HAVE YOU SWORN YOUR BLOOD OATH?

TAC & AFL Victoria Launch New Campaign

The Blood Oath campaign is a joint project between the TAC and AFL Victoria to prevent young people, particularly males aged 18-25, from being killed or seriously injured in road trauma. Fronting the campaign is two of the AFL's best known brothers, Brad & Chris Scott, who can both be seen in the ad campaign now airing on TV.

The TAC recognises the importance of young people, particularly young footballers, being road safety ambassadors in their community and this campaign promotes that. When we pick up the papers of a weekend, we want to be reading about the positive stories to come out of football, not of horrific road accidents and the damning stats that last year alone we lost the equivalent of 10 country footy teams' worth of men due to road trauma (220 male deaths in 2010).

Since the Facebook site has been set up, over 12,000 people have shown their support for the site by 'liking' it, but we need you to take the next step of pledging your 'Blood Oath' – which over 3,000 people have already done. By taking the Oath, you are showing your commitment to your teammates, your club and the wider community to ensure that you understand that when on the road, "your mate's life is in your hands".

Stats for 2011 show we have already lost about three AFL footy teams worth of men on the roads, so now is the chance for football followers to put at a stop to this trauma and encourage young people to drive responsibly by taking the "Blood Oath".

Apart from publicly declaring to do your bit to curb the road toll for young drivers, individuals and clubs also have the chance to win great prizes, but only by pledging your Oath (those that simply 'like' the facebook site will not be part of the prize draw for their club).

Werribee Centrals have been the early leaders in the competition. Each week during July the biggest ladder movers will be published & prize winners announced. During July the TAC will also be on the road at local matches as well, so keep an eye out for them at your local game.

So now is the time to take your "Blood Oath" for your local team!

- Visit www.facebook.com/mybloodoath
- Select your local team
- Select an oath to drive safely on the roads
- Post your oath to your own Facebook page

The aim is for your club to have the most oaths of all entries. Prizes for clubs with the most oaths, in country and metropolitan Melbourne will be awarded each week. Individual prizes are also up for grabs.

At the end of July, one club in country Victoria and one club in the metropolitan area will each be rewarded with a $30,000 prize. Winning clubs will be those who receive the most pledges. Pledge your 'Blood Oath' now at www.facebook.com/mybloodoath.

DRAGONS LOOK TO THE FUTURE

Search For New Coach Underway

Sunshine Heights coach Michael Grima said a new coach next year was necessary for the Dragons to survive and thrive in Division One.

Grima is in the last of a three-year tenure as head coach of the Dragons, and has begun talking to prospective coaches.

The Dragons have battled to be competitive since being promoted to the top division after winning the Division Two premiership in 2008, but have won just enough games to avoid relegation.

This year has been a similar story, but there are signs the side is improving.

The Dragons are on a two-game winning streak, after defeating the struggling Glen Orden by 92 points on Saturday, and beating newly promoted North Footscray by 21 points the weekend before, after losing to the Devils by 51 points in round 2.

Perhaps even more encouragingly, in round 10 Sunshine Heights only went down by nine points to St Albans – a top-five side which thrashed the Dragons by 53 points in the opening round.

Contributing to Sunshine Heights' improvement has been the blistering form of 31-year-old Nicholas Mallia, who in his 10th year at the club is playing the best footy of his career.

"For the first time ever I challenged Nick pre-season to actually get fit, because I don't believe he's ever played the season at his peak fitness," Grima said. "And he's done that and he's got the rewards this year. Pretty much every week he just dominates, and it's not easy for him because we don't have the depth of quality of players like Spotswood."

Mallia's dedication to the club needed to be observed by the whole team, according to Grima, which was, he believed, crucial to the club's success.

"We've now had three years where we've taken a lot of beatings and the players who have been loyal, they need to see something to get them through another pre-season," Grima said.

"They need to have some hope and I think the right coach will give them that hope, because if you have a look at teams like West Footscray and even Glenorden this year, you can sustain three years at the bottom of the ladder but when you get into the fourth year and you don't take that step up, things can fall apart pretty quickly.

"For the club to move forward into the middle to top range of Division One, we need a coach with a bit more experience, probably a few more player connections, and maybe some premiership success at Division One or a higher level.

"To go from Division Two up to Division One, unless you've got a big bagful of money, it's pretty much a five-10 year thing. Our club turned 40 this year and by coincidence we've won senior premierships in '79, '88, '98 and 2008, so pretty much ... we win a flag and it takes us 10 years to get to the top of the level we're in."

