THANKS UMPIRE!

From The Editor

As much as they seem to infuriate players, spectators & coaches at times, umpires are a vital part of our game and we wouldn't be able to enjoy junior & senior football every weekend without them. Over the past twelve months more young umpires have started to officiate games in the west than ever before, and in order to grow our game and our league we need to ensure we support these youngsters as they learn and progress through the umpiring ranks.

Over the past couple of weeks it has been great to receive so many positive emails from readers regarding umpires throughout our league. Below are a couple of excerpts from some of your correspondence.

"I am a parent of a player from Williamstown Under 11B junior football team. On Sunday he played at Westbourne College at 10.20 am. The game had two league appointed umpires, a seasoned veteran 'Richard Watt' and a younger 'umpire in training'. I just wanted to commend both umpires, but in particular the senior umpire. He went about his job with great enthusiasm and was not only umpiring, but explaining his decisions and coaching the kids playing and coaching and guiding the umpire in training also. He did a fantastic job and I felt it appropriate that his level of commitment and enthusiasm be recognised. He even continued on after copping a ball fair on the chin. All too often umpires are overlooked or quickly criticised and I'm sure they are not often commended."

"Too often supporters/players/parents are happy to vent their anger at Umpires after the game. I would like to say 'Well Done Ump!' to Alf Johnstone. He umpired the Hoppers Crossing vs St Bernards Under 9 White game yesterday and did an exceptional job. He even looked like he was having fun. Alf gave great feedback to the boys and some words of wisdom to the coaching staff. Alf even picked one of the kids up and put him in the right position to kick a goal. He took the time to explain his decisions to the kids and praised their efforts. It was enjoyable to watch. Please pass on my thanks to Alf for a job well done."

This weekend please recognize the great job these men, women, boys & girls are doing within our league. We are always quick to recognize 'wrong' decisions but rarely recognize those that are correct. Lets encourage all those umpires who make our game what it is in the west, as even just a thanks or well done can make a big difference to those just starting out.

Warriors & Colts Fight For Final Spot

Hoppers Crossing and Port Melbourne clash this weekend in a crunch game for Division One, as both teams aim to secure that highly sought after fifth and final spot in the post season.

In the most important game of the season for both teams, the Warriors versus Colts clash has all the ingredients of a classic contest.

The fifth-placed Warriors potentially saved their season when they achieved a stunning come-from-behind win against the Colts in round six and Port Melbourne, just half a game behind Hoppers Crossing, will be desperate for revenge.

Both sides had wins on Saturday against lowly opposition, but face a testing final four weeks. The run home for both teams only makes top five predictions more difficult.

Port Melbourne's final three games are against Glenorden, St Albans and Altona, while Hoppers Crossing will take on Spotswood, St Albans and Sunshine.

The Colts are almost certain to defeat Glenorden, but will need to win at least one of their last two games if they fail against Hoppers Crossing. But if the Colts defeat the Warriors, and results fall to the favourites in the following round, Port Melbourne will be six points ahead of Hoppers Crossing and the Warriors will have to beat St Albans and Sunshine in the last two rounds, and hope Port Melbourne loses to Altona and St Albans.

If Hoppers Crossing prevails, the Warriors will open up a six-point gap to Port Melbourne on the ladder, and are likely to need only one more win from its last three games to secure a spot in the five.

All this leads to one fact – this is a must-win game for both sides.

Hoppers Crossing had to battle to overcome ninth-placed Sunshine Heights on Saturday, but eventually won by 31 points, while Port Melbourne had a comfortable 202-point win against Glenorden.

THE RUN HOME – HOPPERS CROSSING CURRENTLY: 5TH (8-5-1)

THE RUN HOME – PORT MELBOURNE CURRENTLY: 6TH (8-6)

SAINTS BIG REALITY CHECK

Albion Assert Dominance On Division One

If St Albans emerged as possible premiership contenders after upsetting Spotswood two weeks ago, then Albion handed the Saints a real reality check last weekend.

