FUTURE DIRECTIONS PROJECT

Western & North Western Regions

AFL Victoria is looking for input from local Western and North West region clubs in Melbourne as part of a new project focusing on these areas. The Western and North West Regions Future Directions Project aims to provide recommendations regarding the best structure for future football competitions in the long term in these regions.

In consultation with the leagues operating within these regions, including the Western Region Football League, Essendon District Football League, and the Riddell District Football League, the Project will look at how to support sustainable clubs, focus on increasing participation at all levels, and maximizing the future growth potential of football within the area. This is a great opportunity for clubs to have a say in the future long term development of football in their region. The Western and North West regions of Melbourne being amongst the fastest growing regions in Australia are undergoing significant demographic changes, and we need to start planning to prepare for these changes.

This population growth provides both a great opportunity and a great challenge for football in terms of how it is best structured to accommodate a potential growing number of participants and clubs. These regions currently have relatively low participation levels when compared to other metropolitan regions, and we would like to receive feedback from local clubs on areas AFL Victoria can help work on in the future for these areas.

Clubs located in the Western and North West Regions have an opportunity to provide input into the project by either meeting with the project team or providing a written submission. Club consultation meetings will be conducted from June to September in Footscray, Essendon, Sunbury & Carlton.

Club representatives seeking to meet with the project team are to book in a meeting request by emailing Fiona Hicks at fiona.hicks@afvic.com.au by Tuesday 19th June. Clubs preferring to provide a written submission are requested to visit AFL Victoria's website to download a submission template to complete and email to AFL Victoria by 31st July. AFL Victoria looks forward to hearing and working with local clubs and leagues on this valuable project.

THE ULTIMATE FOOTY PRIZE

Supporting The EJ Whitten Foundation

As part of the Western Region Football League's community partnership with the EJ Whitten Foundation, the league is running the 'Ultimate Footy Prize' raffle in a lead-up to the 'EJ Whitten Legends Game'.

All WRFL member clubs will be invited to sell raffle tickets over the coming weeks, with a main prize of twelve seats in the 'Etihad Airlines Super Box' at Etihad Stadium for the EJ Whitten Legends Game on Tuesday 3rd July.

The prize includes venue admission for twelve adults, premium viewing from the Etihad Corporate Box on Level Two, as well as finger food, alcoholic beverages, & soft drinks for the duration of the game (valued at over $4500).

As an incentive to help promote this great cause, the club that sells the most tickets will also receive ten Tickets to the EJ Whitten Foundation Brownlow Medal Dinner at The Hilton on Monday 24th September. This includes a three course sit-down meal, five hours of alcoholic & non-alcoholic beverages, entertainment throughout the night & a live feed of the Brownlow medal count (value $1850).

This is the league's major fundraiser for our community partner the EJ Whitten Foundation, and we ask that all clubs & members get behind this great initiative.

The EJ Whitten Foundation is a leading men's health not-for-profit charity, established with the aim of raising funds for research into the disease & increasing the awareness of prostate cancer. As there are no symptoms in the early stages of prostate cancer, it is vital for a man to begin regular

A CHAMPION LOST

VALE: James Gagula

The Albanvale Football Club tragically lost one of its young loveable characters in James Gagula who died last Friday while surfing at Torquay. James had just turned 18, just two weeks earlier. Affectionately known as “Gags” or “Jimmy”, James had become an important member of the under 18’s at Albanvale over the last two seasons after spending his earlier years at St Albans Football Club. Jimmy made an immediate impact with his new teammates and the entire club. His solid athletic build and fearless attack on the ball from the Albanvale back-line drew attention every time he took the field. But he will be most remembered by all as the gentle giant with the constant cheeky smile. Jimmy’s teammates took to the field in honour of their teammate last round, just a day after receiving the news that they had lost one of the own.

In a win that defined the amazing spirit of the group of boys, the Cobra’s prevailed in the most trying of circumstances – a win dedicated to Jimmy, his family & those closest to him.

The Western Region Football League & Albanvale Football Club send their deepest sympathies to the Gagula family and share in their loss.

