IDENTIFYING INDIGENOUS ISSUES

From the AFL Indigenous Programs Manager

Australian Rules Football is the sport of choice for Indigenous Australians. There are over 90,000 indigenous participants in Australian Football Programs, and over 11% of current players are of an indigenous background. This connection provides a unique opportunity for Indigenous and Non Indigenous Australians to work together in partnership. The AFL acknowledges Indigenous Australians are Traditional Custodians of this land and have been practicing culture for over 60,000 years. The AFL acknowledges and respects the customs, values and traditions of Indigenous people and their special relationship with the land

The AFL is proud of the contribution of Indigenous players to our game. On the field our Indigenous players proudly acknowledge their heritage as Warriors. The history of Aboriginal resilience and the struggle for rights, respect and recognition is important to Aboriginal people. The Dreamtime at the G match and supporting activities provide an important opportunity to provide cultural awareness in an interesting, creative and stimulating way and to educate the industry and our fans about Indigenous history and culture.

Across many generations and tribal groups, Aboriginal people have played a game called Marngrook. They express themselves and their culture with natural skills on the field and with an absolute commitment to work hard off the field. That is just one of the many ways Aboriginal people have fought to keep their culture alive and strong.

Many other warriors have come before players, from artists, to scientists to activists, such as; William Barrack, Pastor Sir Doug Nicholls, Lionel Rose and Maurice Rioli. When they walk out onto the field, they follow in their footsteps.

Aboriginal players consider themselves to be 'modern day warriors' playing for the oldest living culture in the world; their people, their language groups, their communities, their future. In their community they're looked up to as leaders and role models not just on the field, but just as importantly leaders off the field. Ex AFL greats are now working in our AFL Indigenous programs managing high performance initiatives producing excellent results.

COMMUNITY SPIRIT AT THE SNAKE PIT

A Fresh Start For A Struggling Family

In a true act of community spirit, St Bernard's Junior Football Club have rallied together to assist the family of a young aboriginal boy who spent some time at the club last year.

Club coach Damien Sullivan's family has looked after young Tracker Mungatopi and his brothers & sisters from time to time during their visits to Melbourne, with Sullivan's involvement with the family coming about after a visit to Melville Island some years ago.

"I have known Tracker's father Tristan for many years," said Sullivan.

"Tristan came from a very tough background in Snake Bay on Melville Island where alcohol, drug abuse and domestic violence are big problems."

"He is only 24 and is raising four kids under eight years of age on his own. He's obviously doing it tough but he has moved the family away from Snake Bay to Morwell to give the kids a better chance at life."

Setting up in Morwell the family was struggling with purchasing the basic necessities, until the St Bernards community came together to assist the family.

"The family are in very basic digs but it is all Tristan can afford," said Sullivan.

"We took the kids to Morwell on the weekend with a set of swings and some second hand bikes which they loved but I was hoping that we can get some assistance from the community."

After an initial call for help the St Bernard's community rallied behind the family donating a range of items including lounge chairs, kitchen chairs, a stereo, a portable fan, pillows, linen, a TV, a coffee table and a bed head. There was also a number of cash donations which will be put towards buying a clothes dryer, and some sort of heater.

"The response so far has been terrific and we have had to knock back some items that we cannot fit into their small house," said Sullivan.

Young Tracker Mungatopi with St Bernard's Coach Damien Sullivan

Tristan Mungatopi said he was grateful for the support the club & community had shown his family.

"When Damien Sullivan told me about his idea to approach the St Bernard's Footy community for a bit of help setting up my home, I had no idea what the response would be; a genuine display of goodwill and an overwhelming example of practical reconciliation in action," said Mungatopi.

"An unlikely community of people banding together to help a young family from the Tiwi Islands. The trailer load of furniture and other goods that Damien and Jo brought here has turned our modest house into a real home."

"It has been hard to move away from our community Milikapiti (Snake Bay) on the Tiwi Islands so I can give the kids a better start in life – but this challenge is being made easier knowing that there are good people out there who are prepared to help, people who I see have given us a hand up and not a hand out."

SUBURBAN RIVALRY AT ITS BEST

Preview: Deer Park vs Albanvale

There are two things we know about Albanvale coach David Connell – one, he rarely speaks out of line and two, he has shown enormous respect to the stalwarts and values of the club he has lead in the brief time he has spent there.