One of the main challenges facing Sunshine Heights is that the club's coffers aren't as full as some of the powerhouse clubs in the league. The club is not against paying players, but is not about to take large financial risks on players with questionable motives.

"We might have only got our three or four wins for the year, but we weren't paying big dollars to get those three or four wins, which is a trap a lot of other clubs fall for," Grima said.

MENZEL APPOINTED CARETAKER COACH

Leading Junior Coach To Fill Vacant Role Until Season's End

Glenorden will have a new man at the helm for the remainder of the season, with Justin Menzel taking the reins of the senior side. Replacing outgoing coach Jason Fastuca, Menzel's initial aim will be to try to claim a win for the Hawks, with the side having lost their opening twelve games of the season.

Menzel had been lined up to coach the club's Under-18's this season, before the side folded due to numbers, and has been helping out in an assistant coaching capacity with the club's reserves.

Club President Ken Parker said Menzel was the right choice to lead the side for the remainder of the season.

"Justin as you know has had good exposure to some really good coaching and mentoring and is well respected at the club both as a player and through previous coaching stints with our juniors," said Parker.

"Juzzy hopes to give more of our young guys experience at playing senior football, try to be competitive for longer periods of our game and get the guys back to enjoying football."

"We want to reinstate the spirit and culture that the club has had over the years and build for the 2012 season."

Parker said the club would be looking to advertise and interview prospective coaches for 2012 by the end of the season, and was clear to point out that contrary to stories circling in the media the club has not yet advertised the position, nor interviewed anyone.

Parker commended Menzel for being willing to step in and take the side while the club sorted out its future direction.

"It will obviously help him in his future efforts having exposure himself at Senior level," said Parker.

Menzel acknowledged that taking over the Hawks was a challenge but believes it is important for the club to start aiming towards a better season in 2012.

Justin Menzel spent time with the Bulldogs coaching staff earlier this year as part of an AFL initiative

"Any list that has experienced such a high turnover as ours has over the past two years is always going to find it difficult to compete at this level," said Menzel.

"Going forward, our challenge is to retain this playing group and add depth for next season."

"My aim for the remainder of this season is to lift morale and focus more on the positives without worrying too much about the scoreboard. Although it's been a tough season and disappointing not to have won a game, we're determined not to let results get us down."

"Put simply, we need to be more competitive for longer during games and set ourselves some realistic goals. Rather than the scoreboard being the only measure of success, I'm looking to adopt some KPI's that we can use to measure improvements internally. Over the next seven games I'll be looking for us to show greater consistency in several key areas."

Menzel played junior football at Glenorden and has been a long term player at the club. He coached at Under-16 level in 2008, and last year took the Under-18 side to a Preliminary Final. Menzel has also played senior football at Yarraville & Albion, and was selected to take part in the AFL's 'Championship Moves' program to assist developing coaches.

DIVISION ONE

By Leigh Eustace

The Vikings failed to knock off one of last year's grand finalists last weekend, yet will saddle up for another crack at claiming one of the league's big scalps when they travel to Albion this round.

Altona has looked comfortable in the five all year, indeed occupying third for most of the season, and despite slipping to fourth after last round's result they still sit well clear of the rest.

Yet they yearn for a big performance to prove they are capable of not just making it this year but getting to the final match of the season and today they travel to Albion, again as underdogs, but have a free hit in a game no-one really expects them to win.

Another loss, or a poor showing, and they're stuck in the middle, not quite with the best but not in a fight for a finals spot.

However, if they can get over the line, or impress in the least, all of a sudden the Woodsmen and Cats will not only be taking the Vikings seriously, but looking over their shoulders sensing that it won't just be cakewalk to this year's big dance.

Meanwhile, the team that just won't slow down, St Albans, has a genuine free hit at Spotswood.

The Saints have snuck into third and who knows how far they can go. Whilst a result at McLean Reserve may be overly ambitious, we'll know a lot more about just how deep St Albans may go come the post-season when they clash with the league-leaders.

North Footscray couldn't sneak in last week against Hoppers Crossing last week and their finals hopes have all but dashed. This week they take on Port Colts who couldn't get over Albion, and are occupying sixth desperate to get back into the five.

To do so they need to overtake those Warriors who trek to Sunshine Heights who will be buoyed by a rare four points last Saturday. The round's final game sees the Kangaroos entertain Glenorden at Sunshine.