The Cats cemented top spot on the ladder with a masterful 96-point win against the third-placed Saints, effectively securing premiership favouritism.

St Albans got the jump on Albion and held a 20-point lead at quarter time, but Albion gradually pegged the deficit back in the second quarter and produced an incredible 18-goal second half to send the Saints crashing back to earth.

After kicking six goals in the first quarter, St Albans could only manage another four more. The Saints sorely missed big man Aaron Henneman, who has been the side's main target up forward this season.

Albion on the other hand was spoilt for choice up forward, and had 11 individual goal kickers.

Shaydon Bloomfield kicked six goals for the Cats, but livewire Todd Finco earned best on ground honours with a complete performance that yielded four goals and 10 tackles.

Albion coach Marcus Barclay said Finco, 19, was such a dangerous weapon because of his versatility and X-factor.

"He's so nonchalant in the way he approaches footy, he just cruises into training and his preparation before the game is very quiet," Barclay said.

"It's hard to match up on him because he's so quick and he's also tall. He's just constantly running blokes down from behind. It's just that perceived pressure that he puts on."

Barclay regarded Saturday's match as a danger game after the Saints' stunning win against Spotswood, and early on he had every reason to. St Albans attacked Albion in the same way it attacked Spotswood, but could only sustain its intensity for a half.

"I think it's really difficult to maintain it over four quarters," Barclay said. "They really did stop running after half time. It was more our pressure around the contest that's probably been the difference in the last month and a half for us."

Barclay played under St Albans coach Ian Denney when both were in the EDFL, and said knowing how Denney coached proved advantageous in dismantling the Saints.

The Cats coach was thrilled with his side's 10-goal final quarter, which showed their ability to run games out.

Co-coaches Barclay and backman Glenn Manton have kept Tuesday sessions light in the past month to ensure players were fresh for their several crunch games in a row.

"When we come up against the sides that are lower on the ladder, we'll ramp up the Tuesday nights leading into finals," Barclay said.

"To be running out the games like we have been, I think we can only get better in that respect."

DIVISION ONE

By Leigh Eustace

Hogans Road definitely hosts the game of the round this weekend as the fifth-placed Hoppers Crossing entertains sixth-placed Port Colts in an full finals dress rehearsal.

The Warriors have gotten themselves into the five at the right time of the year but their opponents today are desperate to take that elusive spot off them.

Whilst we still have a month of Division One football to run before we kick off the post-season, the outcome of today's matchup has huge ramifications.

If the home side can get up and get a game and a half break on sixth then the finals looks all the more likely. However if the visitors succeed, they leapfrog into the five with Glenorden next week, while Hoppers have to travel to Spotswood.

The road ahead looks all the tougher for the loser today, so all the more motivation to get up in what's destined to be a tight contest between evenly matched teams.

Elsewhere Albion, after disposing of the high-flying St Albans last Saturday, host Sunshine en route to locking up the minor premiership. The Cats face the bottom four sides over the next four rounds.

Spotswood, who now look resigned to finishing in second spot on the ladder, head west to Glenorden, with the visitors now relying on an Albion slip-up to claim anything but second spot going into the finals.

Elsewhere St Albans and Altona will both be fighting for third spot on the ladder this afternoon as the sides visit North Footscray and Sunshine Heights respectively.

The Saints have an extra win on the Vikings, but a poorer percentage.

With both sides expected to win today, it adds extra emphasis on next week's game where both teams square off, the outcome of which will be of added importance to St Albans who arguably have a tougher final two rounds.

SUNSHINE WELCOMES RICHMOND

Former Richmond Great Visits Training

Richmond legend Matthew Richardson made a fleeting visit to the west last week, as he ventured to Kinder Smith Reserve to take a training session for the Sunshine Football Club.

The former star full forward offered some valuable coaching advice to players and coaches and took time out at the end of the session to answer questions and sign autographs. There was also a live cross by radio station 3AW.

The club's senior trainer Scott Hammond said the visit was inspirational for the young playing group, who were struggling on the field.