Yet it hasn't taken him long to be educated by those who have convened around Bruce Reserve for year after year, to get a grasp of just what suburban rivalry means to those involved. It attracts both people & players to the club. Not just in the hope of success, but to be a part of a game that divides the local community, yet brings it together.

"They just want to be a part of it, they know about the rivalry," said the Cobras' coach.

"It's almost like in the AFL when players go to Essendon or Collingwood to play in ANZAC Day."

Deer Park president Mark McGoldrick agrees.

"Albanvale and Deer Park, no matter where we are on the ladder, whether one's on the bottom and one's on the top of the ladder, they're close games," he said.

"It's a rivalry (alright), we're only two kilometres apart."

The season's first matchup between the Lions and the Cobras has a little bit extra with the added element of two undefeated teams looking to protect those records, whilst of course chomping at the bit to quash the other's perfect start.

Deer Park have taken all before them, well-fancied to take home the silverware pre-season and scarily, if anything, exceeded initial expectations thus far. Five and zip & with a percentage nearing 400, the Hume Street Boys have simply been untouchable.

And then there's Albanvale, a side who not only have a great chance to go four points clear on top this weekend, but to also take first honours in a clash of sides that may repeat itself on the final weekend of the season.

"We're talking it up to be like a final, we've got no doubt it will be like a finals atmosphere," Connell said.

"There'll be plenty of people there, the tempo of the game will be high and I dare say it'll be pretty firey in the first five minutes.

"Regardless of the outcome it's a great opportunity to see where we are at, if we can match it with them, and if we can't what we need to fix moving later into the year.

"Everyone expects them to just roll the season undefeated; so we've got nothing to lose."

The Deer Park camp are up to the task though, they are fully aware of the position they now find themselves in, and are ready to be the hunted.

"Where we are sitting we've obviously become the yardstick so all of a sudden sides are going to come for us," McGoldrick said.

"It's definitely a crucial game."

The stage is set for a wonderful day of suburban footy with two teams with perfect records. They are two clubs with an intense, inner ill-feeling for that mob down the road.

For the Lions' president, he can't wait for it.

"It's always a big game, we've got a mutual respect for each other, even though it's a dogfight on the ground and we needle each other off the ground we stand together and watch the game together and have a beer," McGoldrick says.

And with the added element of the Bucky Cup at stake, a figure who looms large for both clubs, a figure who demands great respect and reflection, Connell agrees with the sentiment. But he can't concede that the relationship between the two clubs is rosey in the slightest.

"The two clubs just don't like each other."

And on Saturday, no doubt, it will be on for young and old.

DIVISION ONE

By Leigh Eustace

After all the preseason hype surrounding Sunshine, the Division One heavyweights have failed to fire this campaign and after just one win in five outings the Kangaroos are desperate to improve their ladder position. They've got a massive mountain to climb to put themselves in the finals picture come the second half of the season – and this weekend it really doesn't get any easier for the blue & gold.

They did have a dip last week and led Spotswood at three quarter time, but alas, no chocolates once more, and another chance at four points slipped through their fingers. And now, after coming so close, they head back home to take on a rampaging Albion who were comprehensive in their dismantling of St Albans last week. Like last year, the Cats are hanging off Spotswood's every move, like the annoying younger sibling you just can't shake, and look ready to emulate their 2010 effort with eerie similarity. Albion will look to roll on and keep the good stuff going, while the Kangaroos will be no easybeats and are hungry after an encouraging first three quarters last Saturday.

The Saints on the other hand fell short in their opportunity to claim a big scalp last weekend and now head home to host another side that slipped up last weekend, North Footscray. Those Vikings travelled to Hansen Reserve and got a very solid 56-point win sending the Red Devils to seventh with a two and three record. Playing St Albans at their ground would be some task but what a landmark for their first year up it would be if they could claim the Saints this week.

Port Colts host Hoppers Crossing in a third versus fourth matchup, with both teams shaping up to be potential finalists this season. The Colts & the Warriors were both a little off the pace early but have all of a sudden come of age and now the chance to cement a claim on a top four finish beckons. For the loser, it's a massive four points dropped.

The final two games of the round see two strong opponents in Altona and Spotswood taking on Sunshine Heights and Glenorden respectively.

