FEMALES IN FOOTY

From The Editor

If you think Australian rules football is a game played by boys – think again! Female participation in Australian football has been on the rise for many years, with over 90,000 female participants playing the game Australia wide. There are also over 35,000 female volunteers, 1,500 accredited female coaches, and thousands more girls & women fulfilling other roles on a Saturday or Sunday afternoon, ensuring our game is one enjoyed by men, women, boys & girls.

In fact female participation is increasing at such an exponential rate, that for the past five years it has been the fastest growing section of our game. The Western Region Football League has embraced this growth, and in 2012 has launched both a Youth Girls & Junior Girls competition. It is the first time a junior league in metropolitan Melbourne has established a competition specifically for female players, and in last weekend's inaugural round over fifty girls took part in the first week of WRFL Youth Girls Football. Female teams have been established at Altona Juniors, Deer Park, Old Westbourne, St Albans & Wyndhamvale, giving junior females in all pockets of the western suburbs an opportunity to be involved.

While the league has had junior females playing in our lower age-groups for many years now, this step of establishing a Youth Girls & Junior Girls competition is still a significant milestone for our league. Providing a 'female-only' environment will undoubtedly encourage many first-time female players to take up the game, and ultimately complete the pathway through the junior ranks to what the AFL hopes to be a nation-wide national televised female competition within the next ten years. These girls that are putting on the boots for the first time over the coming weeks may well be the foundation of this proposed national competition.

Over the past decade the football landscape in the west has undergone a severe overhaul and welcomed females into the game as umpires, coaches, administrators & match-day staff. With the introduction of a female-only playing space, the league has also now welcomed females into the game as players as well. A cornerstone in this overhaul has been to ensure the provision of a safe, supportive and inclusive club & match-day environment, and we look forward to continuing to promote our league as a 'female-friendly' competition, and to welcoming more females into all areas of our great game.

Spotswood Firm As Flag Favourites

Spotswood dealt Deer Park a lesson in Division One football last weekend after trouncing the newly promoted Lions by 118 points at Kings Park Reserve.

In what had been billed as a clash of the premiers, Jason Cloke slammed home nine goals for Spotty as the Woodsmen confirmed their status as benchmark of the competition. It was a sever reality check for the Lions who had undoubtedly been buoyed by their 15-goal thrashing of St Albans in the first round.

Spotswood coach Chris O'Keefe said that his side's pressure around the ball was the difference, and was the key factor in moving the ball into the forward line.

"I think that our pressure around the ball, trying to make sure that the guys were under pressure certainly helped," said O'Keefe.

"We were able to stem the flow and give our backmen a chance and obviously on the flipside of that the way we moved the ball into our forward line, I was pretty pleased with that as well."

Vice-captain Dylan Ayton was the lynchpin of Spotswood's hard-to-crack defence.

"His workrate was enormous. He had a heap of one per centers," O'Keefe said.

"I think he had 20 one-per centers which is something that we rate very highly. That's certainly the highest in the last couple of years in one single game."

It was the Lions' first loss since 2010, after handing out so many thrashings of their own over the past twelve months including a 15-goal opening round win over the highly-fancied St Albans.

Deer Park, last year's Division Two premier, was without key players James Condos and Chris Stewart, and was simply no match for the Woodsmen, who had the game in control from the get-go.

While O'Keefe said it was impossible to gauge where the team was at after two rounds, the Woodsmen could not have asked for a better start to the season.

"You can't really take too much out of the games at the moment. You've got to wait until you play everybody once and get feel for where we're at and what lies ahead in the second half of the year."

Woodsmen coach Chris O'Keefe said despite Deer Park had plenty of upside, despite the heavy loss.

"They looked really dangerous at times. They had plenty of the footy, they won it well and they moved the ball well," he said.

"Obviously they had a couple of their key players missing, but that's the just the way it is. The 22 you put out on the field have got to do the job.

"They're certainly going to win more games than they lose."

EXPERIENCING THE INNER-SANCTUM

Local Umpires Invited To Join AFL Elite

The Western Region Football League continues to develop its local umpiring ranks, with four local juniors invited to take part in an AFL initiative to experience the inner sanctum of the umpire's rooms during the NAB Cup.

Four local juniors, Shannon Colgan, Shamus Dundon, Stefan Bjelosevic & Ryan Webster were selected to attend the event at the Hawthorn vs Melbourne clash at Etihad Stadium.

