INTERLEAGUE SUCCESS!

From The Editor

After a weekend off courtesy of the Queen's Birthday Long Weekend, local footy resumes this Saturday as all side's kick-start their second half of Season 2011.

In Division One it's Spotswood that are firming as early premiership favourites, with Chris O'Keefe's side comfortably sitting on top of the ladder after eight rounds of football. However it's a bit of dejavu for the green & gold, as yet again Albion lurk just four points behind the ladder-leaders and we know the Cats play their best footy at the business end of the season.

In Division Two it's the all-conquering Deer Park that have swept all before them in a blistering start to the new season. While many anticipated the Lions were going to be hard to beat this year, surely no one would have predicted the complete dominance the side has shown under the leadership of newly appointed playing-coach James Condos. No senior footballer Australia-wide has bagged more goals than the Deer Park full-forward, and if his weekly average is anything to go by, Condos will slot goal number one-hundred this weekend at home to Braybrook.

In the Under Eighteen competition it is Altona & Point Cook that are setting the benchmark in their respective competitions, although plenty can change in half a season of football.

While most players enjoyed a football-free weekend over the break, there were a small number of WRFL juniors that took part in the annual Interleague Carnival.

Our Under 12 & Under 13 sides were involved in a round-robin carnival with both the Essendon District Football League & the Riddell Football League, and it gives me great pleasure to announce for the first time in five years the WRFL were victorious in both age-groups. We congratulate all players involved, and in particular coaches Cam Atkins & Tony Wright.

The Under-14's performed commendably across their three AFL Victoria Metropolitan Championships fixtures, with the highlight being a 37 point victory over the Riddell District Football League.

The Under-15's enjoyed the full gambut of emotions in their three games, knocking off the South East Junior Football League in a thriller by 2 points, only to go down by the same margin in their final fixture against the highly regarded Yarra Junior Football League.

Match reports & photos from the Interleague Carnival can be found on the WRFL website, and we congratulate all players & personnel that made the event such a success.

THE CONTENDERS

Division One Special Feature

With the halfway mark of the season quickly approaching, the WRFL Footy Record spent the Queen's Birthday break catching up with the coaches of the sides that we think can go all the way in 2011. While Spotswood sits on top of the Division One ladder with a flawless 8-0 record, both Albion & Altona look to be shaping up for a strong run home and are ready to prove that the 2011 competition is definitely not a one-horse race.

SPOTSWOOD

(8 WINS, 0 LOSSES, 279%)

With an influx of new players to replace the likes of Mangan, McGhie, Noye, Sinnott, Keenan and Theodore, there was some uncertainty, internally and externally, as to how we would perform this year. It took a little while for everyone to find their role, and to get through the first half of the year undefeated has provided a great platform for the rest of the season.

There have been a number of players who have been impressive so far including Cameron Sharp, Jason Cloke, Torin Baker, Tom Langlands and Jai Audley. Throw into the mix the natural improvement of our younger guys like Andrew Fowler, Michael Cassidy and Matt Taylor and we have been able to play some good footy so far. We are also looking forward to getting Jeremy Bond, Ray Jensen and Sam Wood back from injury in the second half of the year.

As in the beginning of the year, we have five really tough games to get through, and if we can get through those playing consistent footy I will be very happy with our foundation for a crack at the finals, where we all know that anything can happen

Chris O'Keefe (Senior Coach)

Some new blood at Spotswood has rejuvenated last year's Runners-Up

ALBION

(7 WINS, 1 LOSS, 186%)

Taking over a reigning premiership side was always going to be a challenge but the playing group hasn't lost any of the hunger that is required to defend a title and that has been the biggest bonus so far this season.

We had lost 6-7 players that played in last year's grand final so the initial challenge was to work hard to replace them and we feel that we have achieved this so far.

To be sitting second on the ladder with seven wins proves the resilience of the playing group and we're pleased that the new players to our club have fitted in really well to achieve this result.

It's seems to be a good balance of improvement from existing players, new recruits to add pressure to the existing group and improvement of players which had limited opportunities last season. Players like Todd Finco, Daniel Morris, Josh Bench, Patty Savage, Josh McPherson & Keaton Male have all impressed and most of these have emerged from our junior grades or our reserves side.

Our three leaders have again led the way, our captain Aaron Tymms, vice captain Matt Davis and deputy vice James Philpot have ensured the playing group have kept the head down from day one.

Our impressive players so far have been Marcus Smith, Blake Richards, Shadyn Bloomfield, Matt Davis, Todd Finco, Shane Frederickson, Shylo Smith & Romain Grenville. The last three being new players to the club.