“ROCKIN” RONNIE BURNS

An Interview With An Indigenous Great

With the AFL celebrating the now annual Indigenous Round this weekend to recognise the achievements of indigenous players within the league, the WRFL Footy Record caught up with former AFL great Ronnie Burns this week to discuss his career, post-football roles and his involvement with Australia's first televised Indigenous Football Show.

While most people first noticed you as a player when you were drafted to Geelong, you did spend five seasons making a name for yourself in Perth. How did your experiences playing for West Perth help when drafted to Geelong?

Having moved away from home to play football in Perth, it made it a lot easier to then shift again to play football in Geelong. I guess playing for West Perth was almost an apprenticeship for me. I had already gone through all the issues of homesickness when playing in Perth, and went home twice, so by the time I arrived in Geelong I had already gone through that transitional phase. The fact that Geelong was an hour out of Melbourne did also make the move a lot easier. It was like moving to a small country town, and I wasn't caught up in the hustle and bustle of Melbourne.

What are your best memories of those first couple of seasons at the club?

Getting drafted is every kids dream, and I didn't have big ambitions as a junior so to end up at Geelong and to rub shoulders with the great man Gary Ablett was amazing. To be surrounded by so many great players like Billy Brownless & Barry Stoneham, was a great experience. I was there to kick goals, and that was a fairly big responsibility, but I thoroughly enjoyed my time there.

Those years at Geelong were obviously not as successful as the past couple of years have been for the club. As a former player do you get some satisfaction from the club's current successes?

Absolutely. Football is about timing, and while we didn't have a great deal of success in my time with Geelong I got to play with some great players, made some great friends, and had some great experiences. In a way all the players that came through the club at that time contributed in some part to the current success, and to see guys playing in a premiership that I remember being part of our VFL side back then was great. I called the 2007 Grand Final on the radio and it was an emotional day.

The Marngrook Football Show Team Including Ronnie Burns (Far Right)

Since your playing days at Geelong & Adelaide, how have you remained involved in the game?

I went up to Darwin and played under Michael McLean for a season, and then played at Port Fairy for a year and then spent three years as playing-coach at Berwick. Going back to suburban footy was a chance to put something back into the game, and to help the development of young kids. It is a chance to pass on knowledge & advice, and to try and educate young players on how to get to the top.

And how did you get involved in the Marngrook Football Show?

It actually started as a radio show about fifteen years ago and back then when I was playing I used to be one of their correspondents. It then evolved into a show on Channel 31, and then NITV came onboard through their affiliation with Foxtel. This year is our first year on the ABC, and we have been getting a great reception. The AFL are very supportive and have provided rights to all footage & players. While we do have an indigenous focus, we do open the show up to issues, players & viewers involving both indigenous & non-indigenous players.

Ronnie Burns (Far Right) With The Marngrook Football Show Crew

The AFL's promotion of Indigenous Issues has no doubt evolved considerably since you first started out, what has been the biggest change since your early playing days?

Clubs have come a long way in helping indigenous players settle into clubs. They've now branched out to the communities, and put better structures in place which has helped not just the indigenous players but those from other multicultural backgrounds settle in. The AFL has done their homework, and things have come a long way over the past ten years.

DIVISION TWO

By Leigh Eustace

All eyes will be on the Deer Park & Albanvale fixture this weekend, as the two undefeated local rivals face off for early season supremacy and municipal bragging rights. The Lions will want nothing less than to continue as they are, and dominate the league en route to finals success. But not only is there a plucky challenger sitting one rung below, but it's that plucky neighbour up Station Road who will love nothing more than to break their rivals' run.

But there are two other big games in Division Two this week that will see how the rest of the pack will fall into place as we approach the halfway mark of the season.

At Cole Road we see Coburg Districts, who have showed promising signs of late, take on an impressive Yarraville-Seddon. The Lions sit fifth having won three games with the Eagles one place above them, both on the same amount of wins although the visitors have played one extra game. Coburg has the chance to leapfrog a positional rival and aim at becoming the league's number three, while Yarraville-Seddon could give themselves supreme confidence for the rest of the year with a win on the road at a much-feared venue.

Talking about feared venues, Parkside has every intention on regaining that home ground advantage when they take on the surprising Wyndhamvale who currently sit third on the ladder, with no immediate ambition to relinquish it. The Falcons are big improvers on last year and whilst Parkside will fancy their chances don't put it past this exciting Wyndhamvale side who can improve to four and two should they take down a rebounding Magpies outfit.

