well upset the fourth places Sunshine - with both teams needing a win to stay in touch with the top three.

SEAGULLS' STELLAR START

Williamstown Women Record Debut Win

What a memorable opening month it has been for Western Region Football League sponsors, the Williamstown Seagulls. The boys in blue & gold are sitting on top of the VFL ladder, and have cruised into the second round of the Foxtel Cup after a comfortable win in round one of the knockout competition over in the west.

Locally the opening month has been just as successful for the Seagulls with the launch of two new teams furthering the club's aim to rebrand themselves as the community club. The Williamstown Seagulls Youth Girls Side were given a rude awakening in the world of competitive football in their debut game, as they were drawn up against heavyweights St Albans who held a clean sheet down back. The girls wearing the historical blue and gold sash didn't even score in the opening week, and were left to return to the training track to attempt to turn around a disappointing opening to the year.

In Round Two the girls worked harder than ever at training throughout the week and were determined to not only score but win a quarter of their clash against Deer Park. Some doubted that this would be possible and that the girls could turn around such a large defeat in the opening week, however they did so and some, winning the clash by five points, 7.6.48 to 7.3.43. Best on ground going was Carli Rickman, daughter of the local Williamstown football legend Ian "Chops" Rickman who brought her father's goal kicking accuracy and power back to life by snagging two goals. It was great showing by the girls who on that form should have some more magnificent wins throughout the year.

The Williamstown Seagulls FIDA side, a community team for footballers with a disability, continued the Seagulls excellent start to 2011, winning their debut fixture in Round One by an incredible 112 points. The FIDA side was playing its first official game in Williamstown colours after transferring from the Broadmeadows Kangaroos at the end of the 2010 and the new colours gave the Club a massive boost as they dominated in all areas of the field, all day. These great stories of Williamstown's community interaction will hopefully set a precedent for other VFL clubs throughout Victoria – with a emphasis on community clearly having a significant positive impact on all involved.

COOKING UP A STORM

Seagulls Given A Nutrition Masterclass

It was out with footy jumpers and in with aprons last week, as the boys from the Williamstown Seagulls' Liam Picken Academy took part in cooking lessons hosted by former Essendon Premiership player Jason Johnson. Johnson offered nutritional advice; particularly in relation to what the boys should be eating pre and post match in order to give them the best opportunity to perform well. All Academy members listened with intent and were eager to learn how they can get the best out of themselves come game day.

Demonstrations were given on how to make a chicken stir fry, omelette, burritos, raspberry muffins and Bircher muesli. Once they were equipped with all the information and skills, that's when things started to heat up, with a fierce Williamstown Masterchef battle played out in the kitchen.

The intense competition saw the boys produce beautiful interpretations of Johnson's stir fry and burritos, which they got to enjoy at the end of the class. Johnson's company Dineamic were kind enough to give each participant a recipe book to take home, so they can continue to make fresh healthy meals and even pass on their new knowledge to other Williamstown players.

Football and Development Manager Chris Dixon stated that the boys thoroughly enjoyed the chance to learn new skills and test themselves in the kitchen. "It was a great opportunity for the guys to hear from an ex-AFL player in Jason on all things food and nutrition. A lot of the guys probably think they are eating the right things but in reality they're not. The boys relished the chance to jump into the kitchen and test out their new found skills. There were some very impressive performances, although

Ed Carr Attempts To Prepare A Nutritious Meal

I don't think we will see any of the guys on Masterchef any time soon!"

The Liam Picken Academy is educating Williamstown's up and coming stars not only how to be better footballers, but also important life skills which they can utilise off the field and within their local communities. The cooking class was the fifth of ten sessions as part of the Development program and certainly one of the most competitive judging by the concentration, commitment and flair that was seen in the kitchen!

The Academy was established late last year and is a high quality personal development program that provides support to first and second year players aged between 18-21. Young footballers with dreams of being drafted to an AFL list or aspiring to be involved with an elite VFL Club are given the opportunity to realise their full football potential. Future activities planned include sessions on financial advice, goal setting, resume writing, time management, health and wellbeing as well as organising a charity event for homeless youths.

DIVISION TWO (U18)

Proudly Sponsored by Werribee Tigers Football Club

It was business as usual last weekend for ladder leaders Point Cook, who extended their unbeaten run to five games with a comfortable away win at Hoppers Crossing.