Providing we can keep as many players as possible fit & healthy in the coming months that will be the key to a solid second half of the season. We come up against all the major players in the next six weeks so it will once again be a good test to measure ourselves against quality opposition week in week out.

Our goal was to again play finals football so if we continue to work hard and play well we should be able to achieve this goal. We're all looking forward to what lies ahead for Albion FC in the second half of the season.

Marcus Barclay (Senior Coach)

ALTONA

(5 WINS, 3 LOSSES, 152%)

At the halfway mark we should be six wins & two losses, we have had some solid games and some not so positive performances. With the additions of Brett Shiels and Ziggy Kadour (over & above last year's team) it has given us a stronger leadership presence as they are our Vice Captains. They missed all of last year with ACL injuries.

Also we look like getting our co Captain Aaron Freeland back for the second half of the year. "Freeza" also missed all of last year with a severe leg break of the fibula bone and has battled a couple of other niggles that he is now fully recovered. Freeza will also add a strong physical presence to our squad and his professional approach will see him fully match fit come the end of the home and away season.

At the moment the Team is still searching for a 4 qtr performance against the sides that look like playing finals, this is an area that if we are to even make the final 5 we certainly need to impact. We see a number of opposing sides in a similar position to us so our focus is on our preparation, enabling us to achieve the 4 qtr effort that could result in us getting a final 5 position.

To date I have been impressed with the continued improvement from our younger players inc Rafferty, Healy, Leslie, Mason, Pace to name a few, as well as the commitment of our older core group of Russo, Miles, Gardiner, Kadour etc. To date Our club has done a wonderful job in helping develop our VFL listed players (currently x12) and will continue on this path moving forward.

Anthony Eames (Senior Coach)

DIVISION ONE

By Leigh Eustace

Three teams sit level on five wins as the season recommences after the Queen's Birthday respite, with all three looking to break free and keep up with the top two.

Altona, currently third, host Glenorden, however the crunch game is the fifth versus fourth fixture at Kings Park Reserve.

St Albans have maintained some good early season form to stay on pace for a finals spot despite a loss two weeks ago at home to Hoppers Crossing.

A week off to freshen up and now an immediate chance to make amends against a high quality opponent in Port Colts, who a no doubt a direct competitor in the finals picture.

The Colts, who also fell short a fortnight back to Altona, need the win to rubber stamp their improvement from the season before.

It is an eight-point game, the winner continues to chase down Altona and therefore Albion and Spotswood, and the loser is back with the pack fighting to stay in the five.

Hoppers Crossing and Sunshine will aim to emerge from that pack when they square off at Hogans Road, the Warriors a chance to be in the five by the end of the day, while the Kangaroos could almost kiss post-season action good bye with a loss.

Any hope the Red Devils have of making their first year of promotion end with a finals appearance will be on the line when they host a hot Albion at Hansen Reserve.

A tough assignment no doubt, but North Footscray have shown some promising signs for the future throughout the first half of the season, and a good performance against the Cats is no doubt something they can build on for future years.

The round's final game is Sunshine Heights versus Spotswood, as the ladder-leaders aim to complete a stellar opening half of the season with their ninth win from as many games.

THE CONTENDERS

Division Two Special Feature

We're already halfway through the Division Two season, and most would suggest that Deer Park already have one hand on that premiership cup. However we all know what can happen come finals time, and there's plenty of sides that have shown promise throughout what has been an entertaining few months of football. With no games over the Queen's Birthday break, the WRFL Footy Record caught up with the coaches of the sides that we expect to be fighting for the Division Two flag at season's end.

DEER PARK

(8 WINS, 0 LOSSES, 426%)

The Deer Park boys are off to a flying start, but there is still plenty of room for improvement! An influx of a lot of new players to club meant we were prepared to take some time to get the group to gel together. Players that have impressed so far are Christian Day (Midfield), Dean Stankovic (Centre Half-Back), Leigh Cook (Centre Half-Forward), & Daniel Thomas (Back Pocket). We haven't had our best side on the park as yet, and the squad has plenty of depth which helps.

Our seniors & reserves are both sitting on top of the ladder and we're looking to maintain our good form in the second half of the season. Our President, Mark McGoldrick, is doing a fantastic job off the field, and the club continues to strive towards success.

James Condos (Senior Coach)

ALBANVALE

(7 WINS, 1 LOSS, 138%)

As a club we are comfortable where we sit at the halfway mark of the season given we have not yet played to our potential, with the only one hiccup coming against the benchmark of the competition (Deer Park).