FALCONS FORGE AHEAD

Wyndhamvale Aims For Finals Football

Wyndhamvale was not a happy place when Luke Dennerley returned to his former club in 2009. Less than three years later, the Falcons' senior side is in the top five of the Division Two competition and eyeing a finals berth. Its amalgamation this year with the junior club has been a resounding success, and the club will move to a new top-class facility in 2013. Things are certainly looking up.

Dennerley, in his second year as captain-coach, said his goal was to play finals footy this year and ensure the club had a sustained period of success, both on and off the field.

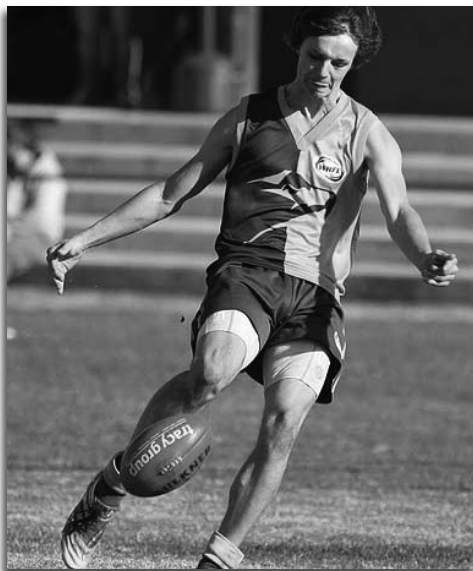

He played with the club at junior level for 10 years before a three-year stint with Werribee in the VFL, two years in the QAFL and another two years with Spotswood. But Wyndhamvale always held a special place in Dennerley's heart, and it pained him to see the club struggling.

"I thought it was time to go back home. I certainly saw that the place wasn't going so well on the field and it thought I could, certainly with other good people, make a difference. And we certainly think we've done that."

The club will no doubt be boosted by the new $4 million development being built on Black Forest Rd, which will be the club's new home in 2013. It will include a large pavilion, four changerooms, a combined bar and kiosk, office space, large social clubrooms and two ovals with lights.

In Dennerley's first year as captain in 2009, the Falcons won three games. In his first year as captain-coach last year, they won seven games. This year, they've already won seven. If steady improvement was the goal, then the club is achieving it.

"It's a cultural thing," Dennerley explained. "We're a group whose average age is 22, and they're fantastic. They want to learn, they're improving and their belief is coming along too. We're probably now sitting in a fairly precarious position (on the ladder). We're ready for the challenge, hopefully it comes this year and we're able to play finals.

"I firmly believe we have the best culture in the competition. What we like to say is we're one big clique."

But Dennerley is not one to focus on a senior premiership at the expense of juniors. The merger of the junior and senior clubs has been the most important thing to happen at the club for years, according to him.

"Make no bones about it that's the most important part of this, it's that we're all one football club going forward," Dennerley said. "In many ways our kids are more important than the guys playing senior football."

Dennerley has got every senior player to align themselves with a junior team, and they are expected to attend that team's training sessions and games throughout the year.

“The two things that I want to deliver at this club are the one united football club and a premiership for this football club.”

He has achieved one of those two things, by working with a committee that has the same vision. Senior president John Willaton, junior president Steve Tessari and reserves coach Mark Elso are among the people who have galvanized the club. This can be evidenced by Thursday meal nights after training, which routinely pack the clubrooms out. “We bill ourselves as a country footy club in many ways the way we go about it with our togetherness,” Dennerley said. “We’re basically a country footy club in the urban fringe.”

But Dennerley is aware of the up-and-down history of the club. Club stalwart Daniel Manitta, who is still a key player for the senior side, warned Dennerley that this has happened before - the club dug itself out of a slump, only to fall in a heap again.

“That’s one of the single things that motivates myself, is to be able to get some sustained success, and know that once our time’s up and we’ve got a really good succession plan in place, the club can go up and on.”

Dennerley’s plan to deliver a premiership will be driven by the players already at the club, topped up with a handful of new recruits.

“We haven’t had to recruit heavily because we’re in a growth area here. We’ve identified that the first thing we need to do when we’re recruiting... is make sure we plug in the guys who are actually here and are doing the job already.”

Last weekend Wyndhamvale stalwart Nathan ‘Evo’ Evans played his 100th Senior game for the club. A true journeyman of the game, Evans has had a glittering football career with a number of clubs. After playing his younger years with Werribee Centrals, Evans has now played more than 200 senior games with a number of clubs including Centrals, Mooney Valley, the Frankston Bombers and of course a few stints with his beloved Wyndhamvale Falcons. Evans is a former Captain, Best & Fairest and Club Coach of the Falcons.

