COMMUNITY FOOTBALL

From The CEO

With junior finals now under way and the senior finals series almost upon us, it is a good time to recognise the enormous contribution made to the community fabric of the Western Region by WRFL football clubs, their members and supporters.

More than 20,000 players, officials and supporters attend every weekend at 110 home & away games. That adds up to well over 300,000 attendances across the home & away season alone. A further 25,000 plus attendances are expected over the combined junior and senior final series. Since our new website was launched in April this year, almost 58,000 "absolute unique visitors" have recorded 570,000 page views across the site.

The WRFL and its clubs contribute between $5 million and $10 million each year to the economic activity of Melbourne's west, not to mention the massive contributions to social cohesion and identity.

Unlike many other community football leagues, WRFL clubs do not charge admission fees to their home & away games. Our clubs pay their way through fund-raising, sponsorship and member fees. However, with direct costs of venue hire, security, umpires, awards etc totalling more than $80,000 incurred across the junior and senior finals, the modest admission fees charged for entry to finals games are essential to meet those costs.

All admission fees raised from the finals series are directed to the payment of costs; and to reducing fees that would otherwise be charged to clubs by the League. We thank our loyal supporters for their involvement in their respective clubs, and for their individual contributions through admission fees.

Community spirit and activity extends far wider than the games of football. Gatekeepers at all WRFL finals are unpaid volunteers who give their time and effort to raise funds for local service and sporting clubs. Gatekeepers this year include volunteers from Altona North Cricket Club, West Footscray and Hoppers Crossing Rotary Clubs, North Sunshine Football Club and Old Westbourne Football Club. Patrons are asked to extend cooperation and understanding to these volunteers who perform vital roles without personal reward.

Finals venue host clubs also perform essential catering and ground management roles, again through the unpaid efforts of volunteers. Our thanks to Old Westbourne, Laverton Magpies, Sunshine Heights, Altona and Yarraville Seddon Eagles Football Clubs for their efforts in hosting at various venues for the 2011 finals series.

Congratulation to all WRFL clubs, not only for a successful season of football in 2011 but also for the wider contributions to community development in the West. While we will honour the premiership teams and individual award winners with trophies and pennants, the contributions of every individual should be recognised and applauded.

PADDY'S PROFILES

Pele Manivong (Altona Juniors)

Pele Manivong grew up playing many sports but struggled to find one he was good at. He tried many and didn't enjoy any, until he started to play Auskick at the age of eight. From there he was hooked and his love of the game quickly evolved.

A current member of the Altona Vikings Under-16A side, Manivong recalls those early days as some of his favourite seasons as a footballer.

"Those first few years I had some really good times," Manivong explains.

"Like so many others my age I loved to kick goals, and I remember this one day in particular I kicked sixteen goals playing full-back and the coach thought I was a little hero so he gave me a challenge and put me on a really tight angle on the boundary line."

"I remember his exact words 'only champions can kick these goals'. Funnily enough I used to practice snap goals in my hallway everyday and when I put it right through the middle he didn't know where to look!"

Over the past few seasons Manivong has evolved from a good player to a great player and it was around Under-11 level where he started to emerge as one of the league's premier junior players.

"I wouldn't say I've always been a very strong player, but I started to develop at Under-11's when I won my first WRFL Best & Fairest Award," says Manivong.

From there Manivong has achieved many club & league accolades, and in 2009 was part of Altona's Under-14A Premiership side. It was his first flag, and after many had written-off his beloved Vikings they ended up sneaking home in the decider by a solitary point.

On top of his club successes is his three WRFL Best & Fairest Awards, and yet again this season Manivong has lit up the Under-16A competition. Living up to the reputation he has forged over the past six years, Manivong has no doubt secured votes in nearly all of the Vikings' matches, leading his side through an undefeated home & away season in the league's premier junior competition. And this year, like his early days, he also has no hesitation slotting goals from any angle! Manivong is both a humble and hardworking footballer, and explains that his family has been the main contributor to his success on the football field.