We have once again introduced a number of new faces to the playing group and identified that these new signings will take time to gel with the existing playing group and game plan. So with that in mind we will be looking to further improve in the second half of the season. Paul Docherty and Paul Harrison have been key inclusions just for their experience and voice amongst the group as we are committed to teach and nurture our entire younger core. It has been very frustrating not being able to field a full strength side most weeks due to injury, unavailability and work commitments, but where there is a negative there is a positive. This has given opportunity to play some of our Under-18's and give them a taste of senior football.

Apart from Deer Park we understand how close the competition is from second through to ninth on the ladder. We are under no illusions of how important trying to win these games is going to be in the second half of the season, in order for us to secure a top three spot and the double chance.

David Connell (Senior Coach)

YARRAVILLE-SEDDON

(6 WINS, 3 LOSSES, 190%)

An enthusiastic first half of the season has the seniors and reserves both sitting in third position. With over 30 new players and renovated changerooms and clubrooms, there is a positive vibe around the club as players and coaching staff strive for improvement.

Training has focused on game-style, setups and competitive work and players have shown a willingness to learn and progress as individual players and collectively as a team.

We always welcome new players and our recruits have been standouts this year - Aaron Littlepage works tirelessly in the ruck, Alex Garvin has been strong in defence, Marc Hussey & Beau Guest have been damaging in the midfield, Michael Volpi has kicked bags of goals and Chris Topalidis & Dean McDonald have injected youthful flair. The development of younger players such as Cam Vincent, Heath Clarke, Jake Connors, Ash Baldi and Nathan Kelly has also been paramount to our competitiveness and we will continue to promote the players that show commitment and desire. With two weeks off, to freshen up and enjoy our midseason ball at the Croatian Club, we are looking forward to a tough month playing the other four top sides which will determine our finals ambition.

Andy Willis (Senior Coach)

WYNDHAMVALE

We've been happy with the depth and maturity of our group - in particular the younger brigade that are now filling key posts across the ground. Our challenge now is to maintain a ruthless endeavour to bridge the gap between being that competitive club and being a good football team. It is a really fierce environment with both our reserves & under-18's winning football games.

Young defender Aiden Boland has held down full back and has rarely been beaten this year. James Damjanovski and Aaron Mollivas have been key ball movers whilst 17-year old Jake Crabtree has impressed everyone with his ability to win the football. Recruits Nic Aldridge, Dean Cachia and Alex Hamilton are all enjoying their first season with the falcons - all having match-winning performances in recent weeks.

We've managed significant injury pretty well and we reckon we've absorbed that impact. We hope the likes of Marcus Hollow, Michael Lubke and Aaron Fleming will return for the pointy end of the season.

We are right in the thick of it now - every win is super important with so many good teams running around. I've been happy with the group's ability to adapt to a fluid game plan that can vary given your opponent, the environment and the health of your group that particular week. There is certainly a healthy belief amongst to playing group and we are really excited about what the remainder of 2011 holds.

Luke Dennerley (Senior Coach)

(5 WINS, 3 LOSSES, 145%)

LAVERTON

So far the Laverton Magpies are sitting in sixth spot after the first nine rounds with four wins and four losses. We have lost our four games to the top four sides at present on the ladder, and we are continuing to improve as the young side we are (average age 22-23).

Our next three games after the break will ultimately decide where we will finish the season in the whole scheme of things in that we need to win 2-3 of these games to give us every opportunity of a finals berth.

The most pleasing aspect so far is that we all believe we are capable of beating all sides that we have played thus far apart from Deer Park (whom are a cut above the rest). If we can turn that belief into getting the wins we require to make the final five then anything is possible.

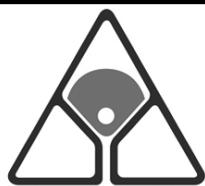

Getting consistency from our playing list on a weekly basis and for four quarters in each of these games is our next target and we hope to see that over the coming weeks as we continue to develop. We have missed through injury/unavailability for a number of our games Leigh Hartshorne, Michael Kennedy, Steve Paone, Shaun McCann, Jason Whitling - all of whom we hope to get back after the break and really impose themselves.

Some of our more consistent and better players so far have been Craig Wells, Aaron Driver, Bryan Lawry, Troy McAskill, Ryan Murphy & Anthony Hanna. We expect to finish in the final five and this will be a great result for our club as we continue to improve on and off the field.

DIVISION TWO

By Leigh Eustace

It's the halfway mark of the season and Deer Park has an unassailable claim on premiership favouritism, while Albanvale hold a similar stranglehold as their ultimate challenger.

Yarraville-Seddon are the side currently in third and this week have a double break thanks to the bye, while our surprise big mover on the ladder, Wyndhamvale, have the opportunity to find out just how far they've come this week.

They have a chance to see if they are within a win or two of the top two – or maybe only a win or two inside the five – and their game the Cobras is crucial in the context of the season.