The last two games of the week see Laverton hoping to win their fourth game of the year hosting Braybrook and North Sunshine entertaining West Footscray.

UMPIRES CORNER

News From The Umpires' Association

The image of goal umpiring in the WRFL has certainly taken a turn for the better. Hopefully it has been obvious to the players and clubs. There are several main aspects that have been evolving over the past few years.

Firstly, there was the appointment of a new coach for the goal umpiring panel last season. Someone needed to conduct the training of the goalies, further educate them in their craft, show extra leadership to the group and also to appoint them to games. Graeme Hodgart, who had umpired for numerous years, decided to retire and take up the challenge.

Secondly, with the establishment of an Umpiring Academy at Mackillop College in Werribee, the possibility of encouraging, nurturing and teaching young students the skills of umpiring arose. In the first year (2009) there was only one prospective goal umpire amongst the thirty or so youngsters at the academy who were willing to become umpires in the WRFL. That one goalie, Damian Caruana, is still umpiring and regularly does Division 2 senior games. The next year (2010) saw another Mackillop student in Jamie Common, after a brief mentoring program, introduced into WRFL games. He continues to umpire this year and has been joined by seven others who attend training at that academy. A few of them already umpire in the Under 18 grades with a parent stationed behind them to assist if required. Dylan Golz is the sole goalie at the Caroline Springs Academy and has already umpired a handful of games.

Thirdly, a new goal umpiring mentoring system has been introduced. Five of those young students are coupled with an experienced goalie each week, usually in the under 18 games, and together they umpire the game at the same end.

WRFL Goal Umpire Sebastian Garro In Action Last Weekend

Hopefully as the year progresses they will increase their understanding, knowledge, skill and confidence and be able to be given games in their own right.

Fourthly, there have been a number of new young goal umpires who have joined the ranks at Scovell Reserve. Last year it was Wade Millington and Cameron Linnell who arrived and said they'd come to umpire. This year it has been Jake Bokhove, James Vrselja, Lachlan Rycroft and Brendan Moloney. All these six are young teenagers.

Not only has the number of goal umpires increased, which is important because now they are required in the under 18 grades, but the average age of goalies in the WRFL has more than halved in the past two years! Hopefully more and more young people decide to wave flags because it does give you some handy pocket money but more importantly it keeps you involved in our great game and also you get to meet and socialize with a group of like-minded people.

DIVISION ONE (U18)

Proudly Sponsored by Werribee Tigers Football Club

Last weekend threw up more questions than answers in the Division One competition with the two undefeated sides continuing their flawless records but in contrasting ways. Now ladder leaders Altona comprehensively blitzed North Footscray away, piling on 33 scoring shots to two in a comprehensive 121 point win.

St Albans on the other hand were a little less impressive, similarly taking on a winless side but only getting home by 34 points. Although Albion started strongly it was a match that was never really in doubt, but the fact the Saints didn't assert their authority like their ladder-leading rivals throws doubt to whether they'll be able to match the Vikings in a couple of weeks time.

This weekend the Saints will roll on with their campaign as they host the winless North Footscray, while Altona host Sunshine Heights in what would be expected to be another one sided fixture. The anomalies of the Division One draw have thrown up plenty of inconsistencies early in the season – and at first look this fixture reads as an enticing first versus fourth clash. Read a little further into the results however and Sunshine Heights have scored two wins courtesy of the bye, and boast a percentage of just 24.

It's an odd middle of the table that should sort itself out in the coming weeks - Hoppers Crossing sit just one spot above Sunshine Heights with a massive percentage of 658, Sunshine sit one spot below with a percentage of 94, and Spotswood are another spot further down despite earning all their points from actual fixtures & should improve on their sixth placing in the coming weeks. Add to that Hoppers having their second consecutive bye this weekend – and it's little wonder while it will take at least half the season to work out exactly who's shaping up to challenge the Vikings & Saints this year.

In the third & final game it is a clash of the heavyweights with Sunshine hosting Albion at McLean Reserve.

GROUP

ACE KARTS

The WRFL's Official Entertainment Partner

Ace Karts is now the official entertainment partner of the Western Region Football League. For the remainder of the WRFL season, Ace Karts will be providing a 20% rebate on the total cost of karting sessions purchased by players and supporters of your football club.