"My family has given me so much support in my life, in particular my parents for all the encouragement and sacrifices they've made driving me throughout the state sometimes at six in the morning," says Manivong.

"I really owe them so much. Especially my father who has given up so much time to go down to the local park over the years and help develop my strengths and work on my weaknesses. Sometimes we would spend hours on end doing the same drill. I used hate it but as I got older I look back and love everything he did for me. He is a really great father and it shows that all he wants me to do is succeed."

In the next few weeks Manivong aims to guide his Vikings to another Premiership, and then aims to progress through the ranks to eventually play in the AFL. And based on his form, training ethic and his natural ability – there is little doubt Manivong's already well on his way to making it at the highest level possible.

NATIONAL SUCCESS

Pele Manivong Makes His Mark

He's got a name made for football greatness. Possibly not with an oval shaped ball, but young Pele Manivong has long been aware that his given name resonates worldwide with footballing excellence. However rather than living in the shadow of his namesake, the Altona Juniors youngster is quickly starting to forge his own name in the football world, and following his selection on the Victorian side at the National Championships last month, the fifteen year-old may well also become a household name in the not to distant future.

One of five Maribyrnong Secondary College students to make the School Sport Victoria Metropolitan Football Squad, Manivong travelled to Canberra a fortnight ago to represent Victoria in the Under-15 competition. The Championships has been a great career launching pad for some of the AFL's best players such as Chris Judd, Luke Ball and Jobe Watson, and yet again a number of potential draftees were in action in the nation's capital.

All the successful players were originally nominated by their schools in April, and after a series of tryouts a preliminary squad of sixty was released before being culled to twenty-five over a series of practice games. The Championships involved state teams from all over Australia competing against each other in a round-robin format, while providing players the opportunity to showcase their abilities in front of AFL talent scouts.

Manivong contributes part of his selection on the team to his tutelage in the Maribyrnong Secondary College accelerated sports program, and explains that the school's elite AFL program has played a major part in his development as a footballer.

"My involvement with the Maribyrnong College program has assisted with my football in so many ways," Manivong explains.

"It has given me the skills that I've always wanted to develop, and the classes that we have there are highly rated in developing not only our physical side of the game but our mental state as well. Even the little things like thinking about what your thought process when taking a shot for goal, helps you so much on the field."

"I'll always be grateful to Maribyrnong for what they've done for me and I advise any kid who's willing to go that step further and wants to make it to the highest level of footy should go there."

The involvement of some elite current & former players at the school has also guided the youngster on his quest to play football at the highest level possible, and Manivong credits Mitch Hahn, Leon Harris, Andrew Komp & Brad Johnson as key mentors in his footballing journey.

As well as getting the opportunity to put himself on display to AFL talent scouts at the recently completed Championships, his participation has also helped Manivong develop as a footballer through invaluable gametime playing on the best junior footballers in the land.

"Playing at this high level of football has given me the opportunity to play with future draft prospects, and I absorbed everything I could during my time in Canberra," Manivong explains.

Now back in Melbourne, Manivong is back at training and is even more motivated to try to make it all the way to the top.

"Now that I'm back from the Championships I'm back doing the thing in my life which I love the most, which is playing football," says Manivong.

"I know it's going to be a long road but I'm prepared for every challenge along this exciting journey. I'm sure this experience will teach me a lot of what I have to be prepared for and will have to set some more goals to achieve my dream."

DIVISION ONE

By Leigh Eustace

It's the last chance for the Warriors to qualify for the finals today when they host St Albans at Hogans Road. Hoppers Crossing currently lie in sixth with eight and a half wins, a game and a half off the fifth-placed Port Colts. The situation is simple, the Warriors need to win both games whilst Port Colts need to drop both as well.

Whilst relying on other results can be demoralising from the start, there's no room to have that mindset and Hoppers need to go out and leave nothing behind them in their attempt to sneak into the five at the last minute.

It's an equally important game for the Saints however, after copping a big loss last week at the hands of the Vikings who subsequently reclaimed third spot, which in reality has been rightly deserved this season.