Whilst four points are always the aim when at home, the performance of the Falcons will speak more than the actual result. If they can get close and really take it to Albanvale, it sets them up to reinforce their finals credentials, and once you're there, who knows?

The Cobras need to see them off if they really do believe that next time round, or indeed the time after, they are the ones capable to take down the undefeated Lions.

Over at Shorten Reserve we have West Footscray looking for a win to get themselves into finals contention, whereas their opponents Laverton are doing everything in their power to stay on the precipice of the five.

The Roosters have a game in hand on the Magpies, and are only a game behind, so both teams are evenly matched. Both sides are hell bent on making the finals, and the four points today could be all the difference.

Elsewhere Parkside have the opportunity to consolidate their new spot in the five when they travel to North Sunshine to battle the Roadrunners, perhaps even move up as their good run continues.

While the round's final two games have Coburg District host Caroline Springs and Braybrook on the road at ladder-leaders Deer Park.

COACH ON THE MEND

Stephen Kelly Survives Mid-Game Heart Attack

As assistant coach of the Werribee Districts Under-Nine football team, 36-year-old Steven Kelly thought the most stressful part of his day would be standing in as a field umpire at the last minute for his side's clash against Old Westbourne. Little did he know that soon he would be fighting for his life.

Minutes into the first quarter, Kelly suffered a cardiac arrest while his wife Natalie & children Ashleigh & Dylan watched on. As the teams were ushered from the field, two other football fathers rushed to Kelly's aid. Country Fire Association firefighter Paul Turner and former Footscray & North Melbourne great Keenan Reynolds kept Kelly alive, administering CPR until paramedics arrived.

After having a pacemaker fitted, Mr Kelly has now been transferred to Sunshine Hospital where he will resume his rehabilitation. He will not be able to resume his casual employment as a storeman for at least three months, and will not be able to drive a vehicle for at least six months. Due to the casual nature of his employment, this means that the company he works for will not be able to hold his job for him. Nevertheless, he looks forward to getting back to coaching and spending time with his family, as well as watching his mighty Magpies continue to dominate in the AFL.

The Kelly family are incredibly thankful for everyone who has supported them through this tumultuous time, particularly to Turner and Reynolds, as without their initiative, Mr Kelly may not be with us today.

While it was a tragic incident, Kelly's heart attack did highlight the unpredictable nature of suffering cardiac arrest. Werribee Districts President Rob Harrington has decided to act and learn from the experience, and the club has since purchased two life-saving, portable defibrillators, one for each ground they play at, at a cost of $3,400. The Western Region Football League has praised the club's handling of the issue, with CEO Bob Tregear stating that the league would push for funding so that all clubs can have the portable life-saving devices.

Although a defibrillator is an invaluable life-saving device, the cost is still an extravagant one for a small suburban club. Therefore Werribee Districts are calling for donations and sponsorship to help offset the price of these machines. On the 1st July the club will be holding a fundraising Trivia Night at Soldiers Reserve. The night will be emceed by Tony Schibeci, with raffles & auctions to help raise funds. The club are also asking anyone who is interested in making a donation to the Kelly family to contact President, Rob Harrington.

CAPTAIN CALI

Joe Cali Celebrates 100th Game For Coburg Districts

In just six seasons at Coburg Districts Football Club, Joe Cali has made a fair impression. Not only has the gifted backman earned the captaincy, notched up 100 games and won a couple of club best & fairests, he is also quickly earning his status as one of the best players of the past decade to wear the blue & white.

Celebrating his milestone game against Parkside last round, Cali's impact on the field was clearly evident. Playing as a loose man down back his ability to read the play and help out his teammates was impressive, as was his ability to regularly win the ball, and use it well.

Cali is smart, creative and tough around the stoppages, and his strength, skill and aggression has earned him the respect and admiration of not only the Club but most of the competition.

Off the field Cali's impact is just as significant, and the respect he has around Cole Reserve is none more evident than when speaking to President Allan Chandler.

According to Chandler, Cali is born a leader, and he is both a loyal servant and fine ambassador for the Coburg Districts Football Club.

"From the day Joe Cali arrived at Coburg Districts it was always evident to me and the club that he would one day captain our senior team, as his leadership qualities from day one until now have not changed," says Chandler.

"He has always been held in high esteem from all at our club and from within the playing ranks of the WRFL."

"Joe has always been a very conscious person and aware of the club's plight for success both on and off the field, he has always been a loyal and committed Coburg Districts Football Club ambassador."

In his 100 game career for the club, Cali has twice won the side's highest honour (Senior Best & Fairest Chandler Medal), and in three of the past four seasons has been named in the WRFL Division Two 'Team of the Year'.