“The keg on legs’ now puts in countless hours into his role as Football Manager and as key forward for the developing Falcons.

“I’m very lucky to be able to run out with such a great group of players,” said Evans.

“The people and history are why I’m involved at this club. To be a part of this club is an honour and every time I put on the jumper I see it as a privilege. It’s a privilege to play one game, let alone one-hundred games with this great football club. I will be a Falcon for life.”

DIVISION TWO

By Leigh Eustace

Albanvale entertains Coburg Districts in the 'Match Of The Day' this weekend, a matchup where the Lions have two great motivations.

Firstly they need to put together a solid performance as their finals spot is far from secure, but secondly they have the chance to test themselves against one of the best if they are to be more than just making up the numbers should they progress.

The Cobras meanwhile need to maintain their form if they want to hit the ground running and have a real crack at the top-of-the-table Deer Park when they meet in September.

At the other end of the finals picture Laverton have the quintessential eight point game when they play host to Wyndhamvale.

The Falcons currently hold the joker sitting in fifth, and the Magpies who started the year so well are beyond desperate to capitalise on that early-season form.

If Wyndhamvale get up their season will continue to look rosy, while Laverton will be all but done.

However if the converse eventuates, the Vale will get a little nervy about their prospects and the Pies will be just a sniff outside the finals once more. This one's undoubtedly a season definer for both clubs.

Yarraville-Seddon, currently in sixth and eyeing off Wyndhamvale as well, host seventh-placed West Footscray and again the winner's season will look a lot brighter afterwards.

For the Eagles, they get back into the finals with a win, while the Roosters have a game up their sleeve - but a loss will be devastating and almost draw curtains on their 2011 hopes.

First-placed Deer Park continues on their merry way when the league's newcomers Caroline Springs make the trip south, whereas the final game sees Braybrook clash with North Sunshine. Parkside has the bye.

BACHAR HOULI

Ex-Spotswood Junior Celebrates AFL Multicultural Round

‘What country are you from?’ a young fan asked Richmond’s Bachar Houli during a school holiday footy forum at Queen Victoria Market last week.

‘I’m Australian, I lived in Australia all my life but my parents were born in Lebanon,’ Houli responded, to which the fan, of Lebanese background himself, beamed proudly.

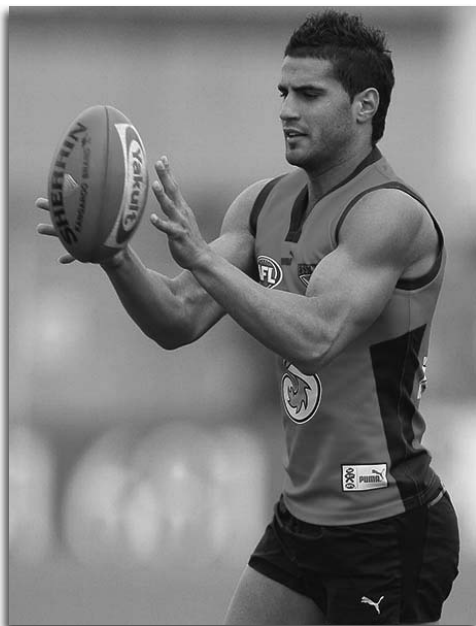

Houli, a devout Muslim, has been a role-model for people who share his faith and culture since he entered the AFL system in 2007, particularly since moving to Richmond from Essendon where he has gone from being a fringe player to a permanent and vital member of the senior side.

The Tarneit resident said he has embraced the opportunity to set an example for young people and to promote the inclusive philosophy of Aussie Rules.

‘I try to be the correct role-model from all kids out there. Accepting people from all backgrounds, that’s where we’re heading and it’s a great opportunity to stand up and be proud of who I am and definitely send a message to all kids out there, regardless of which background you’re from, that AFL is a game for everyone,’ the 23-year-old said.

Houli, who idolised Anthony Koutoufides as a child, played his junior football at Spotswood and is a product of TAC Cup side Western Jets. During his time with the Jets he was fortunate enough to play under Mark Neeld and Leigh Tudor, who have gone on to assume coaching roles at Collingwood and Sydney respectively.

Despite struggling to get game-time at Essendon, Houli has been ultra-impressive for the youthful Tigers this season, averaging 22 disposals and becoming a dangerous rebounding defender with his speed and deadly left foot.