Upon arrival at the ground the junior WRFL umpires were escorted by the match manager into the umpire's rooms beneath the bowels of Etihad Stadium where they initially met with the four field umpires including AFL regulars Shane McInerney & Chris Kamolins.

The WRFL team were invited to listen in as the AFL field umpires were addressed by two of their coaches, former AFL umpires Rowan Sawyers & Adam Davis.

"The key message given to the umpires was to at all times protect the ball player, be open minded & not pre-conceive what might happen, worry about those issues you can control, always endeavor to be in the right position, work the angles & try to be side on to the contest," said WRFL junior umpire Ryan Webster.

After hearing the coaches address the field umpires it was off into another room where the boundary & goal umpires were getting ready.

"It appeared much more relaxed in here & it was amusing seeing the Fox Footy technicians fitting goal umpire Chelsea Roffey's body with an array of equipment needed to power the glasses with an inbuilt camera that she was trialing," said Webster.

"It is important that the umpires work as a team out on the ground and as such they are wired up, enabling them to communicate with one another." As the umpires entered the arena they were joined by the WRFL umpires who were given the opportunity to warm up out on the ground, watching first hand as the AFL umpires practiced their bouncing in the centre of the ground.

After the game the WRFL umpires were given the chance to head down into the umpire's rooms where they listened as the coaches debriefed the umpires, highlighting instances where improvement could be made, but by and large were satisfied with the display.

"It was interesting to see that the AFL umpires have to complete much the same of paperwork as with the WRFL, including match report, substitution cards & score-cards," said Webster.

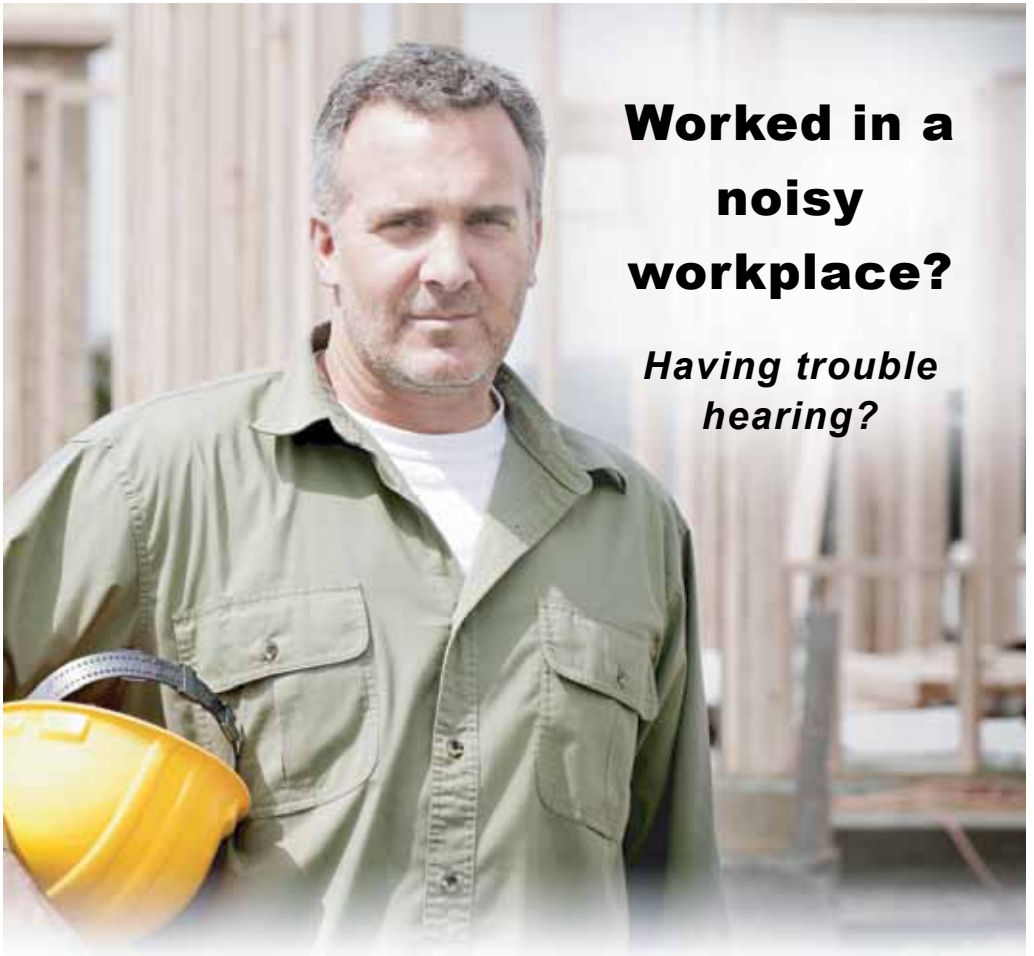

Shane McInerney then spoke at length about the positives associated with umpiring & encouraged the WRFL umpires to stick with it, provided it was something they enjoyed.