Cali first came to the club in 2005, having previously played at Bundoora.

"I learnt a lot at Bundoora playing with and against some great players, however I liked what I saw at Coburg especially the people around the club," says Cali.

"The club has gone from strength to strength with its professionalism and player development and it's been a privilege to be a part of, and captain of the club."

"I've been lucky to win a couple Best & Fairests whilst here, however making the finals this year is a huge priority and if we make it with a bit of luck I have the confidence with the rest of the boys we can make to the big day."

Season 2011 has been another stellar year for Cali, and he looks on track for another swag of individual honours. As for the big prize, his side is looking like a true finals outfit, and with Cali at the helm his aim of playing on that big day might well become a reality.

UMPIRES CORNER

News From The Umpires' Association

It wasn't that long ago that the AFL introduced the Match Review Panel. Since its inception several years ago it has had more than a few controversial moments. The points system currently being used at the top level is another very interesting program and it has its supporters and its critics.

Before these recent innovative ideas were aired and then put into place, players and officials under scrutiny were made to appear before the tribunal. It was there that most things seemed to be pretty much straight forward and without needless red tape getting in the way. Of course, no system is perfect and even the VFL/AFL tribunal made a few decisions that had football supporters or media personalities crying foul.

At the WRFL, it's the old fashioned tribunal that hears cases against players and officials who are alleged to have crossed the boundaries of sportsmanship and committed an offence in breach of the rules necessitating a report being made by an umpire.

It is interesting to note that only a small percentage of players ever get to visit the tribunal and nearly half of them are there merely because they are a witness who is required to attend to give evidence. Many players go through an entire career and are never reported once.

It is part of an umpire's job, as listed in the Laws of Australian Football 2011, that he or she reports any player or official that is seen to commit a reportable offence. Unfortunately, not all offences are seen by umpires and occasionally a club will raise a matter with the WRFL and it may require an investigation.

Not many umpires enjoy reporting players for a number of reasons. Firstly, there is the paperwork to attend to which must be filled out properly. All umpires involved in the game are required to read and check the report form to ensure that it is totally correct. Secondly, it's a night out down at Whitten Oval beginning at 6pm. If there are a few cases to be heard, the people involved may have to wait several hours before their case comes up. Thirdly, there are no 'brownie' points for reporting.

For those who have attended the WRFL tribunal this year, Brian Wilson from Parkside is usually in charge making sure that everyone is in attendance. When a case is called, all those involved go before the tribunal and the chairperson explains the procedure. Briefly, the charged player is asked how they plead to the charge and then the umpire gives their evidence. The tribunal, the umpire's advocate and the player's advocate can ask questions of the umpire. Then the player gives their version of the incident and questions can be asked by the tribunal and the advocates. The witness is then brought before the tribunal to give his evidence. Before he speaks, the chairperson asks him to speak the truth and reminds the witness that he can be reprimanded or suspended if the tribunal is not satisfied with his evidence. The witness can then be questioned by the tribunal and the advocates. All parties leave the room while the tribunal makes decisions about finding the player guilty or not guilty and what suspension, if any, it will impose. The witness and the umpire are free to leave at this point. The charged player and his advocate are then ushered back into the room to hear the decisions.

It's good to know that some weeks that there is no need for a tribunal because there wasn't a single report from the weekend's games. Let's hope that is the case in the WRFL for the majority of the rest of the season.

The tribunal members, plus Brian, should be thanked for their generosity in giving up their time and performing the task of sitting on the tribunal.

DIVISION ONE (U18)

Proudly Sponsored by Werribee Tigers Football Club

We're nearing the half-way mark of Season 2011, and Altona are still sitting eight points clear on top of the Division One ladder despite being in the middle of a random three week break. Having been dealt byes before and after the long weekend – the Vikings are now in their third weekend without football and it will be interesting to see how they cope when restarting in a week's time.

Last round gave a good indication of where the rest of the sides sit with the big Saints & Warriors clash going the way of the visiting Hoppers Crossing. It was an eight point game with the Saints able to move themselves two wins clear of the Warriors with a win at home - however what transpired was a see-sawing battle that saw the Warriors run out 26 point winners and draw level with the Saints with five wins for the season.

The Warriors dominated the opening term with a staggering nine scoring opportunities to one, although their inaccuracy came back to haunt them at the long change with just seven points separating the sides at half time. The Saints stayed with the Warriors for the third team, with both sides adding two majors, before a four goal to one final term moved the Warriors into second place on the ladder.

This weekend Hoppers host Sunshine in a game that might be closer than most expect. Sunshine are just staying in touch with the leading pack and look likely to occupy that fifth spot come seasons end – although they will need to improve from their current 2-4 record if they want to make an impact in late August.