Ex-Spotswood junior Bachar Houli first made his mark at Essendon, before being traded to Richmond in 2010

‘It’s always tough trying to move across from one team to another but the club’s accepted me and my culture so it’s a positive,’ Houli said.

‘The good thing is I’m playing games, and so far I’ve played every game which is pretty positive.

‘That’s the biggest challenge, trying to keep improving. The biggest thing for me was to become a better player defensively, and certainly the role down back is giving me that edge and I’m really enjoying that role.’

This week is the AFL’s Multicultural Round celebrating the diversity in our game. The Western Region Football League is proud to have a strong association with many ethnic & community groups, and the success of players such as Houli, who have come through our junior ranks, shows the importance of celebrating & promoting the diversity of our game at all levels.

WOMEN'S FOOTBALL CIRCLE

Werribee Tigers Launch New Coterie Group

Football has often been seen by many as a man's sport, a place where men can go down to the local footy club to hang out with the boys, enjoy a couple of frothies and leave the wife and kids at home.

Yet a few women from the Werribee Football Club have decided to change things a bit, with the introduction of the Werribee Tigers Women's Football Circle.

Chairperson Leonie Shaw, along with Michelle Pearce, Shelly Ryan, Brenda Treasure and Sam Edwards formed a committee and together came up with the new initiative, being the first women's only club both the Werribee Tigers and league have seen.

The main reason for the establishment of the Women's Football Circle is to increase female representation and support within the Werribee Football Club.

Through the creation of the coterie, the ladies aim to raise funds throughout the year by hosting a series of events, where the proceeds will go to help improve the Tiger's club facilities, in particularly the social rooms.

Their first event was held on Saturday the 2nd of July, where the Women's Football Circle was officially launched, holding a women's only day with a decadent High Tea in the Social Rooms against the Casey Scorpions.

"The event sold out within two weeks and we even had people on a waiting list. Today we had just over 160 people," committee member Michelle Pearce said.

Ladies were greeted by a glass of champagne on arrival and many women were impressed by the decorations inspired by the club's colours, giving a very feminine touch to each table.

Hosted by Kevin Hillier, the day was filled with much entertainment including Biscuit Readings by Burt and Betty, pampering stations, a handball competition, fashion show, jewelry stall, raffles, door prizes and gift bags.

The event had two guest speakers including Australian Netballer and Commonwealth Silver Medalist Renea Hallihan from the Melbourne Vixens and former mayor and current Wyndham Councilor Heather Marcus.

"The Women's Circle is an excellent idea as women look at things differently to men which is an added benefit, as they can come up with fresh ideas in a normally male dominated field." Ms Marcus said.

"We've had good feedback from people, which is very rewarding. It's great to raise funds and be able to inject some female participation into football clubs. Tiger's President John Nicol even commented saying that he had never seen this many women fill the room!" Ms Pearce said.

Chairperson Leonie Shaw added that "We hope that through our small idea, other football clubs can develop their own women's coterie and hope that soon the VFL will follow suit, where women from all football clubs across the league can come together and share ideas, to benefit everyone associated with local football."

The event raised in excess of $3,000 for the day. For more information on the Women's Football Circle and their upcoming events taking place later in the year or if you are interested in sponsorship, please contact Leonie Shaw on circle@werribeefc.com.au.

UMPIRES CORNER

By Graeme Hodgart

The WRFL covers the greater part of the Western Suburbs with the competing clubs dotted here and there. The area involved stretches from as far as Coburg to Wyndhamvale and then from Flemington to Williamstown. Even so, there is often not a lot of travel involved as many clubs are close neighbours with others. The best example of this is the conglomerate of Sunshine clubs comprising Sunshine, North Sunshine and Sunshine Heights. Very close by are both Braybrook and Albion. North Footscray, Spotswood, Yarraville Seddon and Parkside aren't that far away from them either. This means that often it is only a short hike to the venue when your team is drawn to play away.

The same can be said about umpires and umpiring. Nearly everyone lives close to a particular ground and so some umpires are eager to be given games at that venue. It doesn't always work like that. Goalie John Sutton's house backs onto the Croft Reserve ground but he was umpiring for over five seasons before he was given a game at that venue. Even though he could walk out through the back gate and walk across the oval to the clubrooms he still chose to drive around and into the car park.

Lots of the umpires who live down in Hoppers Crossing and Werribee are very keen to umpire at Hogans Road, Honour Avenue or Kookaburra Avenue. It does save some time, effort and money spent on petrol.