He said some words of advice could be the perfect remedy for the club, which has slipped to seventh on the ladder after finishing third last year.

"We're struggling on and off the field but the visit will rejuvenate the club and bring everyone together," said Hammond.

The visit was part of the Good for Footy program, which provides funding to improve grounds, renovate clubrooms and purchase essential equipment, uniforms and medical supplies.

One of the major sponsors of the initiative is Toyota who has already donated more than $1.7 million since the program's inception in 2005. It is hoped the program will reach its target of $2 million by the end of the year.

WOOD VISITS WOODSMEN

Bulldog Reveals Spotswood Past

Western Bulldogs youngster Easton Wood has revealed he is in fact a former Spotswood player, following a visit to McLean Reserve as part of Toyota's Good For Footy Program.

The speedy defender took Spotswood's under-16 team for a training session last week and revealed he played one game for the Green and Gold – but can't remember if it was in under-10s or under-12s.

Although Wood lived in Camperdown, his father lived in Williamstown and he would travel down every weekend as a youngster to spend time with his dad and run for the Williamstown Little Athletics Club.

On one weekend his dad organised for him to play a game for Spotswood, and as Wood recalls it, the side lost by about 100 points.

Wood's journey from oft-overlooked junior to AFL footballer makes him an ideal role model for young and impressionable footballers who are deciding if they want to make the sacrifices necessary to play sport at their maximum level.

The 21-year-old Altona resident spoke to the Spotswood teens about his failure to make TAC Cup side Geelong Falcons' list, and how the Bulldogs picked him up after being impressed with his performances for school side Geelong Grammar.

"I was under the impression I was never going to play AFL, but I continued playing footy because I really enjoyed it, so that's the message – if you keep with it and you enjoy it, you play good footy."

Wood knows all about persistence. He's had to overcome a string of injuries in his four years at the Western Bulldogs, and is only just starting to play consistent footy.

Having recovered from snapping his ankle in round one and not missing a game since round nine, Wood is now being talked about like Callan

Ward was two years ago – as someone with loads of promise, a footballer with the goods to become one of the Bulldogs' most important players.

"My body's just starting to get a lot better. I started to struggle with my ankle earlier in the year and when I came back from that I felt like I had a new ankle, I had to learn how to play within its capabilities and certainly just started to get used to it," Wood said. "It's good just to play a few consistent games."

The Bulldogs' back-line woes have been well-documented this season, but Wood has been a beacon of consistency.

"It's been really difficult, we've had massive changes in personnel with blokes being injured, being in and out. It's hard to gel as a group with that, because the back line really is a team within a team," he said.

"Probably the last six or seven weeks we've had a much more consistent group."

Of his side's failure to meet expectations this season, Wood said no one's looking for excuses.

"A lot of time when things haven't been going well we've really concentrated on what we're doing wrong, there's not been finger pointing or a witch-hunt."

DIVISION TWO

By Leigh Eustace

Coburg Districts has the penultimate chance to spoil Deer Park's perfect season when they tussle today.

Whilst being heavy underdogs and with expectations that it'll be Albanvale in the final round with the last sincere chance to prevent the Cinderella story, if nothing else it will be a fantastic litmus test for the fifth-placed Lions.

Coburg has four points on Yarraville-Seddon, the team they confront next week, and a slight percentage advantage.

They will be desperate for a good showing, not only to run into some sort of form in time for a hopeful finals appearance, but to maintain fifth-place over the Eagles who have a meeting with Caroline Springs.

Come the final siren it's expected both teams will be level on points with a similar percentage so it's crucial for both teams to maximise their efforts today.

Meanwhile Parkside hosts Albanvale by the banks of the Maribyrnong.

The Magpies can't be pushed out of third with fourth-placed Wyndhamvale enjoying their final bye this round, but it'll be interesting to see just how big the gap is between the top two and the rest.

Can Parkside bridge that gap somewhat and put in a real tough, inspired performance with the finals just over the horizon, or are we indeed perhaps still looking at Deer Park vs Albanvale procession.