With St Albans also sporting the bye this weekend's other games has sixth placed Albion travelling to cellar-dwellers North Footscray, while fourth placed Spotswood will look to sure up their spot in the top half of the table when they travel to Sunshine Heights.

Three Jets Selected In Vic Metro Squad

Three Western Jets have been selected in the Vic Metro squad for this year's AFL Under-18 National Championships and region manager Shane Sexton is hopeful the trio will be in contention for positions on AFL lists later in the year.

Will Hoskin-Elliott and Elliot Kavanagh, both members of the most recent AIS-AFL Academy intake, were picked in the 40-man squad, along with silky midfielder Adam Kennedy.

Vic Metro claimed a thumping 80-point win against the NSW/ACT side in Sydney in the first match of the National Championships, but the three Jets were absent from the line-up.

North Sunshine product Hoskin-Elliott, 17, is eligible for this year's draft and has been in sparkling form across half-back and on a wing in the TAC Cup.

"I think he's an outstanding talent. He's a good all-round player, he's athletic, got terrific skills and reads the game very well," Sexton said.

"He's got the ability to read a game of footy in front of an opponent and that's a unique ability."

Kavanagh, who is also part of the AIS-AFL squad, is making his way back from a hamstring injury.

"It was a really serious injury that's been well treated. People were really conservative with his rehabilitation," Sexton said.

"That was important in terms of making sure a kid who could potentially be drafted to an AFL club this year – and we would like to think that can happen for him – doesn't get into an AFL career where he's got a chronic injury that will cause him grief."

Meanwhile, 19-year-old Kennedy, will be hoping to again impress the recruiters after being overlooked in the AFL and rookie drafts last year.

"We thought he was really unlucky not to get an opportunity at an AFL club last year," Sexton said.

"He could have gone in the draft or as a rookie and I think, on the basis of his form this year, AFL clubs are certainly having another look at him. He's a terrific kid with a terrific attitude, has a great work ethic and gets the best out of himself."

Sexton said it was almost impossible for a TAC Cup club to set a goal for how many players it wants drafted each year, citing the different needs of AFL clubs.

"Most are trying to find the best players they can in the draft, but they also might be looking to draft specific players."

"It's really a unique sport in that you can play at the highest level at any size, shape and be successful."

"The AFL recruiters watch all these games, they've got people there all the time, and they know what's going on and they know who they want to draft and what they want."

RACIAL ABUSE UNACCEPTABLE

AFL Victoria Statement On Incident

AFL Victoria today has acted to ban a spectator from entering VFL games unless he undertakes racial vilification awareness education in a move that reaffirms that racial vilification at any football game is totally unacceptable.

AFL Victoria will offer the spectator racial and religious vilification education. The spectator will also be refused entry to any VFL game for the rest of the season and will not be welcome back unless he undertakes the required education process and provides a written apology to Majak Daw.

The AFL Victoria decision comes after discussions with both clubs involved – Port Melbourne and Werribee Tigers, Victoria Police and the North Melbourne Football Club where Majak is a rookie-listed player.

AFL Victoria general manager Grant Williams said that behaviour of this nature was totally unacceptable at any football game.

“The public condemnation of the racial abuse towards Majak shows that as a society, we are not willing to accept this sort of behaviour, whether it is at the football, or in the general public.

“We do not want people who behave in this manner at our games. We have worked hard to ensure that all players from all cultures are welcome in our game and we will do whatever is required to ensure that they are free from any sort of on or off-field vilification,” Williams said.

“In many respects the response at the time and reactions since the weekend’s events suggest that our education programs are having an impact” Williams added.

“While we can remove this spectator from VFL games, the focus needs to be on educating not only the offender, but anyone attending our matches who thinks that it is okay to racially vilify players. It is not, and never will be, acceptable.”

AFL Victoria ensures that all players and officials take part in the AFL’s racial and religious vilification education program at the start of each year.

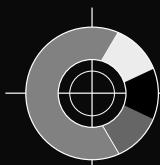

“We educate our clubs but in the future we need to work out ways to also educate the small minority of spectators who still don’t get the message that racial abuse is not part of our game.”

After speaking to Police and North Melbourne Football Club, AFL Victoria has confirmed that Majak will not be pursuing the matter any further.

AFL Victoria once again commends the Werribee and Port Melbourne Football Clubs for their quick response to the incident on the weekend.

“Once both clubs were made aware of what occurred, they acted swiftly to ensure the offender was identified and approached straight away”.

“This again reflects that conduct of this manner has no place in football. Fortunately, the vast majority of people who attend our game at any level understand this.”