Just the other week a team of umpires went all the way out to Coburg. Out of the ten umpires who officiated there that day, four lived in Caroline Springs, one hailed from North Sunshine while the others came from Yarraville, Kingsville, Maidstone, Laverton and Hoppers Crossing respectively. That all added up to a fair number of kilometers between them.

Goal Umpire Jarrod Wright celebrate his fiftieth Division One game this weekend

It was interesting to note that one of them missed a turn off from the freeway and kept motoring along but began to become a little uneasy when the next sign post indicated that Greensborough was looming up ahead. That's what happens when those residing in the west do not venture too far away. Luckily there was enough time for that certain umpire to enjoy the extra kilometers and still make it to his game with plenty of time up his sleeve.

Of course, when you mention the aspect of travel, there are those clubs who are situated on the far boundaries of the area that the WRFL covers. Their players, officials and supporters do have the job of covering many kilometers practically every second week to go to the away venues.

Hopefully, this weekend, everyone who is facing a little bit of travel, can do so without getting lost and not touring too far out of their way but also arrive safely and enjoy the hospitality of their opposing clubs. Also, spare a thought for the umpires, who may, at the end of a long hard game, have a lengthy trip home. Try to make their day a good one and surprise them by giving them some encouraging support.

DIVISION ONE (U18)

Proudly Sponsored by Werribee Tigers Football Club

There were two big percentage boosters in the Division One competition last weekend, both courtesy of St Albans.

While the Saints were increasing their own percentage up near the 300 mark with a 163 point win over Sunshine, it did come at a bit of a cost, with league leaders Hoppers Crossing enjoying the same percentage boosting margin in their scheduled fixture due to a forfeit by North Footscray. As a result Hoppers get to claim the highest score of the round (being St Albans) and North Footscray adopt the lowest score of the round (being Sunshine), thus rocketing the Warriors percentage close to 400.

However based on previous results some might argue that had the Warriors and Devils fixture actually been played, the ladder-leaders might have boosted their percentage by even more.

On the park St Albans were very impressive against a Sunshine side that was, and probably still is, a realistic finals prospect. Sunshine managed just two points after quarter time to the Saints twenty-two goals. Anthony Piva was in fine form for the winners, bagging eight, while Keenan O'Shea played a strong supporting role with six majors. In the round's other game Altona ran out comfortable 47 point winners against fourth place Spotswood.

This weekend Hoppers should continue on their mission to claim back-to-back premierships with an away fixture at Sunshine Heights. Elsewhere Altona will look to stay on pace with the Warriors away to Albion at Parsons Reserve, while most of the interest will be down at McLean Reserve as Spotswood host St Albans.

The Saints are two games clear of Spotswood with the sides sitting third & fourth respectively, and this weekend will give all a good indication of how far the gap is between the top three and the rest of the field is.

It should also give us a good indication of how much work the Saints have to do to catch the leading two sides, with a big win away at Spotswood the first step in proving they have what it takes to match the Warriors & Vikings.

Hoskin-Elliott & Kennedy Dominate For Vic Metro

Western Jets' footballers, Will Hoskin-Elliott and Adam Kennedy, have played starring roles in the Vic Metro's dominating 48-point victory over rival Vic Country.

Hoskin-Elliott was in the best five players on the ground in one of his most impressive games for the Metro.

Speculation surrounding the teenager is no longer about if he will get drafted but rather which AFL club will win his services come draft time.

He managed 17 quality disposals including seven inside-50s as well as laying six tackles in the 9.17 (70) to 2.10 (22) win. It was an excellent four-quarter performance by Hoskin-Elliott and his team-mates.

"We did everything really well. Put on some good blocks and shepherds," Hoskin-Elliott said.

"I was pretty happy with it. I got ten handball receives and that's what I have been aiming for the whole carnival."

Hoskin-Elliott is reaping the benefits of big pre-season, which he credits for taking his fitness to another level. He was able to finish Wednesday night's match full of running.

Kennedy may be joining his Jets' team-mate at an AFL club after an impressive carnival with the Vic Metro.

He had nine disposals and was as solid as a rock down back, restricting the Vic Country to just two goals for the match and a scoreless third quarter.

"It's happened throughout the carnival... the boys just find another gear after half time. It's a big credit to them, they do it well," Kennedy said.

"I got put on a good player tonight and I thought I did a decent job."

Kennedy has gone from strength to strength since finding his feet in the Metro jumper.

