EDITORIAL

Sometimes football clubs can underestimate the impact they can have on the wider community.

Whilst we all like to win games and play in that last day in September, the spirit and camaraderie shown by our football clubs off the field this year has been outstanding.

Last week we saw clubs brighten up their footy boots with orange laces aiming to raise awareness of the tragic affects of street violence in the Step Back.THINK! Campaign.

We also had the Glenorden football club swap their traditional stripes, for a yellow and white inspired jumper in support of the Cancer Council's 'Call to Arms' day.

This week we will see yet another club help support the community, with the Braybrook Sporting Club banding together to support leukaemia in the Be Brave and Shave campaign this Saturday night.

Regardless of what your club is doing for the wider community, it's great to see clubs in the league come together and use their resources to reach out and help others where needed.

Its clear clubs more than ever, are realising that the role they play within the community is more than just putting points on the scoreboard, but about helping the community they serve, so keep up the good work!

In other football news, we will see the division one seniors come up against their arch rivals this weekend playing not only for the four points, but also for the ultimate bragging rights. Check out page five for some of the all time head to head stats between some of our league's biggest rivals.

Now that we are over the midway mark of the season, we have also expanded our Footy Record by an extra 16 pages to include all the results, best players and goal kickers from our junior games. Be sure to check them out from page 50 to 63.

And of course we still have all the latest team lists, game reviews, feature articles and club events for you to check out, including a brand new page featuring some of our favourite Images of the Week on page 49.

If you have any stories, images or news you would like to see in the WRFL Record, don't hesitate to contact me at k.fitzgerald@wrfl.asn.au or keep up to date on our Facebook and Twitter pages.

Until then, play hard, fight fair, kick straight and best of luck to you and your club on the weekend.

As we head into the second half of the season it is worth reflecting on the fortunes of the ten clubs in division one for 2013.

Deer Park is the benchmark and under first year coach Marc Bullen has not missed a beat. They have been challenged in quarters and halves but not for a whole match. It will be interesting to see, now that every club has seen how they go about it, if anything will be different in the coming weeks.

Steve Thom thinks Spotswood is better placed this year than they were in 2012. Having Lachlan McGhie back is a big plus along with Michael Fogarty and Sam Myors who have added a spark, but they do miss Audley and Morgan. I am sure Chris O'Keefe is keen for a fit Tom Langlands to return soon.

Altona are a bit off the boil for me, several players are overseas at the moment which does not help coach Anthony Eames cause. Whether it is their hunger or teams lifting against them, there is something missing. Their demolition of Sunshine last week might be the catalyst. Jayden Post is starting to assert his authority on games and that is a good sign.

Sunshine did get under the radar early but the last two weeks has shown Brett Jacobs where they need to be to finish top three and go deep into the finals. I am scratching my head regarding the Simon Wiggins situation, here one minute gone the next.

St. Albans crept into the five last weekend and if Ian Denny can ever get his best 22 on the park, they will be a force to be reckoned with. Any team boasting Tim Jenkins, Lachlan Baddery, Teghan Henderson, Jack Sims, Ash Craig, Marc Dawson, Damien Fitzpatrick, Daniel McKerracher and Joel West can do some damage.

Hoppers Crossing are the big question mark of the division. What has gone wrong that such a talented line-up is outside the five? Injury has not helped what David Mitchell is trying to build at Hogans Road, but there is more to it than that. Last weekend they were goalless in three quarters of football. That is disturbing for everyone at the Warriors.

Port Melbourne Colts have a heart as big as Phar Lap and a forward line on paper the equal of any. That is not enough to have them figuring in the September action. Ben Burke has done a great job but they need some new blood in the red and blue to return to their once lofty heights in this competition.

There is a lot to like about Albion as their resurgence will be led by homegrown talent that is being brought along beautifully by Mark Greenshields. Albion is going to be a force again, but it won't be in 2013. Newsflash for other teams-Don't take them lightly.

David Connell knew 2013 would be a steep learning curve for everyone at the Eagles. They need to recruit and build a side that can match it with the big boys in this level. They have a lot of work to do and they know it, but they have great people in place to deliver.

North Footscray will survive and that in itself is a great result. I believe they need to appoint a coach now for 2014 and if he wants the job, appoint Ross Hedley. He is passionate, loyal, talented and a Red Devil through and through and, he is right under your nose. Do I have to point out the obvious?