St Albans will need to bounce back and bounce back hard with games against the Warriors then Port Colts to round off the home and away season.

With last week's loss, the Saints need to avoid dropping too many more otherwise instead of heading into the finals buoyed by an encouraging year, they will merely be limping in with the appearance of making up the numbers.

We finally had the nerve to label St Albans legitimate in recent weeks, they need to prove to themselves over this next fortnight that the tag was correct.

Altona is definitely legitimate with their eyes locked on finishing third but today host a spirited Port Colts who have a tough run in against third and fourth in consecutive weeks. These two games will be like mini-finals, good form now could be the catalyst for a big finals scalp come the post-season.

Our final three games of the year's penultimate round sees Albion visit Glenorden, Spotswood trek to North Footscray and Sunshine take on local rivals Sunshine Heights at Ainsworth Reserve.

GIRLS COMPETITION KICKS-OFF

Junior Girls Enjoying Inaugural Season

The Western Region Football League's Under-12 Girls Competition is up and running, with over fifty juniors currently taking part in the league's first-ever 'girls only' competition.

Two rounds into a six round season, the league has four teams now in action with players representing Wyndhamvale, Altona Juniors, Deer Park & Melbourne University. Junior females from all throughout the west have been involved, with new players assigned a 'home' club based on their residential location.

All clubs taking part have a Youth Girls team, and these girls have been heavily involved in the pilot program in roles as coaches & mentors. Similarly the WRFL umpiring department has supplied two senior umpires each week, who have been specifically chosen for their knowledge of junior football and their ability to impart their advice and assistance to all girls while officiating in an enthusiastic and supportive manner.

David Newton, Football Operations Manager for the Western Region Football League, said the pilot program was an important step in the league's push to make Australian Rules Football inclusive for all juniors.

"The Western Region Football League is one of only five suburban football leagues to run a competition targeted specifically towards junior girls, and its great to see so many first-time participants in action over the past fortnight," said Newton.

"This is the first time junior girls in the west have been given the opportunity to play in a female-only environment, and we believe this will encourage a considerable number of females to take up the game in future years."

"Our aim is to have an Under-12 female competition as part of the Western Region Football League, and this pilot program will hopefully lead into the establishment of a competition in 2012."

Chyloie Kurdas, Female Football Development Manager at AFL Victoria, said the league's Under-12 competition was an important part of an all-inclusive footballing strategy.

"This competition completes the female pathway for girls & women to play our game," said Kurdas.

"AFL Victoria believes it's important to provide girls with an all female space to play & enjoy the game."

"This competition is primarily geared towards developing our game to a standard where in ten years time we have a national televised female competition, and these girls will be the foundation of this competition."

The competition was launched following the 'Girls Come & Try Day' last month, and is aimed at junior girls aged between 9-12 years. The girls play modified games, with rules, ground sizes & team sizes adjusted to cater for playing numbers & standards.

Players are still welcome to join the league for the remaining four rounds, with games running on Saturday afternoons at JJ Holland Park in Kensington from 1.00pm.

For further information please contact the WRFL on 9315 5400 or contact Football Operations Manager, David Newton (d.newton@wrfl.asn.au).

DIVISION TWO

By Leigh Eustace

The final round of the year is upon us, however many storylines are yet to play out before the finals action kicks off in seven days time.

Deer Park, atop of the ladder, a perfect fifteen from fifteen so far, are four quarters away from completing a rare perfect season.

With donuts currently occupying their draw and loss columns, pride is on the line when the Lions have the chance to seal the season from heaven, but with an added twist.

To do so they have to conquer second place, the main challenger to grand final glory, their most fiercest of rivals, Albanvale.

The Cobras have had a comparable season, albeit two wins and significant percentage behind, but have the capabilities and the internal belief that when it comes to the crunch & the pointy end of the season, they can knock off the minor premiers. Is today the day, or will that day come in future weeks. We shall wait and see with great interest.