ANOTHER MCKENZIE SHINES

Jake McKenzie Impresses At National Carnival

After years of hard work, nothing was going to stop Jake McKenzie from making his debut for Vic Metro earlier this month, not even a stomach bug. The teenager may have been feeling under the weather going into the match and at every major break but as soon as the ball was bounced, white line fever took over.

Having been one of the Western Jets' best performers during the first seven rounds of the TAC Cup season, it was no surprise to anyone to again see McKenzie raise the bar in a fantastic debut. His run and carry off the backline helped Vic Metro stay within striking distance of the Northern Territory at TIO Stadium in Darwin until the home side eventually held on for the win.

"I just wanted to play that first game and now just try and hold my spot. Hopefully I've done that and we will see how I go from here," McKenzie said.

"It was pretty disappointing from the team point of view but I was happy with my own performance."

"I was playing a lockdown role and then running off half back. He (coach) wants me to beat my opponent first and then try and hurt them offensively with my kicking."

Seeing a McKenzie dominate on the big stage is nothing new for fans of the Western Jets who watched Jake's brother Trent before he was pre-listed by the Gold Coast in the 2010 draft.

Jake said it had been great to see his brother succeed at AFL level after putting in all the hard work.

"He is just an inspiration to me after seeing him go through what he's done from the under 18s," said McKenzie.

"It really inspires me to try and be like him. He is more of a winger but we both have that run from the middle of the ground to deliver to the forwards and try and hit them lace out."

Western Jets' coach Steve Kretiuik said he had been impressed with Jake, who had come along in leaps and bounds since putting in a tough pre-season.

"He has really been up there every week in our better

Jake McKenzie looks likely to follow in older brother Trent's footsteps and find his way onto an AFL list performers. We just hope he keeps improving so we can get him into the midfield a bit more and allow him to impact games in there as well," said Kretiuik.

"I think he plays his better footy off half back but I think for his own development he needs to expand his game into the midfield role and maybe even more as a half forward too."

In a great result for the Western Jets, McKenzie was joined in the Vic Metro best players by his TAC Cup captain Ashlin Brown. Kretiuik said he had seen a number of players perform well in the National Championship and return with an increased level of confidence at the TAC Cup.

"We saw a huge improvement in Will Hoskin-Elliott last year when he came back from the state games."

"I think the pressure was maybe released a bit and what we saw was his footy went to the next level. I think the guys that have a good carnival, sometimes you can pencil yourself in like Will did last year."

"We thought post carnival he was a certainty to get drafted and maybe that just relieves the pressure a little."

PERSISTENCE PAYS OFF

Saints Scratch Together Second Win Of Campaign

St Albans claimed its second win of the season with a tenacious 16-point win against North Footscray last round. The Saints started brilliantly and kicked nine goals to three in the first quarter, before the Devils cut the margin to a goal in the second quarter and stuck with the Saints almost until the final siren.

For Saints coach Ian Denny the victory was a well-deserved reward for his side's resilience and massive improvement over the past three weeks. While the beleaguered Saints lost the previous two games before Saturday, there were positive signs. They came far closer than any other team to defeating Spotswood, going down by just eight points, and lost a shoot-out by 29-points to Hoppers Crossing, a top three contender. It seems the Saints have got over their disastrous start, where they lost their first four games by an average of 74 points.

Denny said the team was slowly coming together after losing several important players before the start of the year.

"There's a bit more belief. I think people were still worried about what is happening as far as loss of players, instead of thinking about getting on with the job," said Denny.

"Now, there's a realisation that they have to worry about getting on with the job. It's a lot easier to coach them when they've got that mindset. We've had six under 18's play their first game of (senior) footy this year."

"It's good to blood all those young kids, but even some of the other younger players who are 18, 19 and 20, we're still developing those players, so it takes a while, but they seem to be getting it together now."

"We seem to be playing great footy in patches, one quarter against Hoppers Crossing where we kicked 11 goals, the first quarter yesterday we kicked nine goals. Even against Spotswood the week before, we kicked 1.9 in the first quarter."