I am looking forward to the lead up to September.

PATRICK JOYCE SHIELD

West Footscray honour former administrator with a win

The unique bond a football club has with its players and supporters was none more evident than at Shorten Reserve last Saturday, when the West Footscray Reserves took on Braybrook for the Patrick Joyce Shield.

Having tragically loosing Matthew Montebello in August last year, the club was rocked by the passing of yet another member, this time in 2013 club administrator and Reserves player, Patrick Joyce after losing his short life in a car accident during the pre-season.

“In the last six months we have lost two players, and to lose anyone like we did is a tragedy,” West Footscray president Peter Speakman said.

“Patrick was such a hard worker at this club, he was on the committee and as a player, he was just fantastic and you know he was even future president material.”

With his grandfather affiliated with the Braybrook Sporting Club, West Footscray decided that playing a home game against the Brookers was a fitting way to honour Patrick.

“At his funereal his grandfather Peter asked if we could make up a shield for the reserves to play for in memory of Patrick and we thought there was no better way to do than against Braybrook.”

In the inaugural Patrick Joyce Shield game, it was a tight first quarter with both sides having equal scoring opportunities-the Rooster’s accuracy in front of goal seeing them sneak away with a handy five-point lead.

With the club playing just their third game at home this season and the chance to honour their fallen teammate, the Roosters cranked it up a gear, booting three goals to none in the second term and holding the Brookers scoreless going into the major break.

After a heavy spray from their coach, the Brookers were not out of the contest just yet, digging deep in the third term to pile on a much needed 21-points to the Roosters ten, trailing the home side by a mere 15-points.

Yet with the passion of the day spurring them on, the Roosters were able to honour their former teammate in the highest way possible, running out 42-point victors and more importantly winning the Patrick Joyce Shield.

With Patrick’s mother Pam and members of her family present, the club presented her with a framed jumper and team photo of Patrick’s last game with the club in the semi-finals last year.

“This meant a lot to the players, and I’m sure it means a lot to the Joyce family too,” Reserves Captain Phil Rigg said.

“Coming here today, we just knew that there was absolutely no way knowing we were going to give this up to Braybrook and we had to get up for Patty.”

Samuel Ross, Matthew Liossis and Russell Phillips were among the Roosters best, whilst Rowan Hatty finished the day with two majors.

The win sees the Roosters sit in eighth position ahead of Sanctuary Lakes and Braybrook, with four wins and six losses.

Round 11 will see the West Footscray reserves travel to Town Centre Oval where they will face seventh placed Caroline Springs at 12noon next week.

Seniors Update

Albanvale have rocketed up the Division Two senior ladder after a close win against cellar dwellers Laverton, by seven points on the weekend.

Despite being the only team to not register a win for season 2013, the Magpies went toe to toe with the Cobras, trailing the home side by just one straight kick at quarter time.

The second term saw an aggressive Magpie outfit come out firing, kicking five goals to the Cobra's three and leading the game at the main break.

The Magpies had their chances to cause an upset and win their first match for the year, but inaccuracy cost them in the end, going down 11.14.80 to the Cobras 13.9.87.

Albanvale's David Azzopardi, Sean Blake and James Micallef were among the home side's best, helping their team soar from ninth to sixth place on the ladder.

Around the grounds, premiership favourites, Glenorden have kept their perfect record intact, with a 78-point win over Caroline Springs.

On the day the club swapped their traditional guernseys for a yellow and white daffodil inspired jumper in support of cancer awareness, spearhead Damien Yze was a standout, kicking ten goals for the match, placing himself in a comfortable position atop of the competition goal kicking leader board.

At Shorten Reserve, West Footscray has defeated Braybrook by 17-points, to make it their fourth win for the season.

The match was never in doubt, with the Roosters controlling the game from the get go, dominating the packs and leading at every break. Mark Speakman, Benny Douglas and Joshua Webster were named amongst the home side's best players.

The clash between fourth placed Manor Lakes and fifth placed Sunshine Heights was always going to be a good game, fighting for the chance to secure a place in the top four.

Despite a slow start, the Dragons kept coming at the visitors, outscoring the Storm in the third term with Joshua Stevens, Dillon Hinge and Keelan Privitera dangerous around goals. In the end though, it was the Storm who took home the chocolates, winning by 13-points.