"We were all extremely excited by the experience & made several observations that will hopefully help with our own umpiring," said Webster.

"They all appeared extremely relaxed prior to the game, were extremely pleased with the manner in which the newer umpires were accepted into the group, the camaraderie seemed extremely tight knit, everything seemed extremely organized, we were made to feel extremely welcome, it was nice to put some faces to names & it was an absolute honour to be selected to represent the WRFL umpires."

"Obviously opportunities like this don't just happen and all of us would like to pass on our sincere appreciation to the AFL Umpire's Department, in particular Neville Nash, the WRFL Umpire's Association & the WRFL."

Proudly Sponsored By Prestige Group

With Spotswood continuing to set the pace at the top of the Division One ladder, it was a welcome four points for their fellow Grand Finalists Albion last weekend, who overcame a gallant North Footscray side by 18 points.

A far cry from their dominant 2011 season which saw the Cats drop just one game in the home & away season, Albion did just enough against the persistent Devils to secure an important morale-boosting win and the first under new coach Mark Greenshields.

“Just to come out and have that first win at home was really important to get the season started,” said Greenshields.

“We were shown to be clearly a long way off the mark after last weekend. It was a very disappointing performance and the margin was unacceptable.”

Greenshields said that Spotswood had exposed several of the Cats’ weaknesses the week before, which they were slowly starting to rectify.

“Certainly our ball movement was one of them and certainly that was really much improved against North Footscray. I thought in general play we were really able to control the game. At no stage were we ever in control of the scoreboard unfortunately, but in general play it just felt like we were playing the better brand of footy right throughout the four quarters.”

“One of the issues we’ve had over preseason is obviously our departures but right from the first practice match we’ve been continually getting injuries week in week out, so yesterday we down to nineteen men at quarter time.”

Sam Stephens was magnificent for Albion, playing mostly in the midfield but pushing forward late in the game and finishing with four goals. His brother James was also among Albion’s best players, while another set of brothers, Brent and Matthew Davis, were also superb.

Meanwhile Sunshine are the surprise bolter of the Division One competition, with the Kangaroos enjoying their second win in as many weeks with a 64-point drubbing of the struggling St Albans. The win did come at a price though with Joseph Hedditch being sidelined halfway through the match, after a dominant first quarter in which he kicked four majors and helped set up a 20 point quarter time lead.

“We had a few injuries and had no bench so we dropped off in the second half, but we still won all four quarters so we were pretty happy overall with the day,” said Sunshine coach Brett Jacobs.

His brother Danny Jacobs was among Sunshine’s best players while Macauley Goring with four goals was a focal point when Hedditch was forced off the ground. Tom Millar and Jacob Koroneos worked well in the ruck, while Paul Sheehan was the most consistent performer over the four quarters.

St Albans sits second bottom with two significant losses and at this stage looks like it might struggle to make the five. Sunshine will face its biggest test when it faces the rampaging Spotswood this Saturday.

“We feel we’re in a better position than what we were last year to hopefully challenge them,” said Jacobs.

“They’re obviously a class outfit. We’re under no illusions as to how good they are and how well they’re going. It’s going to be a really difficult task this week and we’re excited by the challenge. If we can break even with them in the midfield, that’s a big start. Their midfield is outstanding, and they’ve got quality ruckman as well. That’s just one of many areas we need to be switched on about.”

DIVISION TWO

Hawks & Eagles Enjoy Flawless Start

A one sided round of football transpired on a cold Saturday afternoon last weekend with four games decided by more than fifty points. Glenorden continue to lead the charge at the top of the ladder, the Hawks now sitting at 3-0 after dishing out a 171 point defeat away at Laverton. Sam Rexhepi kicked nine goals for the Hawks and Rhys Bucktin four, with Nick Diker still yet to experience a loss at the helm of a new-look Glenorden side.

The other pace-setter at the top of the Division Two ladder is Yarraville Seddon, a side many had fancied as flag favourites prior to the start of the season. While many expected their match against Parkside to be a precursor for a meeting between the sides come finals times, it was instead a one-sided affair with David Connell's side kicking sixteen goals to six after half time to run out 96 points winners.