With the finals only still possible through the convention of arithmetic, Laverton will look to come back off their bye last week looking for a resounding performance against North Sunshine.

The Magpies looked like good things earlier in the season but unfortunately the year has proved too long for such a great improvement on 2010.

Our final game of the round sees West Footscray tackle Braybrook at the Pennell Reserve.

MR ALBANVALE!

Borg & Sirianni Tie For Top Award

Albanvale footballers ditched their guernseys and shorts earlier this month and strutted their stuff on the catwalk all in the name of a good cause.

The struggling footy club hosts a Mr Albanvale competition each year and club captain Adam Borg said it was the perfect way to raise much needed funds and enjoy a night filled with hilarity.

And this year's winners were a hit with the crowd, who cheered for an encore after the boys showed off their talent. After a gruelling swimsuit assessment the lads were given scores by the judges, but it wasn't until young Jamie Sirianni and Darren Borg hit the stage with identical Cher acts that the crowd erupted and made it obvious who were the winners on the night.

Borg said Sirianni, glamour centre half forward, and forward pocket goal-sneak Borg, were both

"stoked" when they were announced as the joint 'Mr Albanvale'.

"We host a lot of functions throughout the year and this is always one of the best," Borg said.

He said the club was experiencing unprecedented success this season, with both the senior and reserves team second on the ladder.

"You never know what could happen if we make the Grand Final."

However he said despite the club's recent success, it continued to struggle to gain sponsorship and was forced to host functions throughout the year simply to keep the club afloat.

Next month the club will host a legends game and as well as the WRFL & EJ Whitten Foundation Launch Event.

FINALS FOOTBALL AWAITS

AFL Victoria Launches Local Finals Series

Western Region Football League CEO, Bob Tregear, recently joined AFL Victoria, the Victorian Government and representatives from community football to promote the forthcoming finals series at a local level.

Tregear attended the launch event at Visy Park alongside former Melbourne captain Garry Lyon, former premierships player Chris Johnson, AFL Victoria General Manager Grant Williams, and Minister for Sport and Recreation, Hugh Delahanty, to urge people to continue supporting their teams during the finals.

Delahanty said it was great Victorians were so passionate about sport especially during finals, and that it was important everyone supported their teams with lots of spirit and enthusiasm.

"We're here to encourage people to keep up the good behaviour that they display during the year," said Delahanty.

"We all need to work together to ensure the enjoyment of participants and spectators, and encourage their ongoing involvement in the game."

"Football finals are an exciting time, and everyone has worked so hard for the chance to play in a premiership."

"Many teams have put in a terrific effort throughout the season, and I encourage fans to attend their local footy club and show their support."

Western Region Football League CEO, Bob Tregear, attended the launch in anticipation of the WRFL finals series that kicks off next weekend.

"Our junior finals are run over four weeks starting on Sunday 7th August, with Division Two finals commencing on Saturday 20th August & Division One on Saturday 27th August," said Tregear.

"It is always an exciting & rewarding time of year for those involved, and we urge that all players, coaches, officials & spectators remember to act & behave in the spirit of the game."

Over 130,000 players participating in 5,440 teams have been involved in Victorian football this year, striving for the right to compete in the 2011 local community finals.

AFL Victoria General Manager, Grant Williams, said all local leagues were looking forward to their upcoming finals series.

"Finals time is an ideal opportunity for all local football fans to see the best teams from each competition in action as they compete for the ultimate reward of achieving a premiership flag together," said Williams.

"I know that all leagues would encourage supporters to come along to community finals matches and enjoy the things that make local football such a great experience - kicking the footy during the breaks, listening to the coaches out on the ground and standing in the outer, close to the action supporting their team."

"I would also like to take this opportunity to recognise and celebrate the fantastic efforts of our thousands of volunteers who give so much of their time putting on great games of footy week in week out during the season."