St Albans, led by double Barry Priest medallist Tim Jenkins who has rediscovered his form, had 11 more scoring shots than North Footscray, and Denny said the high behind count was a symptom of young legs getting tired.

Kirk Wintels has enjoyed a strong start to the season for St Albans

"We had four shots on goal in the last quarter at crucial times, and about three of them didn't make the distance. North Footscray had some stronger bodies, and they actually converted very well."

Denny said inconsistent performances would have to be expected as young players continue to develop, but believed the side had the makings of a formidable unit.

"The club lost a lot of players, but would they win us a first division flag? Probably not. Some of them certainly would be handy players to still have, but we're starting to develop the list now, and hopefully, if we can pick up a few more next season and some of those players come back, who knows what could happen."

VIKINGS OVERUN LIONS

Altona Continues To Impress in 2012

Altona's 54-point win against Deer Park last round was the Vikings' best yet, according to coach Anthony Eames. The Vikings were three goals down early in the third quarter, but turned up the heat and overran the Lions to win their seventh game of the season 124 to 70.

"We had been pretty ordinary in the first half, and we changed a couple of things up in regards to our forward structure which they really played it out to instruction really well," said Eames.

"They had much more of a crack."

Leading the way were Anthony Chiu, Mitch Turnbull & Lee Spiteri, while Matthew Cross and former captain coach Aaron Freeland played their first senior game of the season and slotted in well, suggesting a side with plenty of depth.

Eames said his side had not put four solid quarters together yet, but its performance against Deer Park showed the side was improving some of the weaknesses that were more apparent earlier in the season.

"I think our consistency with our effort on the ball is the main thing. Our one-percenters need to be a lot better than they were in the first eight weeks," said Eames.

"Our consistent tackling and willingness to force the opposition into turnovers and put pressure on - they're some of the basics which have led to us being a little bit inconsistent."

"I don't think there's anything wrong with what we do, it's more about working on the areas that have been missing, and we've been doing it in the last two-three weeks, and as a result we had a really good win against quality opposition."

"We haven't played four quarters yet, but in saying that Deer Park were really good and didn't allow us to play that way in the first half."

Leigh Cook has contributed in front of goal during each of his three outings this season

Altona is sitting second on the ladder behind Spotswood, the only team it has lost to this season.

"We're now in a position where we've played everyone outside of Sunshine, so we've had a really good look at everybody as they have of us. If we can keep improving in what we're doing now, we're certainly a distinct possibility to finish top three at the worst and we can launch from there."

Deer Park has been hit hard by injury this season and is sixth on the ladder with three wins from eight games, but Eames said he had 'no doubt' the Lions would play finals this season.

UMPIRES CORNER

By Graeme Hodgart

The WRFL Umpires' Association tries to be up-to-date with the latest trends. For a few years now it has been allowed to run three boundary umpires in the Division One Grand Final. It has now three academies at MacKillop, Caroline Spring and Maribyrnong to cater for the influx of young secondary students wanting to be involved in umpiring.

The WRFL also tries to keep abreast of modern thinking and this year has been no exception. Besides the official Season Launch, which is a great concept, the Division One football began with a night game when St Albans took on last year's Division Two's premiers in Deer Park.

Also the clubs try to introduce ideas that appeal to the local general football public. Recently, the Under 18 game between Altona & Point Cook, which was held over from Round One was played under lights on the Thursday night prior to the Queen's Birthday Weekend. The venue was Dempster Park which is home to North Sunshine. Obviously, club officials from at least three clubs had put their heads together and, with council approval, came up with this concept.

The weather was cool but quite mild for that time of the year and although there had been rain on and off during the week, the sky was clear and the ground was firm. Both teams were keen to do well and try to take home the four points.

The lighting, provided by the four tall light towers, was a little short of MCG standard, but was more than adequate for what was required to hold a night match of football. Unfortunately, one or two little problems with the lighting made a few spectators think back to Waverley Park in the outer Eastern Suburbs in 1996. That's when Essendon played St.Kilda and during the third quarter all the lights went out and the umpires had no alternative but to call off the game. Some of the crowd invaded the ground and in the gloom several of the goal posts were felled. The second half of the game was replayed three days later but the incident made the AFL change its rules concerning night football just in case something similar happened in the future.