The Bulldogs were caught off-guard in the early stages and trailed the home side at quarter time, before piling on 15 goals to 1 in the final three terms to run out 78 point winners. The start of the year couldn't have been better for the ladder leaders with their young side answering every challenge that has been thrown before them. Zac Foley (23 goals), Dane Thomas (17 goals) & Jordan Lampi (15 goals) have led the side's charge contributing 55 goals between them, and this weekend the boys should add to their individual tallies when they travel to Town Centre Oval to meet Caroline Springs.

It has been a tough start to the season for the Lakers with just one win from five games, and it will be another tough ask this weekend as they host the form side of the competition.

In the match-of-the-round second placed Deer Park travel to third placed Wyndhamvale. Both teams have only dropped one game this season, against ladder leaders Point Cook, and a great contest ensues as the sides aim to stay within four points of the all-conquering Bulldogs. On paper it is hard to split the teams, with strength all around the park, however the Lions did almost role the Bulldogs in Round One while the Falcons were comprehensively beaten by 70-odd points, and on that basis the Lions should be considered favorites in this one.

In the weekend's other games, Hoppers Crossing and Parkside will aim to leapfrog the loser of the previous game and move into the top three with a win, while Altona should run out comfortable winners over St Albans in a clash of the seconds sides.

PADDY'S PROFILES

By Patrick Comerford

MITCHELL NORTON is one of those footballers that everyone looks up to. On and off the field he is a natural born leader – and his advice, motivation & leadership has a distinct impact on everyone he takes to the field with. His ball skills are amongst the best in the league. He is both dominant overhead and around the packs, has a powerful kick to match and really can dominate when playing in any part of the field.

Norton has been playing since under-nines, this being his seventh season and just over a week ago he also completed a short stint playing in the under-fifteens Western Jets side. He had been selected as a forward and played commendably throughout all his matches. When I personally watch Mitch play, I see confidence and belief and that's how he takes those amazing marks, each & every time. Well that, and his superb kicking accuracy.

Another factor in his success is his ability to gather great speed in very short distances. Playing as a permanent half-forward last year, he blitzed the opposition. I have had two seasons competing against Norton and I love competing against him. There is nothing more worrying than attempting to tag the big man and realizing he's having one of those days where he is just unstoppable. The quarters where I've been stuck running with him, all over the park, have been some of the longest twenty minutes of my life. He runs you to every corner of the ground, and then, when you're totally exhausted, you realize that he's only just warming up.

When my boys lost the Grand Final to Norton's Altona last year it was heartbreaking for me, but at the same time I watched on in amazement as Norton just switched it up a gear in the biggest fixture of the season. He once again showed why he's got plenty of potential to do well out of our game, either through the TAC Cup program or through the higher grades of club football.

His name is one to remember and one that already gets referred to with plenty of admiration. No doubt because of his calibre as a player, but also in part because of his humility. The fact that he is an opponent of mine, yet someone who I hold a great respect for, shows that he's a true ambassador of the game & his club, and is someone who all around the league is acknowledged & appreciated as being a class above the rest.

News From Around The League

Sunshine Football Club celebrated their 'Smartline' Ladies Day last round, as over 100 partners, girlfriends, mothers, family & friends enjoyed an afternoon together at Kinder Smith Reserve.

It was a fantastic day with prizes, live band and lots of bubbly (supplied by our sponsors Brian & Kathleen Hocking at Smartline, West Footscray). It was a fantastic day for the ladies of the club to get together to meet up, have a dance and get to know one another. A great day had by all, with a few sore heads the next morning. Well done to Kristie Stockwell and her team on an excellent function!

The club continues to set the pace in the league with their off-field events with a forthcoming Trivia Night & Mexican Theme Night lined up for later this month. A Mid-Year Ball, Dancing With The Stars Event & Daiquiri Day are all scheduled for later in the season – giving the WAGS plenty to enjoy while the boys are on the park.

AFFILIATE UPDATES:

Western Bulldogs

Western Bulldog coach Rodney Eade admits his team is going through a bit of a rough patch after suffering their third consecutive loss to the Sydney Swans, in front of a small crowd of just over 10,000 at Manuka Oval last weekend.

The Dogs had a promising start against the Swans, winning the contested ball and their fifth opening term for the season, yet all that was wasted as they made many errors, missing goals from directly in front and being untidy with the ball throughout the match.

A frustrated Rodney Eade said that he is not afraid to make some changes to his side and the boys can expect a few more alterations to come as the Bulldogs look to find players who are willing to work hard and play four consistent quarters.