"I was very pleased over the carnival. My first game I struggled a bit but the last two, the coaches have been really happy with me. I'm just happy to get consecutive games in the Vic Metro squad."

Kennedy and Hoskin-Elliott now return to the Western Jets where they will try and help lift the club from seventh place on the TAC Cup ladder.

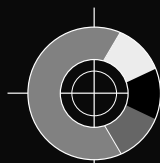

The Jets are enjoying a run of mid-season form, which continued last weekend. They defeated the Eastern Rangers by 29 points to continue their late run towards the finals.

The Jets led at every change in the 17.13 (115) to 13.8 (86) win.

Kennedy is hoping the experience he has picked up playing for Vic Metro will serve him well when he returns to play with his team-mates.

"Playing in this, every bloke comes out and they are there for a reason. When I go back I should be better for it," Kennedy said.

"We have won the last couple. Hopefully we can get a few more wins and make finals. Then have an impact there."

Seagulls Storm Into Foxtel Cup Final

Williamstown stormed into the inaugural Foxtel Cup Grand Final with a clinical 71-point win against East Perth at Etihad Stadium last weekend.

The Seagulls will take on the winner of the Saturday semi-final clash between Claremont (WAFL) and Port Adelaide (SANFL) in either Perth or Adelaide in early August.

Playing under a closed roof, Williamstown trampled over the hapless Royals in the first half, kicking the first ten goals and only allowing East Perth its first goal in the 16th minute of the second quarter.

The visitors were more competitive in the second half, kicking three goals to Williamstown's five, but never looked like worrying a Williamstown side that fielded several younger players who have spent most of the VFL season in the reserves.

Bulldogs-listed forward Patrick Veszpremi was a stand-out with four goals in a performance that showcased his canny goal sense.

But it was his defensive efforts that really pleased coach Peter German.

"He's always been a smart in front of goals, but for me it's him really adding to his game defensively and I thought he did that pretty well," German said.

Veszpremi had plenty of support up front from fellow Bulldogs Jordan Roughead, Mitch Hahn, Will Minson and Zephaniah Skinner, whose first-quarter screamer was one of the match's highlights, but the team's decidedly less inexperienced backline was equally impressive, restricting East Perth to just four goals.

"I was really pleased with guys like Phil Smith who'd come in, guys like Nick Walters and Steve McCallum," German said.

"We've really got a bit of a makeshift backline that's a bit new and is inexperienced in some ways, but I thought they did the job. Mulligan coming back from three weeks off on Josh Smith (two goals), I thought he did a reasonable job."

East Perth struggled to penetrate the forward 50, particularly in the first half, with Williamstown's use of the wings to run the ball from half-back highlighting the difference in class between the two teams.

The Seagulls also imposed a greater physicality, which rattled the Royals and led to several turnovers in their defensive third. "I think our first half was really pleasing for the way we structured up in a lot of the areas we've been focusing on, so to me the scoreboard in a lot of ways reflected that," German said.

German rested Ben Jolley, who has endured a massive workload in the centre this year, but Jolley will play against Collingwood in Wangarratta this weekend.

List management will be crucial for the Seagulls in the coming weeks, with games against North Ballarat and Port Melbourne on either side of the Foxtel Cup grand final.

"From our point of view it's good to get an opportunity in the Foxtel Cup, if we had a rest this week we wouldn't have been able to expose those young kids," German said.

DIVISION TWO (U18)

Proudly Sponsored by Werribee Tigers Football Club

Point Cook continues to march towards the Division Two minor premiership, with the Bulldogs now three games clear on top and defying every challenge thrown at them. Last weekend it was Altona that tried their mettle against the benchmark of the competition, going down by 122 points after another impressive display by the ladder leaders.

Deer Park's season is back on track following a handy 159 point win over St Albans, with the percentage boosting victory now moving the Lions back into second.

Albanvale slip to third, with their four points from the bye obviously not coming with any increase in percentage meaning the race is now on between the Lions & Cobras for that highly sought after second spot.

Hoppers Crossing are now two games clear in fourth after easily accounting for Caroline Springs by 71 points, while Parkside are now in outright fifth on the ladder after breaking four points away from Wyndhamvale courtesy of a 20 point home win.

This weekend all eyes will be on the Point Cook and Albanvale fixture as the Cobras try to break the Bulldogs perfect win-loss record. Earlier this season Albanvale came very close to knocking the ladder-leaders off their perch, amassing more scoring shots than the Bulldogs in their Round Three fixture but falling short by thirteen points. Both teams have since improved and while Point Cook should win this one, it wouldn't be that unexpected if Albanvale shook things up with an upset win.