Ace Karts will provide each club with a personalized club code along with artwork which can be included in any club newsletters, emails or other club distribution mediums. This code will then need to be presented on the day of karting in order to redeem the 20% rebate for each club. Ace Karts will then provide the rebate directly to the clubs on a monthly basis.

Only one person from the group attending needs to redeem the code in order for your club to receive the rebate.

Ace Karts is an ideal venue for corporate race days, birthday's, bucks parties and general entertainment, all of which can be used to obtain the redemption. The more people that go racing at Ace Karts from your club, the more your club will raise.

On top of this, Ace Karts can run nights at the venue in place of standard training nights or additional entertainment nights out.

Use this as a pie night, team night or just for an excuse to get out and have some fun.

Unleash The Racing Car Driver In You At Ace Karts!

Ace Karts will provide a direct 20% discount on the cost of racing instead of the rebate. The track can cater for up to 22 karts and Ace Karts can provide exclusive use of the circuit for large groups.

Bookings are required and Ace Karts can only cater for drivers 12 years of age or older. Ace Karts has committed to being a supporter of the local community and look forward to helping your football club.

Ace Karts is a proud sponsor of the WRFL and is located at 20 Carrington Drive, Albion. Ace Karts can be contacted on 9360 5005 for further information.

The Picturesque Track Right In The Heart Of The Western Suburbs

SEVENTY-FIVE YEARS STRONG

FJFC Celebrates Milestone Year In 2011

Supporting clubs are often the heart of a community and Flemington Junior Football Club is no exception. The club is celebrating decades of rich history and celebrates its 75th anniversary this season.

Club Administrator, Jeremy Kruisheer, said the club was looking forward to celebrating such a significant milestone this season.

"We look forward to welcoming 1942 club president, Pat Bergin to an upcoming celebration dinner as well as a selection of excellent past players, including the 1979 premiership team, which North Melbourne's Donald McDonald played amongst with current club coaches Mark Evans and Mark Brizzi," said Kruisheer.

"Activities like this offer a fantastic chance for club members, past and present, to catch up and also gives a great opportunity for the kids to meet some inspirational past players."

The future at Flemington is bright with six junior teams ranging from Under 9's to Under 16's and with recent Grand Final wins in the Under 12 B Grade (2010) and Under 14 B Grade (2005 & 2007) the club is certainly making an impact in the junior ranks.

"We want our kids to be appropriately challenged," explains Kruisheer.

"We want to win around 30 to 70 per cent of our games and stay above the bottom of the ladder, but also make sure players have to work hard to get to the top."

"We have had the joy of having players represent us at state level, but ultimately everyone works together to play as a team."

Kruisheer's son, Toby, who plays with the Under 16's, is quick to point out that the diversity of the club is something that makes it unique.

"The best thing about this footy club is the diverse group of players at the club, and simply getting out there with my mates and playing footy," said Kruisheer.

After being defeated in a Grand Final recently, he is keen to win a flag in the near future and someday wants to play at the standard of his AFL idol, North Melbourne superstar, Brent Harvey.

The club also recently celebrated the AFL debut of former junior player Jasper Pittard. The now Port Adelaide player went to school locally at University High, and first joined the club as a cricket player in 2005 before joining the Under 16 side under Kim Kershaw.

Pittard was highly regarded at the club as a strong left footer with outstanding marking skill and great evasion skills. Pittard was initially selected in a Calder Cannons squad, before moving to Geelong and progressing through the ranks of the Geelong Falcons.

The 20 year-old made his debut against Collingwood in Round One of the 2011 Season, and after a 25 possession game in the 'Showdown' against cross-town rivals Adelaide, was nominated for the 2011 AFL Rising Star Award.

SEAGULLS ASSERT ONLINE PRESENCE

Exciting Changes Continue At Burbank Oval

Williamstown Football Club have launched a brand new website at www.williamstownfc.com.au.

This brand new and exciting website features a completely fresh look and is a marked improvement on the Club's previous outdated design.

No doubt Seagulls supporters will love being able to watch video highlights from the weekend's action each week on SeagullsTV, as well as seeing player, coach and staff video interviews. SeagullsTV will ensure that you'll be able to catch up on all the highlights from the previous round and relive the Seagulls latest win!

All the latest results from match day will be updated regularly with match reports available every Monday for your viewing. With the Seagulls travelling far and wide this year the season fixture is a great way of tracking down where the Gulls are playing all their games this year.