SEAGULLS FLY INTO PRELIM

Williamstown Firm As Foxtel Cup Favourites

Williamstown will meet East Perth in the first semi-final of the Foxtel Cup after a six-goal second quarter set up the Seagulls' 19-point win over West Adelaide at AAMI Stadium. The Seagulls led by only four points at quarter-time but surged in the second quarter to lead by 35 points by the main break of the quarter-final.

Although the Bloods showed more spirit in the second half (booting six goals to three in the last quarter), the Seagulls were too strong and ran out 15.6 (96) winners to North Adelaide's 12.5 (77).

Williamstown's side was loaded with players with AFL experience – 11 of the 22 had played at least one AFL game - and it was a critical factor with many of them playing pivotal roles in the win.

Omitted Western Bulldogs ruckman Ben Hudson was a key contributor with 13 possessions and 26 hit-outs, while former Essendon midfielder Ben Jolley led the way in the midfield with 22 disposals.

Luke Dahlhaus also continued his push for a debut with the Bulldogs with 19 possessions and ex-Sydney Swans' forward Patrick Vespremi kicked two goals.

Jonathon Beech was West Adelaide's only shining light as the Bloods got knocked out of the competition. He kicking five goals from 11 disposals and six marks. Fortunato Caruso's line-breaking run was also vital and he finished with 15 disposals and two goals.

The game didn't go Williamstown's way from the beginning with the first quarter a tight affair punctuated by two late goals to Williamstown by exciting forward Zephaniah Skinner.

His goals kick-started the Seagulls and in the second term they were able to finally capitalise on their early stranglehold of the game.

Williamstown – thanks to Vespremi and Jason Tutt – kicked two goals in the opening three minutes and broke out to a 16-point lead. A third goal, rammed home by impressive 18-year-old Dahlhaus, shot the VFL powerhouse side out to a 21-point break.

The Seagulls kicked another three goals for the quarter and, despite the Bloods breaking the run with a goal, had extended the lead to almost six goals by the break.

The value of such a lead is even more important in the Foxtel Cup, where quarters are shortened to 18 minutes plus time-on.

Jolley had 15 disposals in the first half, while Ben Davies collected 11. Tutt and Matthew Panos kicked two goals in the second term for the Seagulls.

Williamstown's commanding second term was reflected in the statistics at half-time. It led the possession count by 45 and had restricted West Adelaide to only 89 disposals for the half. Steven Morris, with nine touches, led the Bloods' ball-winners.

The Bloods returned after the break much more competitive, kicking nine goals to six for the half, but the Seagulls had the game under control and sealed their progression to the next round of the inaugural state-based competition.

DIVISION TWO (U18)

Proudly Sponsored by Werribee Tigers Football Club

Point Cook continues to set the pace at the top of the Division Two ladder, extending their unbeaten run of games to nine following a comprehensive 58-point win over Hoppers Crossing last round. The Bulldogs now enjoy a longer-than-normal mid season break with the Long Weekend leading into their bye, while the teams beneath them fight it out to stay in touch with the ladder leaders.

With only one win separating second to sixth the next four weeks will be crucial in the context of the season, with Deer Park, Albanvale, Wyndhamvale, Hoppers Crossing & Parkside all genuine finals contenders.

Second placed Deer Park host Altona this weekend, in a game that should be fairly one-sided. For a seconds side, Altona have been somewhat competitive this season, but trying to knock off the in-form Lions away is truly too bigger task.

With Deer Park all but certain of the four points, it makes the third versus fourth clash even more important as Albanvale travel to Wyndhamvale in what is no doubt the Division Two match of the round.

Both sides have near identical records, with the visitors sporting a slightly higher percentage, and despite being ten rounds in this is the first time the two sides have met this season. Both have had the odd slip-up against lower placed sides over the past month but have shown enough to suggest they may be good enough to rival Point Cook & Deer Park come seasons end.

For the winner it will be the chance to secure a stranglehold on third place, while for the loser they could drop as low as sixth by round's end. Of course such a result would require Hoppers Crossing & Parkside to earn four points this weekend, however with games against the lowly St Albans & Caroline Springs, one could expect as much.

Despite the ladder-leaders having a weekend off, this round may tell us as much about the Division Two competition as any before it, and by Saturday afternoon we should have a good idea of which sides can be considered genuine challengers to the unbeaten Point Cook.

PADDY'S PROFILES

By Patrick Comerford

REECE PANETAS is a very highly regarded footballer both at his club & throughout the Western Region Football League.

Having played at St Albans since the age of seven, Panetas notched up his 150th game earlier this month – a staggering achievement for a player still involved in junior football. It was a big day and milestone for 17 year-old, but he treated it like any other, playing hard, in and under, and attacking for four quarters.