Down the road at Dennis Family Oval, Wyndhamvale took care of Sanctuary Lakes, defeating the Sharks by 84-points. The Sharks couldn't buy a goal on the day, managing just three majors and 12 behinds for the match.

And in a lack-lustre affair, Parkside has defeated North Sunshine by a whopping 244-points. After finishing the match with 62 scoring shots to the Roadrunners eight, Parkside's percentage has had a healthy boost, cementing their position in second place.

Next week will see Braybrook take on Wyndhamvale, Caroline Springs to play West Footscray and Sanctuary Lakes to host Parkside.

The news doesn't get any better for the bottom two sides, with the Laverton Magpies to take on Glenorden and North Sunshine to host the Dragons in Round 11.

And as for Albanvale's significant climb up the ladder last week, they will look to make it two wins on the trot when they take on Manor Lakes at Howqua Reserve.

CLUB LEGEND

Jack Singh from Glenorden Football Club

Jalkamal 'Jack' Singh of the Glenorden Football Club is a shining example of a club legend, fighting adversity to be a vital part of a football club.

Prior to first becoming involved with Glenorden, a car accident left Singh with brain damage, but the setback hasn't stopped him from becoming a dynamic and important element of the club.

"Basically, those who have been around the club a while realise that without Jack, they'd struggle," said former Glenorden administrator, David Franklin.

Immigrating from India when he was just three years old, Jack was first introduced to Glenorden in 2005 by the then president David Casano, and has never looked back.

The club welcomed Jack with open arms, with no idea that he would be a regular spectator and a key helper on a game day.

"I think about seven years ago he started coming down and hanging around the footy club, since then he's sort of been hovering around helping out little bits here and there," said Franklin.

For the last few years, the 29-year-old has consistently taken on the role of umpires escort for Glenorden for both the reserves and seniors matches.

"On game day, especially with away games, it's tough to get support staff to come along to games, but the last couple of years Jack has been fantastic," said Franklin.

Jack also helps out a lot at training, filling up and handing out water bottles, and often helps packing up and cleaning up when it needs to be done.

He can also be found setting up for club functions, helping out behind the bar and filling the bar fridge amongst other duties.

"We all know how hard it is to find reliable game day volunteers and I wish we had another 10 or 20 Jack Singh's," said Franklin.

"He doesn't argue with anyone or goes around swearing, his behaviour is exemplary."

"I wish there were 10 or 20 more Jack Singh's around," former Glenorden Administrator David Franklin said of Singh pictured above.

The Glenorden Football Club acknowledged Jack's contribution to the club by nominating him for 2012 Wingman Off-Field Champion of the Year.

"It had to do with somebody at the club who was important and a great club person," said Franklin.

"As soon as the email came through for nominations last year, I never hesitated. I spoke to a few committee people and we sent in a nomination for Jack," said Franklin.

Jack is now heavily entwined in the Glenorden Sports Club, even coming down to watch games of cricket in the off-season.

"He walks to the club and walks home, even if it's wet or cold, even in cricket season he pops in to watch a few games and see how the people are going," said Franklin.

"During summer especially, he keeps saying 'I can't wait for footy season to start,' he just loves his footy."

Despite suffering serious injuries, his unwavering passion for the game and in particularly Glenorden, makes Jack Singh a true club legend.

UNDER 18 DIVISION ONE

Update

A spirited Yarraville Seddon squad remain winless, after a crushing loss at the hands of Albion, in Round Nine of the U18 Division One competition.

The home side kept Yarraville Seddon to a single point at quarter time, before further stretching their lead to 33-points at the main break. A goalless final quarter from the Eagles sealed the deal, with Albion running out 82-point victors.

Eagle Jake Febey found himself among the best, while Jed Richards did his best in a losing team, booting three goals.

Albion's Andrew Brennan was named best afield, while teammate Mathew Serafin, was also named in the best, adding eight goals to his season tally of 34.

"I think we were pretty disappointing all round... that's not our competitive best," Yarraville Seddon coach, Greg Wray, commented after the game.

"We're going to work a bit harder on the track and we're going to look to play a little bit more accountable football."

The win sees the Cats hold on to their ladder position, second only to Hoppers Crossing.

The first-placed Warriors have continued their winning streak well into the season, defeating Deer Park by 77-points.

Hoppers Crossing's Mitchell Appleby and James Farrugia kicked ten goals between them, while Lions Craig Plant and Sohrob Ismail performed exceptionally.