Elsewhere Deer Park should earn another four points at home to Caroline Springs, Parkside should cement their spot in the five away at Altona, while Wyndhamvale should remain in the hunt for that finals berth away at St Albans.

However the competition is due for an upset and you never quite know what four quarters of footy will deliver.

LIVE SAVING DONATION

Coburg Districts Sponsors Donate Vital Equipment

No football club is immune to the tragic accidents that can result from the intensity of Australian Rules football. But, thanks to a little sponsor & supporter group intervention, Coburg Districts Football Club will be better prepared than most to deal with health emergencies.

At the club's recently held Sponsor's Day, the Lions received pledges from a loyal group of supporters and sponsors, all who are passionate participants within their local community, to donate a heart defibrillator.

Club President Allan Chandler said the recent death of a country footballer had spurred our club to act.

"We hope that by having a heart defibrillator more readily available in the community, and by raising awareness that these devices exist, we might save lives".

The Coburg District Football Club would like to thank the following businesses & supporters for their magnanimous donation.

McLardyMcShane – A company with strong community values, well known for their support of Jim Stynes Reach Foundation Program raising in excess of $500,000 over the past 5 years. From general business Insurance, life and risk Insurance, right through to Superannuation and Workcover, McLardyMcShane are the complete Insurance and Financial Services solution.

Austrans Container Services – Major sponsor of Coburg Districts Football Club for the past 15 years. Peter O'Shea can be found most Saturdays in attendance supporting the club.

Doug Nyman – A past player and current sponsor of the Club (Sunbury Bus Lines) whose family has a strong and current legacy within the Club's history.

Dean Leeds – A former player and current Club Sponsor (Souvenirs Australiana).

Trevor Still – Current Club sponsor (Crown Packaging).

Stuart Leeds – Former 300 game player & current Senior Runner, Club Sponsor (Traveller Souvenirs Luggage) and committee member.

Mick & Jeannette Mooney – Jeannette is the current Head Trainer and Mick also a past player and Reserves Coach, both are also current committee members.

Stephen Jordan – Can always be counted upon to go the extra mile at the Club when needed, is current Vice President, Bar Manager & Seniors Team Manager.

Glen Pipe – Brings a touch of the "common man" to the Club – nothing is too much trouble, currently has two sons, Chris & Sean playing and is also Assistant Reserves Coach.

Peter Manning – Club supporter with a strong network of business contacts through his involvement with the Club.

Steven Lowry – Club Supporter and executive within the Hills Industry Group.

Williamstown Football Club is again running their annual 'Against the Odds' award, given to young aspiring athletes in the western suburbs who have undergone hardship to play their chosen sport. Sponsored by Hotfrog Protocol the winner of this award is presented with a $1000 cheque, $500 of which goes to his or her local sporting club. In 2011 the award will be presented at the Williamstown v Port Melbourne game on the 13th of August.

Last years Against the Odds award was presented to joint winners Shae-Lee Murphy Burke from the Altona Junior Football Club and Jayke Ewer from Caroline Springs Football Club. They were presented with their awards by guest speakers Francis Bourke and Robert McGhie. Entrants must be under the age of 18 and the candidates need not to have excelled in their chosen sport, but simply competed and overcome obstacles in their pursuit to participate. Obstacles may include a disability, illness, injury, financial hardship, parental issues or a loss of a family member.

Hotfrog Protocol is an amalgamation of Protocol Marketing Group and Hotfrog Promotional. Both companies come under the Waivestar Group banner and provide promotional products, uniform programs, graphic design and print management programs, all managed via an online stock management and ordering system. Inventory is warehoused in one roof and orders are picked, packed and distributed from our DC in Preston Victoria.

Hotfrog Protocol is proud to support the Williamstown football Clubs "Against The Odds" award. During its journey, commencing in the late 1990's, Hotfrog Protocol / Waivestar Group have faced many challenges thrown up to any small business trying to establish themselves in the corporate world. In the business world, like life in general, some thrive during hardship and achieve things that most feel is beyond their ability, and others for various reasons give up on their dream. Hotfrog Protocol did not give up on their dream and from a humble background now provide printed material, branded merchandise and uniform programs too many of Australia's iconic brands.

An award such as this typifies the fighting spirit required for any individual or company to succeed. To nominate yourself or someone you know, please visit www.williamstownfc.com.au.