The brand new website features all the latest news, events, photo's and publications from not only the Williamstown Football Club but also Football Williamstown and it's member Clubs. The website will also be of great benefit to the community and help promote the great work being done in the City of Hobson's Bay and beyond.

Members and supporters are now able to renew and purchase their membership online, providing an easy and secure way to support the Seagulls in 2011. With the new website, just a few clicks will see you proudly a part of the Williamstown Football Club! The introduction of the Merchandise store will allow all to purchase their latest supporter gear online and have it delivered straight to their door, meaning you'll be looking the goods on game day.

The Seagulls continue to lead the way in Social Media at VFL Level with each news story allowing guests to interact and share the article on Facebook and Twitter. There is also a link to the Club's Twitter feed and Facebook Page so you can join the 1400+ people who are following Williamstown across the two Social Media platforms.

Williamstown General Manager Brendan Curry said the brand new website is exciting for the Club and will be fantastic for supporters.

"We strive to lead the way at VFL level in every area of our operations. With this new website we certainly feel we're providing our members and supporters unparalleled access and a wide range of new features. The website not only looks great, but it is going to be of great benefit to our members, supporters, sponsors and the wider community."

DIVISION TWO (U18)

Proudly Sponsored by Werribee Tigers Football Club

There's no stopping Point Cook this season as they surge on to a six-zero record, with Caroline Springs the latest side to fall victim to the Bulldogs this season. Inaccurate kicking saved the Lakers from an even greater margin as the ladder-leaders banged on 18.32 to run out 121 point winners. This weekend there is little doubt they'll stretch their unbeaten start to seven games as they host Altona's second side down at Boardwalk Reserve.

Just under Point Cook is a logjam of sides with second to eighth split by just two wins. Deer Park leads the pack with four wins, fresh off a comfortable win away at Wyndhamvale. This weekend the Lions should stay in touch with the ladder-leaders when they host St Albans who are winless after six rounds of football and boast a percentage of just fifteen.

As for the other two games, this is where the interest lies with both clashes likely to prove which teams are the most likely to stay on par with the top two. Third placed Albanvale host fourth placed Hoppers Crossing, and this is a crucial fixture for each side in the context of the season. Albanvale are coming off the bye and have one less win then the Warriors, but their percentage suggests those wins have been more comprehensive then their rivals. Whatever the result, the winner will find themselves in third place after the weekend and the loser will drop to fifth.

The final game is a fifth versus sixth clash as Parkside host Wyndhamvale. The Falcons have one more win then the homeside, but a much lower percentage and it's guaranteed to be a cracking encounter as both teams strive to stay in touch with the rest of the field. For the loser it isn't entirely the end of the road, although we are already seven rounds in with the finals just a few months away.

PADDY'S PROFILES

By Patrick Comerford

THOMAS MADDEN is a footballer that everyone looks to for pointers. The way he handles the ball with such skill, as well as his strength when kicking and marking is amazing. He truly can dominate any part of the field. Tom has been playing since Under 9's, this year being his eighth season.

When people see how well he plays the game, many people ask is Tom Madden any relation to Simon & Justin Madden? He isn't, but he does come from good footballing pedigree with his brother Luke Madden part of the Calder Cannons TAC Cup Premiership side last year.

Tom also looks certain to follow his brother's path, and completed the short Under 16 season with the Calder Cannons last week. He had been selected as a wingman and played commendably throughout the three practice and two metropolitan festival matches.

When I look at Tom play, I see confidence and belief and that's how I think he gets through the pack, every single time. That, and his thinking ability. Another factor in his success is his trademarked weaving run. Dodging players left and right, he is a player that is rarely caught.

Playing as a permanent ruck-rover last year, he blitzed the opposition and the vote count, winning the Competition Best & Fairest by one vote and winning the Club Best & Fairest by an astonishing 217 votes.

I have had two seasons of football playing with Tom Madden in my team and let me tell you, nothing feels better than leading out of the pocket and knowing Tom is kicking to you. Just keep a steady run and it will just be there for you to grab. Not only is his kicking accuracy good, but for a boy his size he can kick long distances and slots long goals that most boys his age and size couldn't.

Whenever I hear someone admiring him for his long kick, I tell them of the amazing goal he kicked at the Yarraville-Seddon ground last year. The spectators and his teammates watched in awe as Tom nailed a goal from outside fifty, into the wind, splitting the posts in two.