Third-placed Spotswood has recorded their fifth win of the year, after a nail biting two point win against Altona at McLean Reserve.

The Woodsmen combined for no less than eight individual goal kickers, while the Vikings' Kelly Pickard and Jye Comeadow kicked five and three respectively.

Spotswood's Tom Buck and Altona's Daniel Letts were some of the best on ground performers for the day.

The Vikings sit in sixth place with just a singular win for the season whilst the Woodsmen can now look forward to a well earned rest, with an upcoming bye.

Altona will have a chance to record their second win, playing St Albans this week, while Hoppers Crossing will be looking to continue with their exceptional form against Yarraville Seddon.

Deer Park has the chance to once again move up the ladder, coming up against a strong Albion squad. Earlier in the year, the two sides produced a close contest, with the Lions running out six-point victors.

Update

After a disappointing Round Nine finish, it seems a week off can do wonders for a team, with Glenorden back on track after a 53-point win over Caroline Springs last weekend.

In blustery conditions at Heathdale Oval, the match looked as though it was going to be a close affair, with both sides scoring two majors early in the piece.

Doubling their efforts from the first term, Glenorden turned up the heat in the second quarter, piling on two goals six points, to the Lakers one point to go into the major break 18-point leaders.

With valiant efforts from the Lakers' Dean Rowe and Joshua Harris, the Hawks' forward pressure was too strong for the visitors, extending their lead to run out the match 53-point victors.

Unfortunately, the match was dampened with three Caroline Springs players having to come off the ground with injuries, one having to be taken off in an ambulance with suspected neck injuries.

Despite the initial concern, Caroline Springs President, Dean Ellis, said that all three players are doing well.

"The first player was Jesse Church who had come off with a slight knee injury and the second was Chris McKenzie who was stretched off after receiving a severe bump on the head, but he was fine once he came off and actually helped stretcher off his teammate.

"The last player was Jayme Sultana, who was knocked out in the last two minutes of the game and was taken to hospital with suspected neck issues, but he is fine now as it was just more of a precautionary procedure and he will most likely play next week."

The win sees the Hawks sit second on the ladder, ahead of West Footscray who are hot on their heels, equal in both percentage and win-loss ratio.

Down the freeway at Bryan Martyn Oval, the Power enjoyed their eighth win of the season against Wyndhamvale by 42-points.

Having previously lost their only game for the season to the Falcons earlier this year, Newport were not going to take this match lying down, coming out firing and holding the Falcons goalless for the first half of the match.

Whilst the Falcons piled on four third term goals to the Power's one, the match was never in reach with Newport's Mohmoud Saoud, Ali El Houli and Saad Ali too dangerous in front of goal.

Glenorden's Wayne Donaldson gets his kick away against Caroline Springs on the weekend- Image by Robyn Bartlett

The loss sees the Falcons sit just outside the top four by one game, with the run home not getting any easier, as they take on second placed Glenorden next week.

Looking to make it two wins on the trot after their historic first win for the club in Round Nine, Manor Lakes have gone down to a very dominate Hoppers Crossing side by 80-points.

Kicking six goals straight in the first term, the Warriors took no prisoners with Mitchell Bourchier, Damien McKenzie and Jacob Williams among the best performers for the visitors.

With multiple goals from the Storm's Dylan Woods and Sean Costigan keeping their team on the scoreboard, the Warrior's forward line were too strong on the day, finishing the match with 32 scoring shots to the Storm's 12.

Next week won't get any easier for the league newcomers, when the Storm take on ladder leaders Newport Power in Round Ten.

Caroline Springs will host a fresh West Footscray outfit after the Roosters enjoyed a two week break, whilst the fourth placed Hoppers Crossing side will enjoy the bye.

PROUD SUPPLIER OF THE WRFL

UMPIRES CORNER

By Graeme Hodgart

Last Sunday it was decided that the young and up-and-coming goal umpires would turn up at Hoppers Crossing and officiate in all their junior matches to gain some experience. A few older umpires were asked to come along and give some advice and encouragement to their younger colleagues. One of the first to volunteer was Roland Caple, aged 55, who lives nearby. He believes in being a positive role model who is prepared to assist others during their umpiring career.