Parkside today takes on West Footscray and will look to lock up third position and a chance to reacquaint with Albanvale in the Qualifying Final next week having knocked them off only weeks ago.

The Magpies could very well sneak into a Second Semi-Final showdown with Deer Park in a fortnights time, and it all starts with consolidating third position today against the Roosters.

Coburg Districts meanwhile has a rehearsal to the first week of the finals when they take on Wyndhamvale. Fifth hosting fourth, both teams are destined to meet in an elimination final next week.

If the Lions win, they'll host next week's replay looking good to a replicate the result. If the Falcons win, they'll host next week's final at home as strong favourites - so much is at stake.

Our final two games of the season will see Braybrook take on Laverton, while North Sunshine have their final chance to try to earn their first four points in four years against newcomers Caroline Springs. While the Lakers are already looking to 2012, it would be a major backwards step for the newly formed club if the succumbed to the Roadrunners this weekend.

RESULTS

JUNIOR FUN DAY

End Of Season Celebrations

The football season came to a close for more than one-thousand Western Region Football League juniors last weekend, when the league staged its annual Junior Fun Day simultaneously at three venues across the western suburbs.

An end of season celebration for parents & kids after many early morning starts throughout the winter months, the events were staged at North Footscray, North Sunshine & Flemington Juniors, with nearly fifty teams taking part. Each team played three games each in a round-robin format, with some extra activities and BBQ's adding to the festival atmosphere.

Tim Shellcot, WRFL Club Development Officer, said the day was a great success, mainly as a result of the great effort of the hosting clubs.

"Without the input of all three clubs, two of which put their hands up at the last minute, the day would not have been able to go ahead," said Shellcot.

"Flemington Juniors & North Sunshine stepped in at very late notice, and all clubs involved put an innovative spin on their own event."

"Flemington Juniors structured the day with four simultaneous games, keeping twice as many kids engaged throughout the morning."

"North Footscray yet again put their hand up to host the event - and the extras such as face-painting & fairy floss were very well received by all participants."

"North Sunshine had the biggest day of all with clubs arriving early in the morning to setup their marquees and BBQ's, with each club making it a real end of season celebration."

The Western Region Football League's junior competition has seen significant growth over the past decade, and the number of juniors involved on the day is testament to the success of local Auskick programs in the west.

"A decade ago the league had less than ten Under-9 teams running around on a Sunday morning, whereas this season we've got more than 25 teams in action," said Shellcot.

"It is great to see so many juniors continuing to take up our game in a time when kids have such a range of sports to choose from."

TRUE TEAM LOYALTY

Youngster Chooses Mates Over Malthouse

When it comes to commitment to your teammates, it's hard to look past young Luka Domic who runs around on a Sunday morning for the West Footscray Under 10's.

A couple of weeks ago the youngster won the opportunity to spend a day at the MCG with Mick Malthouse & Alastair Clarkson – two premiership coaches who will no doubt be in action deep into September.

Unfortunately the event clashed with the side's Sunday morning match, and as the team's assistant coach Greg Parsons explains, the side was expecting to be one down for the morning.

"We haven't 'won' a game all season & have hardly kicked any goals, and we knew that Luka had won this opportunity to go to the MCG so we presumed that he wouldn't be able to play," says Parsons.

"Our coach & I were then gob smacked when we arrived at our game to see Luka there."

"We asked his father if it the day with the coaches had been cancelled and he shrugged his shoulders and said 'no, he just wants to play footy with the boys'."

"All week he had been undecided what he wanted to do, but in the end he decided to play with us! We could not believe it!"

"Luka is in his first season of footy, has not missed a training session all season, is the first kid there every night, never mucks around and is one of our players that sticks to his player in a game."

It is this loyalty and commitment to his side that typifies the positive influence the ten year-old has on the rest of his team, and despite their lack of success on the field the entire team has thoroughly enjoyed their season of football.

With many young players in the side, the team looks to build on what for many has been their first season of football, and along with Luka aim to post a few more wins on the board in Season 2012.