UMPIRES CORNER

By Graeme Hodgart

This week marks the last round of the junior competition. It means that for many of our young 'champion' players it will be the final game of the season. Of course, a small number of players will be competing in the finals but a single loss means not only possible heartache, disappointment and maybe tears but also the end of running out and playing in a competitive football environment.

It's a little bit different for umpires. The start of the junior finals heralds an extremely hectic time for the umpiring fraternity. Not only are there games on Saturday to be umpired but there are also a huge amount of junior finals that require field, boundary and goal umpires to officiate in.

Most umpires put up their hand to help out and make themselves available for the Sunday games as well as the usual Saturday matches. Unfortunately, some will groan when they are given the early morning games on the Sunday morning. Gone are the regular sleep in and it's off to the game bright and early. For finals, umpires are expected to arrive at least one hour before their games. An exception is made if they are 'lucky' enough to strike the 8:30 am fixture. Then, forty-five minutes beforehand is acceptable.

Some umpires are very competitive and are eager to be appointed to certain games that they see as a feather in their cap. It's always good to have a realistic goal in which to aspire towards. Of course, not everyone is successful with their hopes and their dreams but, as they say, there is always next year.

Umpires are indeed fortunate to be able to take part in a whole range of finals' games. Unlike the many players who miss out on finals, nearly every umpire will be a part of the WRFL's junior finals.

It was only a little over thirty years ago, when there were no official league boundary and goal umpires. Instead, representatives from the clubs ran the boundary and waved the flags during the season. The better performers, as judged by the field umpires, were rewarded with doing the finals while those judged to the best were given the grand final.

The system changed and the boundary and goal umpires were appointed for finals from the ranks of the leagues own umpires, all of who were field umpires. There was much laughter, taunts and teasing amongst the group as certain umpires, who were not appointed as a field umpire, were given the 'secondary' job of running the boundary or waving flags. Now, the WRFL have official field, boundary and goal umpires in every senior and junior final.

Just as the junior players take to the field next week in order to do their best, so too do the umpires. Seven or eight months of dedicated training, practising, regular feedback and listening to lectures all combine to prepare the umpires to be at peak of their powers. Whether they are in control in the middle or running the white lines or waving pieces of calico tied to sticks, we hope that they are able to put their best foot forward and do a great job. Good luck to one and all!

DIVISION ONE (U18)

Proudly Sponsored by Werribee Tigers Football Club

Big Corey Irving stamped his authority on the Division One competition last weekend, bagging a season-best seventeen goals in Altona’s 164 point win over cellar dwellers North Footscray. With a previous best haul of six goals earlier in the year, Irving was the sole spearhead up forward, kicking all but nine of the side’s 26 goals to take his season count to 51.

His haul moved him seven goals clear on top of the leaderboard, and Altona four points clear at the top of the Division One ladder. Hoppers Crossing remain in second after a week off courtesy of the bye, while St Albans remain in third following a hard-fought nine point win over Albion.

Despite sitting five wins clear of their opponents, the Saints were given a real run by the Cats who probably should have got over the line had they kicked a little straighter in front of goal. The visitors had six more scoring shots and based on last weekend’s performance may just cause an upset or two come finals time if they are a little more accurate. In the other game Spotswood ran out comfortable winners over Sunshine by 103 points.

With Hoppers Crossing stuck with another weekend without football, Altona get the opportunity to extend their lead at the top of the ladder to eight points when they travel to the struggling Sunshine Heights.

The Dragons defensive record is the second worst in the league, and as such it may just be another day out in front of goals for the Vikings big man Corey Irving.

Elsewhere St Albans can draw level on points with Hoppers Crossing when they travel to North Footscray, while Albion host Sunshine in a game that may mean a finals berth for the winners.

With just four rounds remaining it does seem odd that Albion (3 wins) & Sunshine (2 wins) could be playing off for a place in the finals, however that will be the situation at Parsons Reserve this weekend.

While the ladder suggests Albion are just a win better than Sunshine, form indicates the Cats should be comfortable winners and stitch up a spot in the first week of the finals which will be an elimination clash against fourth-placed Spotswood.