New recruit Zephaniah Skinner got his first taste of AFL for the Bulldogs after he was substituted on for ruckman Ben Hudson in the third quarter. He ended the match with two touches, two marks and just one tackle and will only get better after his first take of the big time.

On a positive note, Daniel Giansiracusa managed two goals after returning from injury last week, whilst Shaun Higgins, Barry Hall and youngster Tom Liberatore are likely to be named in the side for their must win clash against Richmond in Round Eight.

Off the track, the Bulldogs are proud to have hit the 30,000 membership mark as the tally goes to 30,325 after the club's Lost Dog campaign was introduced only a few weeks ago. The Club are still looking to regain 7,809 members by season's end that have yet to re-sign.

Werribee Tigers

The Tigers suffered a disappointing loss to the Bendigo Bombers in Round Six, going down to the red-and-black at Windy Hill by 66 points. Werribee failed to fire against the strength of the Bombers side, with inaccurate kicking costing them in the end – in the final quarter the Tigers could only kick 1.3 compared to the Bombers six straight.

It was always going to be a tough ask lining up against a close to full-strength Bendigo side. Topped up with regular Essendon players such as Prismall, Hibberd and Slattery, the Tigers were no match for the team that is now sitting pretty in third place on both the VFL and AFL ladders. Despite a close to best-on-ground performance from Majak Daw, the magician failed to have any impact on the scoreboard. Similarly, senior Kangaroos' tagger Levi Greenwood and forward Ben Warren failed to punish the tireless Bombers up forward.

Things were more positive for the reserves however, who scored a gutsy 24-point win away from home against North Ballarat. In what was a toughly fought contest throughout the first three quarters of the match, the Tigers broke away in the final term, kicking 3.3 versus North Ballarat's 1.1.

Being the only team in the VFL yet to receive a break due to a bye, the Tigers will receive a well-deserved rest in Round Seven, so they can recharge the batteries and be ready to face the Northern Bullants in the senior's competition the following week.

Williamstown Seagulls

The Seagulls lived up to expectations in last weekend's 'Clash of the Bay', downing Sandringham in convincing fashion by 35 points. In the match held at Avalon Airport Oval, which was telecast live on ABC TV, Williamstown led at every change, and are now confidently sitting in second spot on the VFL ladder after round 6.

Brett Goodes proved that he was a fantastic pick-up for the Seagulls in 2011, with the former North Ballarat player producing a best-on-ground performance, booting five goals. Overall, the Seagulls shared the ball around, with ten goal kickers contributing to their 21 goals. Brian Lake didn't let the media scrutiny surrounding his time at the Bulldogs affect his on-field performance, bagging two majors, and in only his second game with the senior side for the season, Matthew Panos booted four.

Young Bulldog recruit Luke Dahlhaus also continued to impress in Seagulls blue and gold, with his contribution to the goal-kicking spree and pace in the middle resulting in yet another close-to best-on-ground performance. The only question surrounding Dahlhaus is how much longer will it be before he is pulled up to help out the struggling Western Bulldogs side?

Once again Williamstown will be competing in the 'Match of the Round' in round 7, taking on the competition leaders Port Melbourne at home. With both teams currently unbeaten, Williamstown only being relegated to second spot on percentage, it is sure to be a cracking game, so make sure you get down to TEAC Oval in time for kick-off on Sunday at 2pm.

Western Jets

Despite losing their Round Five clash against the Oakleigh Chargers last weekend, the Western Jets still improved on their performance the week before when they were comprehensively beaten by Gippsland.

The Chargers dominated in the first quarter, kicking four majors and one behind, whilst the Jets kicked two goals – more than what they kicked in an entire first half of football last week. The second quarter saw the Jets come out firing, with five goals for the term, taking the momentum away from the Chargers to go into the half time break with a one point lead.

The Oakleigh boys came back strongly in the third, taking back their lead as they kept the Jets relatively quiet for the term, consolidating their lead by 14 points going into the last break. The final quarter was goal for goal as both teams managed four majors with the Chargers holding on to run out 13 point winners.

Despite their third consecutive loss, the Jets came away with a few positives with Jordan Mead applying seven tackles, Lachlan Fairley taking the most contested marks for the team whilst tall man Dylan Jones was solid with 17 hit outs for the match.

Jack Charleston was again among the best ending the match with three goals, whilst Dylan Jones, Harley Inglis, Captain Adam Kennedy, Ajdin Elkasovic and Charlis Nastasi were also named in the Jets