UMPIRES CORNER

By Graeme Hodgart

Every Wednesday the umpires have a meeting at Scovell Reserve. It is held after the training session and isn't all that long. Training starts out on the track at 5:30 pm for the goal umpires. I know what people are thinking and that is, "Do goal umpires really train?" Yes, they do and it does include some running!

The field and boundary umpires begin their training a little bit later and it does cover lots of running and also some sprinting. There are quite a few very fit field and boundary umpires running around the various grounds. Of course, umpires are people. They come in very many various sizes and shapes. Fitness levels also vary. By about 7 pm all the umpires are either nearly or are off the track. Most have a shower and also something to eat and drink.

Raffle tickets are sold and the umpires find a seat. Shane Carland then takes the stage and speaks to the umpires. Last week he spoke about the attitude that umpires take into games. He emphasized the need to be switched on and ready for the rigors of the match. Shane also mentioned that it was important to protect the ball player and make clear decisions. It was important to pay the obvious free kicks and remember to look behind play. Shane indicated that it was a little disappointing that, on the eve of the finals, it appeared that overall "our intensity is down". Obviously, there were a few umpires who were just taking things too easy and not over extending or challenging themselves on the field. Numbers were good, said Shane, and that meant that several had been dropped to a lower grade. They would now have to work much harder to be promoted in the near future.

Prior to Shane's meeting the goalies had already had their own little session. The talk had centered on the junior finals especially in relation to co-operation between umpires.

It was mentioned that many of the junior field umpires in the finals will be operating with official goal umpires for the first time. There may be issues regarding the giving and the not giving of the "All clear" in games.

The goalies were told that they may have to speak to some of the field umpires about giving the all clear verbally. It was also important for the field umpires to make visual contact with the goal umpires so that they both knew what was happening. The goalies were told to discuss this matter quietly and calmly and remember that all umpires are a part of the team and should be treated with respect.

Hopefully by this stage of the year, the majority of the umpires, field, boundary and goal, are traveling at an optimum level. Most should be at the peak of their physical fitness while the learning processes for the 'newer' umpires are well and truly over.

It is now time for the cream to rise to the surface, put up their hand and be selected for the final games of the season. These will lead them to the finals when only the best will be called upon to umpire.

There was some great news from last week's appointments. The Umpiring Academy at Mackillop College, which has been operating for just three years, has produced its first Division 1 senior umpire. Michael Westgarth (field umpire) officiated with Matt Harvey at the Sunshine and North Footscray game. Congratulations, Michael. Hopefully, it will be the first of many games. Also the WRFL is hoping that over the next few years there will be more of the students taking on umpiring and reaching the highest level in our local football association.

DIVISION ONE (U18)

Proudly Sponsored by Werribee Tigers Football Club

It was a full weekend on football in Division One last round, with all teams in action in a rare four-game round. For Altona it was their last real dip for the home & away season, as the team now heads into a fortnight off as they start to prepare for the finals, and they ran out comfortable four goal winners over third-placed St Albans.

The Vikings' fate now lies in the hands of the Warriors, who will secure the minor premiership and the week off with wins in the final two rounds. Just one slip-up however will see the Warriors finish no higher than second, and therefore wins against St Albans and Sunshine are of paramount importance before the side switches its focus to September.

Last weekend Hoppers Crossing knocked off fourth-placed Spotswood, the result not a bad one for the Woodsmen who have given the Warriors a decent challenge both times they have met this season.

In other games Albion secured their spot in the finals with a 162 point win over Sunshine Heights, while Sunshine cruised home against North Footscray despite now being mathematically out of finals contention in Season 2011.

With the Hoppers Crossing & St Albans fixture the drawcard match of the round, the other games in Division One have Spotswood travelling to North Footscray and Sunshine tackling across suburb rivals Sunshine Heights.

While the top three sides in the competition appear streets ahead of the rest, a classic Elimination Final is brewing with Spotswood & Albion guaranteed to meet in the first week of the Senior Finals Series.