Tom is a pleasure to play with and a pleasure to watch and I can definitely see him playing for big cash in the near future.

News From Around The League

Coburg Districts Football Club congratulates Luke Fox, who recently chalked up his 100th game for the club. Well done to Luke who is a popular figure down at Cole Reserve. In more unfortunate news, popular senior player Justin Gomez broke his tibia & fibula midway though the second quarter against Deer Park a fortnight ago. Gomez was taken to the Royal Melbourne Hospital and had surgery on Sunday. He is in good spirits at the club wishes him a speedy recovery. Coburg would like to note the great sportsmanship and co-operation shown between the Umpires & Deer Park Football Club in reducing the final two quarters to no time on due to the game delay in attending to Gomez's injury and transporting him from the playing field. Of particular note was Deer Park captain coach James Condos, who was the first person to assist Justin after the accident.

The club is also staging a number of social events in the coming months including:

- 2000 REVERSE DRAW (22nd May)
- FANCY DRESS (4th June)
- SPONSORS DAY (18th June)
- POKER NIGHT (25th June)
- LADIES DAY (2nd July)

Further details for all functions can be found on Club website www.coburgdistricts.com.au.

Western Bulldogs

The Western Bulldogs have broken their three game losing streak with a 35 point win over Richmond last Sunday at Etihad Stadium. Coach Rodney Eade commended his team for returning to its trademark high-scoring, fast paced style of play saying that it was the best they'd played all season.

Richmond has not been able to beat the Bulldogs since 2005 as the Bulldogs have won their past eight out of nine games against the Tigers, the other game being a draw. Traditional back-man Lindsay Gilbee enjoyed his time in the forward line and finished the match with a career high six goals whilst former WRFL player Callan Ward was outstanding in the midfield, managing 27 possessions, in one of the best games of his young career to date.

The Bulldogs must now travel to Perth as they face the in form West Coast Eagles at Patterson Stadium in round nine on Sunday afternoon.

Yet the trip west may be boosted by the return of key forwards Barry Hall and Shaun Higgins who have been out of action the past couple of weeks due to injuries (Hall-ankle & Higgins-groin).

Eade indicated on Friday that key defender Brian Lake may also make a quick return to AFL next week after being dropped from the side to strengthen a niggling knee injury and regain some form and fitness after playing a few games for the club's VFL affiliate team Williamstown.

Werribee Tigers

It may have been a quiet week on-field during Round Seven, due to the Werribee Tigers' bye, but off-field it's been a completely different story.

The annual Tigers' Poker Night fundraiser was held down in Hoppers Crossing last week, with the top prize up for grabs being a 42-inch plasma screen from the wonderful people down at Harvey Norman. The stakes were high, and players, coaches and supporters alike enjoyed an entertaining yet competitive evening, with everyone eyeing off the main prize. However, in the end there could only be one winner, and this year ironically it was the Tigers' senior coach Paul Satterley who stole the show, stealing the plasma out of the grasp of Jase Perkins.

Meanwhile, the Tigers' Community Development Officer, Chris Gallagher, has had a busy week, holding a Level 1 Auskick coaching course down at Avalon Airport Oval. Gallagher, along with some of the Tigers' senior players, held the clinic on behalf of the City of Wyndham, to not only share with the community their knowledge and love of the game, but to also make it accessible to the entire community.

In Round Eight the Tigers are playing the second-placed Northern Bullants down at Avalon Airport Oval. It's a home game so there's no excuse for all those in the west not to be there! Kick-off is on Saturday at 1.10pm.

Williamstown Seagulls

Williamstown has suffered its first loss of the season, going down to Port Melbourne in the 'Match of the Round' at TEAC Oval. It was a disappointing defeat for the Seagulls, with their inaccuracy in front of goal proving costly, going down to Port Melbourne by 51 points and being relegated to third position on the VFL ladder.

With both sides going into the game undefeated, it was a match filled with expectation. Add on top of that the fact that Williamstown had not been beaten by Port Melbourne since 2008, and it was a high-intensity, pressure-filled game. However, the wet and muddy conditions that the Seagulls hadn't yet experienced this season proved to be the difference between the two sides, with Port Melbourne thriving in the lackluster conditions. Panos led the side almost single-handling, booting four of the team's total six goals for the day, but apart from him and young Bulldogs Hooper, Dahlhaus and Wallis, the rest of the Seagulls were left to scratch their heads, pondering what might have been.