Connell attributed the side's positive start to the season with a number of changes in the off-season, predominantly the inclusion of a full time strength & conditioning coach, and the additions to both the coaching panel & playing group.

"A lot of changes have occurred over the off season with a new coaching panel in place and an influx of about 25 new players," said Connell.

"Whilst we are fairly happy where we are at as a group right now, we will be definitely playing our best football in the second half of the year as it will take time for everyone to gel and adapt to a new game plan."

"After a fantastic pre season, 2011 Best and fairest Beau Guest has been elevated to captain and Adam Baker will be his vice. Impressive starts for new players Craig Wells and Jason Harmes who have fit in really well and been added to the leadership group."

"All in all there is a real buzz around the club and things have gone to plan so far. The football club has been really good to me and the playing group has all tackled the new challenges head on. "

"Due to certain circumstances the club has under achieved on field over the past 3-4 years, 2012 is now time for this footy club to stand up and be counted for. No excuses!"

At the other end of the ladder, another fancied contender languishes just one spot above North Sunshine, with Wyndhamvale drawing blanks in their first two outings for 2012. Wayward kicking cost the side dearly in last weekend's match against Coburg Districts, with the side converting just six of their nineteen shots in front of goal.

Falcons playing football manager Nathan Evans said his side was in front in every area, except where it mattered.

"We had more scoring shots, more of the ball, more inside 50s, more tackles, we were just behind on the scoreboard, the one that counts," said Evans.

"Premierships aren't won in April. We're got a lot of the season to go and we still think we'll go all right. We've probably got to learn that we will be the hunted this year and not the hunters and it's something we've got to adapt to. Everyone saw our run coming into the finals and during finals last year, so the natural progression from most other clubs about us is to say that we'll be up there again."

UMPIRES CORNER

By Graeme Hodgart

You just have to get a few diehard football supporters from different AFL clubs together and after a while it will become obvious that they are disagreeing with each other on a few points. After a longer discussion it will probably emerge that there are some long standing rivalries that exist between certain clubs.

In times gone past there were rivalries between teams that shared the same ground or were geographically linked with each other. Just a few that spring to mind were Melbourne and Richmond, Essendon and Hawthorn or Carlton and Collingwood.

Nowadays the AFL schedules a whole round that is devoted to clubs that have a tradition rivalry with another AFL club. The concept is a good one as it looks into the historical background of clubs and boasts the idea of competition rather than hatred.

If you were to talk to players or officials at most of our WRFL clubs you would get a similar story. There are some obvious or not-so-obvious rivalries between certain clubs. It may have started from a bruising encounter one day or maybe a series of hard fought finals. People reading this column would be able to bring to mind some of the clubs that do indeed have a short or maybe even a long rivalry with each other.

A similar situation also occurs within the ranks of the umpires. A group of umpires might all be wishing to officiate at a certain game. It may be a game between two of the higher ranking teams or between teams that have a historical rivalry that exists. They hope that their form and their fitness will help them to achieve their goal.

The selection panel will eventually make their decision.

The same process will happen when the finals came along later in the season. Umpires have particular games or levels or goals that they are aiming at and so will their peers. The contest is not a bruising one but in the end, just like the physical games played out on the local suburban football grounds, there will be a winner, and of course, sadly a 'loser'.

The good news is that our umpiring numbers are swelling and more importantly there are many younger umpires coming on board. Of course there are the same 'old' faces still taking the field as umpires and it's great to see them still involved. Names that many will be familiar with are Henry McFerran, Terry O'Donnell, Graham Field, Terry McGarity, Geoff Tresidder, Paul Battaglia, Bob Wallace, just to name a few. Some of these guys have been umpiring for over thirty years and what a wonderful contribution they have made to local sport.

Some of the newer names to come to light over the last year or two in the WRFL umpiring ranks are Wade Millington, Matthew Walson, Cameron Rycroft, Shamus Dundon, Lachlan Matheson, Jacquie Loveridge, Luke Wilke and Josh Kerr. It will be interesting to see how many of these young umpires continue on the pathway of umpiring. Maybe some of them will still be involved in umpiring in the WRFL or possibly even higher in ten years time.

Only time will tell but it is good to know that our young umpires are being trained and coached to achieve personal growth and improve in all aspects of their fitness and umpiring. It was stated that officials from other leagues involved in the recent interleague games actually said that the WRFL umpires were the best by far. Hopefully the WRFL's field, boundary and goal umpires will continue to improve and impress in the years ahead.