Spotty have hit a rough patch of form, and since the start of July have only recorded one win, while Albion will go into the finals with a likely three consecutive 100 point wins having knocked off Sunshine by 109, Sunshine Heights by 162, and a fixture against the winless North Footscray awaiting in the final round.

That said it wouldn't be the WRFL finals without a classic Spotty v Albion fixture, and both teams will no doubt already be eyeing one another off as they aim to make their finals appearance more than just a one week showing.

PM CELEBRATES TIGERS WIN

Werribee Closer To Securing Second Chance

Prime Minister Julia Gillard was a special guest at Avalon Airport Oval last weekend, as she watched her beloved Tigers go one step closer to securing a double chance after overcoming Bendigo by nine points.

Despite her Western Bulldogs allegiances, Gillard is an avid fan of her 'home-town' team, and it was Ben McKinley who impressed Australia's first female Prime Minister with three crucial goals in the last quarter as the Tigers staved off a dogged Bendigo side.

McKinley kicked five for the match, but it was Majak Daw who, deep into the last quarter, kicked a superb running goal that mirrored his Victoria Park effort in round three to put Werribee 14 points up and seal the result.

A McKinley goal early in the third quarter gave Werribee a 21-point lead – the biggest margin of the day – but the persistent Bombers dominated the quarter and if not for poor kicking for goal, should have been more than two points up at the last break.

Bendigo kicked the first two goals of the second quarter but Werribee's Travis Tuck was instrumental in wresting back control. He kicked a steady goal and his clearance work was crucial as the Tigers kicked another two goals in quick succession.

Bendigo kicked four goals and seven behinds in the third quarter while the Tigers kicked two goals straight.

Midway through the last quarter, prolific goalkicker Matthew Little, who was kept relatively quiet, put the Bombers five points in front, before two Bendigo players spoiled each other in marking contest, resulting in a quick counter-attack finished off with a goal to McKinley.

Werribee hold on to fourth spot and have opened a four point gap to Northern Bullants, and is two games ahead of Bendigo and Casey. Despite having a bye this week and a tough final two games against Casey and North Ballarat, the Tigers look to be in the best position to secure fourth place.

WILLIAMSTOWN WIN INAUGURAL CUP

Seagulls Now Australia's Premier State League Team

Williamstown's Foxtel Cup grand final victory against Claremont was not just a glowing endorsement for the club and the VFL, but of the inaugural state league knock-out competition.

The Seagulls defeated a persistent Claremont side by 21 points at Perth's Paterson Stadium, in a top-class encounter between two of the strongest second-tier sides in Australia.

Williamstown vice-captain Ben Jolley, who was rested in the semi-final, won the Coles medal for best-on-ground with his dominant 30-possession performance.

The match threatened to be a blow-out when Williamstown opened up a three-goal lead in the second quarter of the shortened format game, but Claremont dramatically lifted its intensity in the third term, implementing a full press which momentarily rattled Williamstown.

The Tigers got within five points of Williamstown at the last break, but the Seagulls showed immense resolve and a greater ability to run out the game to break the shackles and kick away in the last quarter.

Christian Howard kicked the first goal of the last quarter at the eight-minute mark with his second conversion from beyond 50, which was followed by a goal to Jordan Roughead, who ran into space and received the ball from Brett Goodes.

Fittingly, Nathan Djerrkura, who set up so many of Williamstown's attacks, kicked the final goal of the match to put the game beyond doubt.

"It was a good win for the boys as we knew it was going to be a hot day and we knew we would need a fast game today, and all the boys had a role to play and they did it really well," said Djerrkura.

"The midfield boys did a great job and set up all the forwards."

Roughead shouldered most of the ruck duties and led the midfield brigade, while Matthew Panos held down centre-half back with aplomb and Mitch Wallis was busy with 19 disposals.

Williamstown general manager Brendan Curry was said he was thrilled with the side's effort to respond when challenged, particularly after the previous week's gut-wrenching two-point loss to North Ballarat.

"The week before we dominated the last quarter and didn't get it on the scoreboard against North Ballarat," he said.