Roly tried to play football at primary school but wasn't very good so he decided to give umpiring a go. When his uncle coached the North Ballarat Under 14s team, Roly ran the boundary for him. Not long after that he began umpiring with the Ballarat Umpires in 1971. Over the years, he has had stints in the VFA, VFL, AFL, South Australian Amateurs, SANFL and the Combined Southern League in Adelaide. Last season, Roly made the decision to swap from the Ballarat League, where he is a life member of the umpires association, to join the WRFL.

Along the way, he has had some fantastic mentors and helpers with his umpiring. He names Malcolm Rock, Frank Williams, John Gambetta, Noel O'Brien, Andy Craig, Bill Pryde, Allan Grant and Doug Gourlay as positive influences. Although the majority of these names are foreign to our readers, a few would be familiar especially to those who have been involved in umpiring circles for many years.

Roly supports the Geelong Football Club and will occasionally hit a golf ball but prefers to listen to music of the Country and Western type. He also likes the Bee Gees, Creedence Clearwater Revival, Abba and The Police.

Of the current AFL umpires, he has a soft spot for Shane McInerney, who is originally from Ballarat. Roly says that he did, in fact, teach Shane how to bounce the football many years ago. He also says that he enjoys watching Chris Appleton and Chelsea Roffey waving flags at the highest level. Roly thinks that Chelsea is a great role model and hopefully her success will encourage many more females to become involved in umpiring.

In his long and varied umpiring career, probably the main highlight was gained in 1993 when he was ranked the number one goalie in country Victoria and Southern New South Wales. This was a result of his personal success during the Victorian Country Football Championships. In 1994 he was appointed to officiate in the curtain raiser game to the Fosters Cup Grand Final at the old Waverley Football Ground between Essendon and the Adelaide Crows.

Roly Caple has been umpiring for 43 years, and isn't prepared to hang up the white flags until he reaches his 50th straight year

Roly is currently in his 43rd straight year of umpiring and is hopeful that he will be able to make it to fifty years straight as an umpire of Australian Rules football. He says his ambitions in life are to be as professional as one can be, giving back to the community whenever he can and to be a mentor to up-and-coming umpires. He is proud that he has been a positive ambassador for umpiring over many years. His philosophy is to make every post a winner and to strive to succeed at the highest level possible.

Good luck to Roly as he continues to wave flags each Saturday in the WRFL. May some of his positive thinking rub off on the rest of the WRFL's community.

CLUB HISTORY

St Albans Football Club

Name: St Albans Football Club

Year it was formed: September 1946

Inducted into WRFL: March 1947

Total Club Premierships: 5

Team colours: Navy blue and red

Home ground: Kings Park Reserve

In September 1946, twenty six people gathered in a meeting, at the St. Albans Fire Station. The purpose of the meeting? To form a footy club. Nowadays, that same club is competing in the Western Region Football League.

Some twenty years later, in 1966, the club won its first senior premiership. The year beforehand, they sat at the bottom of the Footscray District Football League ladder.

The build up to the Grand Final of '66 was immense. The club was front page news, while local small businesses were festooned with the red and blue of the Saints – for a local club, that one week's excitement was particularly nerve-wracking toward the players and coaches.

The match was contested at a suburban Braybrook oval. An inaccurate St Albans side – kicking 22 behinds from 33 scoring shots - dominated for the entire match, triumphing by 31 points.

Since then, the club has won another five premierships, the most recent being in 1997.

Club member Ian Mackenzie is the source of a plethora of the club's historical information.

"We started off in Errington Reserve, then we moved to Kings Park, in the mid-70s – I was playing then – because it was a bigger ground, and it was a newer area," he commented.

"Our change rooms (at Kings Park) were our social rooms as well, and we all played footy during our days, and we had to shower and all that before we let the women come in and have a drink and all that, it was a hard period in anyone's footy career," Mackenzie laughed.

In its 67-year history, the club has produced nine players whom have reached the highest footballing level. Between 1987 and 2003, trio Steven Kretiuk, Steven Kolyniuk, and Jason Watts, represented the Footscray Football Club on 404 occasions. Kolyniuk later returned to the St Albans Football Club, in a coaching position.

Today, the club fields a Division One Senior, Reserves and Under 18s side on Saturdays, whilst they also have multiple Junior sides including an Under 16s, U15s, U13s, U10s and Youth Girls.

A thank you to Ian Mackenzie, who provided the information which featured in this article.