The game at Dempster Park was progressing well and was in the second quarter when the two light towers on the south side of the ground suddenly went out. Play was immediately stopped as the umpires conferred with club officials. No-one knew exactly what to do and the two goal umpires stood their ground and watched the two teams go through some training drills. By the time the goalies were summoned from their posts to join their fellow umpires who had congregated in jackets on the grandstand wing, the 'missing' lights were beginning to show signs of life. After about seven or eight minutes, play was re-started with maximum lighting.

During half time, one of the offending light towers lost some of its power and five minutes into the third quarter gave up the ghost for good. The game continued with only three light towers operating and even though it was a little darker in one corner of the ground, the light was still sufficient to continue the game.

The two field umpires, in Henry McFerran & Ryan Webster, took it all in their stride and, once they realised that the lighting was sufficient for play, continued on in a professional manner. All in all, it was a good event for WRFL football and hopefully more of the same, without any untoward incidents, will be able to be put into place in the near future.

NO FOOTBALL PLAYED: SATURDAY, 9 JUNE 2012 (QUEEN'S BIRTHDAY WEEKEND).

Are you looking for a health insurer that:

- Offers a comprehensive range of health insurance coverage from those tailored for individuals involved in sport to everyday coverage?
 - Is price competitive and from a company that actually reduced its premiums by an average of 3.35% while most others increased?
- Provides a generous reward incentive program to your nominated football club?

If you answered yes....

In this environment of rising health costs it's refreshing to see one insurer, FIT Health Insurance, actually reduce their premiums. All health insurance providers set their premiums as at the 1st April each year. This year FIT Health Insurance lowered their rates across many of their products. In fact, FIT's rates decreased by an average of 3.35%, in an industry where most funds increased their rates by an average of 5.06%.

FIT is a relatively new concept in health insurance that actually rewards players, clubs and families for doing the things they love, like supporting and playing sport as well as keeping fit. FIT was developed in conjunction with the AFL, the AFL Medical Officers' Association, Athletics Australia, GMHBA and other leading sports bodies.

FIT offers everything you would expect from a leading health insurer, plus a wide range of products from those designed to better manage injuries more likely to occur while playing sport or being active, to the more general private health insurance coverage.

By becoming a member of FIT either by taking up health cover for the first time or swapping over from your current provider (which is as simple as a phone call to FIT), not only can you take advantage of a competitively priced tailored health cover, but you can assist your club. By mentioning your club's name when arranging your policy your club will receive $2250 for every ten combined policies taken up or switched across to FIT.

DIVISION TWO

TIV Announced As Naming Rights Sponsor

The Western Region Football League is pleased to announce that Trade Institute of Victoria are the new naming rights sponsor for the Division Two competition. Trade Institute Victoria (TIV) is a Registered Training Organization based in Williamstown specialising in Building and Construction courses and programs in Certificate II (pre-apprenticeship), Certificate III (various trades qualifications), Certificate IV & Diploma (building management level), Apprenticeship, Traineeship, RPL & building short courses.

All of the courses available at TIV are nationally accredited and are delivered with Victorian and Commonwealth government funding. Their job ready training programs have a strong focus on the practical skills required within the industry from pre-apprenticeship, trades' qualifications, up to diploma level. The main campus is situated in Williamstown with the extensive modern and well equipped training facilities in a friendly and stimulating learning environment.

Western Region Football League CEO, Bob Tregear, said the league was excited about Trade Institute of Victoria joining the league for 2012.

“Trade Institute of Victoria will not only assist in a sponsorship capacity, but will also open up the opportunities within the building & construction industry for our players and their families.”

“In the weeks to come we will provide more details about our partnership arrangement with Trade Institute of Victoria including a partnership launch at their premises in Williamstown and opportunities they have to offer our clubs, players & their families to gain qualifications in a building and construction trade.”

“We welcome TIV to the league and look forward to a long & beneficial partnership with the organisation.”