"So when Claremont came at us in the third quarter... and to our blokes' credit, they stood tall and went on to kick the three goals in the last quarter, which we just thought was an outstanding effort."

"To stand up and win the cup, to me that's great for the confidence of the overall group and the football club."

SUCCESS REAPS REWARDS

Charity To Benefit From Foxtel Cup Win

There is no better time for Williamstown Football Club to launch their charity project than this week, as the Seagulls return from Perth with the Inaugural Foxtel Cup in their possession.

Coming off what would be considered their biggest match of the season, they now enter their second blockbuster in as many weeks as they host the undefeated Port Melbourne at Avalon Airport Oval.

The day will also double as the launch of their major charity project, as the club's Liam Picken Academy players raise funds and awareness for youth homelessness charity Ladder, which is managed by the AFL Players Association.

All Williamstown players will donate a portion of their match payments to the charity, and 50 per cent of gate takings will also be donated.

Ladder will also receive funds raised through an auction at the president's luncheon and through players rattling tins on the day.

First and second year players in the club's development program have been working on raising awareness of the underexposed charity as part of their Certificate III in Sport.

"The big problem they've got is funding, so they want to promote themselves and hopefully get some more funding through that," second year player Ed Carr said.

"So we're looking at our clubs sponsors helping at."

Players learnt about the charity after former Essendon player and Ladder CEO Mark Bolton spoke to the club about Ladder's role and its goal to expand beyond Victoria and SA.

Since then, the players have sought the help of club sponsors for funding, engaged the mainstream and social media and are creating a documentary about the short history of Ladder. They have set a fundraising target of $10,000.

Williamstown football manager Chris Dixon said the players in the development academy were keen to make a difference.

"I think the one thing that really twigged with our playing list was the difference that football can make in the community following on from the great work Mark Bolton and other AFL players have done with Ladder," Dixon said.

AFL Player's Association CEO Matt Finniss will be the guest speaker at the club's president's luncheon on the Saturday and will speak about some of the work Ladder does in the community with disadvantaged youngsters.

To book a seat at the for the president's luncheon, call Norhana Stipic on 9391 0309. For other inquires about the charity project, contact Chris Dixon on 9391 0309, or cdixon@williamstownfc.com.au.

DIVISION TWO (U18)

Proudly Sponsored by Werribee Tigers Football Club

The final round of the home & away season is already upon us, and the only uncertainty that remains in the Division Two competition is if Parkside can do the unthinkable and knock-off the Warriors to sneak past Wyndhamvale into the five. It's the only result that will determine the make-up of the finals – as Point Cook have already booked the week off, Deer Park and Albanvale will meet in the Qualifying Final, and Hoppers Crossing will finish in fourth.

Parkside & Hoppers Crossing have only met once this season and on that occasion Parkside were outclassed by the Warriors by fifty points. A similar result is on the cards and while Hoppers Crossing don't have much to play for, if they were to lose to the Magpies they would obviously meet them again in week one of the finals and for momentums-sake it wouldn't be a favourable result for the Warriors.

Despite the remaining games largely being dead-rubbers there is a bit of interest around the league today with the local derby between Albanvale & Deer Park the pick of the bunch. It could be a cracking fixture, or possibly the side's will keep their cards close to their chests – as there is no way either can pass Point Cook, or be passed by Hoppers Crossing, and with a re-match looming in a week's time there may be a small bit of gamesmanship on show.

A blow out will be on the cards as ladder-leaders Point Cook host wooden-spooners St Albans, and given the Saints lost by over 100 points to the second bottom side last weekend this scoreline could get very messy.

In Round Two it was 151 points, and one wouldn't be surprised if the margin what was upwards of 200 this time around given Point Cook have a week off next weekend and don't need to rest players.

The final game of the round is the battle for seventh spot between Altona & Caroline Springs. For the winner, seventh spot awaits, and for the loser eighth, and while this might seem insignificant, for many of these boys it will be their last game in age-group footy. As such there will be plenty of spirit & fight on show as they aim to end their junior careers on a high.