Over the years Panetas has regularly shown his skill to the broader WRFL community, representing St Albans and the WRFL at the Interleague Carnival on four separate occasions. He has received significant club accolades to match, and is quickly evolving into a skillful & strong adult footballer.

When asked what his first memories of playing football were, you can hear Panetas has always had a love for the game.

“I always used to love having a kick with my dad and loved training and getting ready for the matches,” says Panetas.

“As a kid I just used to love getting out there and playing the game with my mates.”

Behind every great theatre show there are the backstage crew, the people who are rarely seen but if not for them the show would be impossible. For Panetas there are a couple of figures that he attributes his success to, in particular his mother Irene who is a prominent figure around the club.

“Mum has been a big part and a big help to me taking me to training and helping a lot around the club,” says Panetas.

“Dad has also been a big part by putting a football in my hands from the day I was born and taught me a lot about the game.”

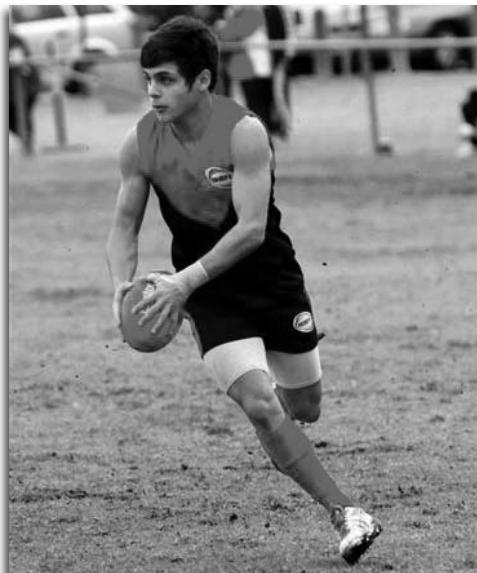

“The coaches at St Albans have also been a big influence, especially Gus Jimenez.”

“He’s been a great help and a great mentor to me, always telling me work hard and not to give up on my dream.”

Jimenez has watched Panetas grow into a fine young footballer – and has progressed through the age-groups alongside the youngster.

“I have watched Reece play football from U10’s where he played with my son Zac, and for the past three years I have coached Reece,” says Jimenez.

“He was captain of the Under-16A’s last year and is a great leader to the young men in his side.”

“He has great skills on both side of his body and loves kicking goals. He’s lightly built but always puts his body on the line for his team mates.”

“He has great support from his mum Irene who is team manager and he’s number one fan is his dad Greg.”

When asked about his plans for this season and beyond, Panetas admits winning a premiership is on the minds of himself and his teammates.

“As a team our main goal is to come away with the flag at the end of the year,” says Panetas.

“Our biggest competitor this season is Altona and in our first game against them this season they were better on the day but I think we have all that it will take to match them on the field.”

“We just got to stick to our style of play and believe in one another as a group and I think we can come away with the Holy Grail at the end of the season.”

As for the future Panetas definitely has plenty of prospects, and there’s no reason why he can’t get onto a rookie list come 2013. If not, he’s the sort of figure a club can base a senior list around – not just for his prowess on the ground, but for his work ethic at training, and leadership off the field.

A player who works as hard as Panetas surely deserves a shot at making it at an elite level, and if not, he’ll be a WRFL player we’ll be writing about for years to come.

CLUB CORNER

St Albans Football Club staged their annual President & Sponsors Day last round, as the Saints hosted Hoppers Crossing in a crucial Division One fixture.

More than eighty guests were in attendance on the day, including a panel of five former WRFL/FDFL Best & Fairest winners featuring Barry Priest, Russell Peterson, Jim Blyth, Jason Fitzpatrick and the current Barry Priest Medalist Tim Jenkins. Some great stories of now & yesteryear were thrown around by the boys.

WRFL staff members Bob Tregear (CEO) & David Newton (Football Operations Manager) were in attendance, as well as WRFL Board members Gina Smith & Mick Psaila.

Tregear spoke of direction of the League especially the evolving Under Eighteens competition, which in 2011 is aligning with Senior Football for the first time.

St Albans President Vern Ryan said the day also had a key focus on the club's sponsors who have been the foundation of the club's success.

"We at St Albans have about 26 Sponsors, and in the past I don't believe we have given enough back to them in various ways which we are trying to rectify," said Ryan.

"We as all Clubs cannot survive without their support, and Bill Dawson, our Football Operations Manager, has been working hard in this area, especially with one on one contact."

Ryan said the day was a great success and that the day continued the club's emphasis on quality social events.

"St Albans Football Club would like thank everyone who took part on the day, especially the great staff at the St Albans Sports Club."