Seagulls Down Local Rivals

Williamstown's effort to resist a fast-finishing Werribee was evidence of a side playing as a true team, according to coach Peter German.

Creating a team environment among a side that mixes AFL-listed players with VFL players is a significant challenge, but German said his side was beginning to discover that unity so crucial for a successful team.

"You don't win those games if your blokes are thinking individual and thinking their own agendas," German said.

"The best part was the boys rallied as a group and not as individuals and that's what we've probably been doing in the last month."

German said it was always going to be a tough game against a team that had improved out of sight since the two sides met in the opening round, when the Seagulls did a number on the Tigers.

"Werribee, I think, have been a very good side this year. It's taken them maybe earlier in the year to get their game plan up and going but the last month and a half to two months they've been in just as good a form as anyone," he said.

German said he was disappointed with some of the Seagulls' ball use, which let Werribee back in the game, particularly in the final quarter.

"In sloppy conditions, you could probably cut them some slack but there were three poor uses of the ball that really opened up the door for Werribee to get a goal," German said.

"But for the boys to be able to rally and kick some important goals was good."

Jason Johannisen played his first seniors home-and-away game (he has represented Williamstown in the Foxtel Cup) and held his own.

"We've been really lucky with injuries this year, both here and at the Bulldogs so that probably hasn't allowed us to bring some kids on in our seconds," German said.

"Our seconds had a really good win against Werribee, who have a good seconds side, and there's four or five blokes there who we've played in the Foxtel Cup. We'd love to get an opportunity to get them up in the next four or five games."

German was impressed with Jason Tutt's game, but said he needed to work on his goalkicking on the run.

"He's been able to use his run and his speed. I think certainly over the past month his played his best footy," he said.

PARTNERSHIP LAUNCH

WRFL & EJ Whitten Foundation

The Western Region Football League has announced the EJ Whitten Foundation as the league's new major community partner, with the partnership to be launched at a Fundraising Dinner on Saturday 13th August.

To be held at Robert Bruce Reserve in Deer Park, the night will include an address by special guest Ted Whitten Junior, as well as a number of guest speakers, light entertainment, auctions & raffles.

The three course dinner will follow the Albanvale vs Deer Park fixture in Round 18, with all funds raised going directly to the Foundation. The EJ Whitten Foundation is a leading men's health not-for-profit charity, aimed at increasing the awareness of prostate cancer and raising funds for research into the disease.

Bob Tregear, WRFL Chief Executive Officer, said the evening would be a great chance for the local community to support a worthwhile charity & cause.

"Over the past decade the EJ Whitten Foundation has played a leading role in raising the awareness of prostate cancer through numerous campaigns and events, and our involvement with the organization will hopefully spread this awareness throughout the large playing base of males within our league," said Tregear.

"An increase in awareness will hopefully result in regular testing and early detection, and we hope that the establishment of this partnership will help save lives out in the west."

The night will also feature a number of auctions & raffles with all proceeds going to the Foundation.

Lyn McLeod, WRFL Events Coordinator, said that a number of local businesses had already joined the WRFL as partners for the night, however the league was still looking for donations.

Supporting
Prostate Cancer Awareness for Mens Health

"We have had great support from many local businesses & organizations, including football clubs from St Albans at a local level through to North Melbourne in the AFL," said McLeod.

"We've also had many businesses jump on board from all parts of Melbourne, from Tigers Clubhouse in Werribee through to Esprit Day Spa in the city."

"Everyone is coming together for this great cause and we look forward to handing a cheque to the Foundation at the end of the evening on behalf of the league and the greater community in Melbourne's west."

The WRFL & EJ Whitten Foundation Partnership Launch is being held on the evening of Saturday 13th August at Robert Bruce Reserve. Tickets are $70 per person or $550 for a table of eight. For bookings, donations or enquires please contact Lyn McLeod at the WRFL on 03 9315 5400 or L.McLeod@wrfl.asn.au.