The Williamstown reserves side suffered a similar fate, losing to Port Melbourne by 25 points in what was only their second loss of the season. There were promising signs from some of the Seagulls' young leaders though, with Ed Carr and Matthew Cravino being dominant through the midfield, and Nick Sing continuing to vie for a permanent senior spot, with a best on ground performance.

In Round Eight the Seagulls face Collingwood at Victoria Park. The first bounce will be on Sunday at 2pm.

Western Jets

The Western Jets have slumped to their third straight loss, going down by 17 points to the Murray Bush Rangers at Deakin Reserve in Shepparton. The match started slowly for the Jets after managing only one goal in the first quarter, as the Bushrangers dominated their forward line with ten scoring shots to the Jets four.

The second quarter saw the Jets bring the margin back to just 16 points as they kicked four goals, to the Rangers three, allowing them to win the quarter and go into the second half with a bit of hope of breaking their winning drought.

The third term saw an arm wrestle on the scoreboard with both teams having an equal amount of scoring opportunities, but the Bushrangers accuracy proved vital as they extended their lead out to 21 points going into the last quarter.

Despite a five goal surge from the Jets in the last quarter, it was not enough as the Murray Bush Rangers held on to get the chocolates, finishing the high-scoring match with 17.10.112 to the Jets 14.11.95.

Jordan Mead was exceptional scoring five goals for the match, whilst Jack Walker, Captain Adam Kennedy, Lachlan Fairly, Charlie Nastasi and Jake McKenzie were named in the Jets best players. Although the Jets have not won a game since round two against the Geelong Falcons, they are still only one game out of the eight as they sit in tenth place on the TAC Cup ladder.

A Letter From AFL Chief Executive Officer Mr Andrew Demetriou

The new broadcast rights agreement is a landmark agreement for the AFL and its broadcast partners that will deliver benefits to everybody who loves and follows our great game.

The biggest winners are our fans who will be able to watch more live football than ever before, in ways never seen before. These include:

- Live matches on Friday night on free to air in Victoria, Qld, NSW, Tasmania and the ACT
- Four games a week on free to air
- All nine games live on Foxtel
- All finals and the AFL Grand Final live across Australia on free to air
- All nine games live on IPTV and Telstra Mobile
- Better coverage across Australia, including NSW, QLD, WA and SA

Reach has always been important to the AFL, particularly on free to air TV, and especially with showpiece games across the home and away season and the finals series. It's clear since we signed our last broadcast agreement that viewing habits have changed. So has technology. People now want to see and expect to see major sport and other big events live whenever possible. This agreement delivers just that. Wherever they are across Australia, people will now have better access to AFL matches when they want to watch them and more choice when it comes to how they want to watch them.

This is also a great deal for football across the country because it will enable the AFL to invest in the game to ensure it remains strong. The AFL is not just responsible for running the AFL competition but also guiding the development of the game across the country at all levels. With the financial return from this agreement, we can invest in the game at all levels from the grassroots to the elite. Money that will go back to clubs, players, supporters, volunteers, state leagues, community facilities and programs from NAB AFL Auskick up, to continue to attract the best young athletes to the game.

The AFL wants to ensure AFL clubs are financially strong and players are fairly rewarded for their outstanding contribution to the game. They are the stars of the show and deserve to be fairly rewarded but this needs to be balanced against the needs of the game as a whole right across the community. It's important to support the game at all levels so more than 750,000 participants and the 120,000 volunteers remain involved and continue to enjoy the game. The AFL also wants to ensure supporters continue to enjoy a world class experience through having access to the very best stadiums.

More than 7 million people attended AFL matches last year and the AFL is committed to ensuring the game continues to remain accessible and affordable for all supporters. Wherever they come from right across the community. The base admission price for a family to watch AFL football in 2011 is $40 and the cost of admission for children has increased by just 30 cents in the past 10 years. This continues to represent great value for money. Club memberships are also at record levels and the AFL wants them to remain affordable so families can continue to belong to their clubs and enjoy the game each week.

The AFL will continue to develop pathways for the next generation of our stars, will continue to invest in communities across the country and will continue to play a leadership role across all parts of society. Importantly, supporters will always be at the heart of our decision making as they remain the heart and soul of the game. Thank you for your continued support wherever you may be across Australia. We want you to continue to enjoy the game we all love and help us grow it so it can remain strong for generations to come.