DIVISION TWO (U18)

Proudly Sponsored by Werribee Tigers Football Club

Wyndhamvale nearly pulled off one of the upsets of the season last weekend, giving ladder leaders Point Cook a good run for their money before falling short by 24 points. In a low scoring affair the sixth placed Falcons were in front at the long change, however a few missed opportunities in the third term let the Bulldogs sneak in front, before running out four goal winners.

Despite their positive showing Wyndhamvale are still sitting outside the five and thankfully for the Falcons are still alive in Season 2011 following Parkside's shock loss to Caroline Springs. Literally guaranteed a spot in the finals with a win, Parkside went into the final change 17 points in front having kept the Lakers scoreless in the third term. However a stunning four goal to none final quarter from Caroline Springs saw the second bottom team sneak home by five points, with Parkside now no certainty to claim that fifth finals spot.

The upsets continued at Robert Bruce Oval with Albanvale drawing level with Deer Park in second place on the ladder after a 23 point win, while Hoppers Crossing outlasted Altona by 135 points.

The logjam at the top of the ladder continues with Point Cook sitting four games clear but Deer Park, Albanvale & Hoppers Crossing all tied on points below.

The next three weeks will see these sides jostle for positions as they try to avoid an elimination final in week one of the finals, and this weekend all will be aiming to secure a vital four points.

Deer Park will receive their four points courtesy of the bye, which means Albanvale will need to defeat Parkside and Hoppers Crossing will need to knock off Wyndhamvale.

As mentioned earlier both their opponents are just as desperate to win as they search for a spot in the finals, and therefore there should be some entertaining and very hard fought games this weekend.

In the other games this weekend, Caroline Springs should come crashing down to earth after their win last weekend as they host ladder leaders Point Cook, while either the Altona or St Albans seconds will earn a rare win in what has been a tough season when the sides clash at Kings Park Reserve.

PADDY'S PROFILES

By Patrick Comerford

There would be very few people who have seen Albion play over the past two seasons who don't know of Todd Finco.

He has been a shining light for the Cats both at under-18's and senior level, and is the sort of footballer that everyone loves to watch. His talent is undeniable and his silky skills never fail to excite not just the Albion faithful but all football followers.

Finco first started at the club back in 1998, and as a junior made an instant mark on the league drawing numerous club & league accolades. Even back in under-12's Finco was a league Best & Fairest winner, and was setting alight junior fixtures on a Sunday out in the west.

Even back then one of his first coaches, Phil Savage, knew Finco would make a great senior footballer as even in his early junior days Finco had a natural talent & ability that made him an integral part of every side he was part of.

Now, at a senior level, Finco is both dominant overhead and around the packs, has a powerful kick to match and can dominate up forward and down back. Over the past couple of seasons he has shown teammates & opponents how reliable he really is, and even on an off day Finco somehow manages to turn things around by the end of the game.

Out at Parsons Reserve they say Finco has his good games, his great games and his excellent games, and while the non-Albion punters may think this sounds a little biased, I recommend you check out the number seven next time you see the seniors play.

Even last weekend the 19 year-old was best on ground in a game where he was almost the youngest player on the park, with his four goals and ten tackles not even doing his performance justice.

Senior coach Marcus Barclay labels Finco a 'dangerous weapon', mainly because of his versatility and his special 'x-factor'.

"He's so nonchalant in the way he approaches footy, he just cruises into training and his preparation before the game is very quiet," says Barclay.

"It's hard to match up on him because he's so quick and he's also tall. He's just constantly running blokes down from behind. It's just that perceived pressure that he puts on."

Finco's career is already littered with accolades including an Under 18A Premiership in 2009, a Reserves Premiership in 2009 and Senior A Grade Premiership in 2010.

Add to that his spot as full-forward in last year's WRFL Under-18 Team Of The Year, after kicking 58 goals in 12 games, and you can start to see how much of an impact the versatile Finco is having on the league.

Still yet to turn twenty and with so much football ahead of him, Finco may well evolve into one of the best born & bred one-club footballers that the league has seen for quite some time.
