WOMEN'S ROUND

From the Editor

This weekend, the AFL, along with many local football leagues across the state will celebrate Women's Round.

Over June 29-30, the football community will take time to acknowledge the valuable contribution of women in our great game, and focus on recognizing and developing female leadership across all levels of the Australian football industry, from a local level through to the elite.

This year, marks a milestone step for female football, with the first ever AFL women's match between the Melbourne Football Club and Western Bulldogs to be played at the MCG on Saturday night. For more information on this historic event and how you can get involved, be sure to check out page 5 in this week's Record.

Women particularly play a vital role in football at a local level, with the league boasting females in all areas of our game. At an executive level the Western Region Football League board comprises of two females in Gina Smith and Janine Mizzi, a third of the league's office is female and at a club level, fourteen out of thirty-nine club administrators are women. For a look at the different kind of women who dedicate their time and effort throughout the WRFL, check out page 4.

This is not to mention the growing numbers of females officiating our game, and the new influx of girls taking up the sport as players as part of our Under 13 Junior Girls and newly combined Youth Girls competition between the WRFL and EDFL. Check out page 59 for all of the results from our Youth Girls competition, as well as a special Play Profile (page 39) on Shae-Lee

Murphy-Burke who is the WRFL's only female Best and Fairest winner.

Statewide, there are almost 100,000 females involved in Auskick, primary school, youth girls and women's leagues, 700 female AFL umpires as well as 1500 accredited female coaches that are currently involved in our game. From a spectator perspective, 42 per cent of the national television viewing audience is female with more than 35 per cent of AFL and club members are female.

As the AFL celebrates Women's Round this week, we ask that you too make a special effort to thank those females that help make match day at your club what it is. Whether it is the ladies running the canteen, those preparing the team sheet, your mum, wife or girlfriend who drives you to the game or washes your dirty gear, and make sure you let them know you appreciate the role they play in keeping our great game going.

LADIES OF THE WRFL

GINA SMITH

Role within WRFL: Board Member WRFL

Total years involved with the WRFL: approx 8 years

Why are women important in football? Women's input, involvement and contribution to football in the West is significant, although at times is usually 'behind the scenes'. Women's passion for this sport, their clubs, their families' involvement and dedication to each task they undertake shows and is invaluable. Additionally it's great to see in recent times the WRFL Youth Girls competition and membership growing as well as their increasing supporter base.

Why do you love doing what you do in the WRFL? I've found it enjoyable working with the board and WRFL staff to provide better outcomes for the clubs, and also working alongside club representatives in reviewing key rules and policies for the betterment of the WRFL competition.

LYN MCLEOD

Role within WRFL: Customer Service & Events Coordinator

Total years involved with the WRFL: Going on my Third Year

Why are women important in football? Women and girls are essential to the growth of our game from the grass roots up. It's great to see the development of the game through the increased number of girls playing and recognition of the contribution they bring through their involvement in administrative duties, volunteering and supporting AFL.

Why do you love doing what you do in the WRFL? I love working at the WRFL because I get to be creative and help run many successful events and I am able to talk about footy every day.

JUSTINE CURATOLO

Role within WRFL: Club Secretary at DPFC and Under 10s Coach at DPFC

Total years involved with the WRFL: Nearly 3 years

Why are women important in football? Because women are an important contributor to the football industry, not just as supporters of males, but on their own terms. Women are great footballers, coaches, board members, trainers, support staff, leaders and educators in the football industry. Women are also visionaries and able to unite different groups within our community.

Why do you love doing what you do in the WRFL? Football is a great experience to be involved with; it brings together people from all different backgrounds and provides opportunities to people. I love being part of something which can help bring enjoyment and opportunities to people in my community.

BIANCA MICHETTI

Role within WRFL: WRFL official boundary umpire and coach to academy umpires

Total years involved with the WRFL: 8

Why are women important in football? It breaks that stereotypical barrier that it's a male only sport. It is definitely male dominant however women in football have plenty of opportunities as either an official, a player, a coach, a trainer, or on a committee. It's great to see women getting involved in a sport they love.

Why do you love doing what you do in the WRFL? I live and breathe football as I grew up with my dad being deeply involved as a coach, so initially playing as a junior and then officiating was ways of staying involved and doing something I loved, getting fit and getting paid.

WOMEN MAKE THEIR MARK AT THE HOME OF FOOTBALL

History will be made this Saturday night, when the first ever AFL women's match between the Melbourne Football Club and Western Bulldogs will be played at the MCG.

Held in conjunction with Women's Round, the match will be played under lights at the MCG as a curtain raiser to the Round 14 clash between the AFL's Western Bulldogs and Melbourne.

With over 200 women registering for the inaugural AFL's Women's Draft last month, the top 50 women from around Australia will strap on the boots and etch their names into the record books as they play in the first all-female exhibition match.

Two players from the WRFL's St.Albans Football Club women and youth girls teams were among the top 50 women selected, pulling on the red and blue jumper for the Demons.

Bree White (pick number 23) and 18-year-old Madeline Keryk (pick number 21) from the VU St Albans Spurs are excited to run out on the sacred MCG turf.

"I am extremely excited about playing in the game and so grateful I have the opportunity to be part of it and to play with the best women in the country will be such an amazing experience, I can't wait!" Keryk said.

The occasion will not only see the country's top female footballers wear the AFL club guernseys, but will also be the first time AFL clubs have competed in an AFL-sanctioned women's match.

Selected by the Western Bulldogs at pick two, Stephane Chiocci from Diamond Creek is flattered to get the chance to strut her stuff on the sport's biggest stage.

"I'm honoured to have been drafted in the first place, but to go pick number two to the doggies, I am absolutely wrapped," she said.

"I mean, it's the home of football and if we can get a big crowd to come and watch us it will be amazing."

Chiocci and the rest of the Bulldogs squad will be coached by current VFL Port Melbourne assistant coach, Peta Searle, who has a proven track record as both a player and coach, and is one of only two female coaches in Australia with a level three accreditation.

In the opposition box will be Michelle Cowan leading the Demons, who also has extensive coaching experience from her time in Western Australia.

Drafted by the Demons at pick nine, Lou Wotton from the Eastern Devils said that the match was a huge stepping stone for female football.

"I think it is really positive for women's football and to get some recognition from the AFL is great," Wotton said.

"There are still people out there that don't know that women play football and that the league has been running for 25 years, so I think this will be a great opportunity to get the league and other female football out there."

Injured AFL players, Jack Grimes from Melbourne and Shaun Higgins from the Western Bulldogs will be involved in the exhibition match too, assisting in the coaching aspects of the game.

Sidelined with a nasty foot injury for the rest of the season, Higgins said he was honoured to be involved in the historic milestone and said that the women had some terrific skills.

"Based on today with a little bit of a kick and a handball the girls have got really good skills....so I'm looking forward to getting involved in it and training."

The 25 year-old also called upon all AFL members and fans to attend the match to support the game.

"It will be great to get as many supporters not just of the two clubs involved, but of the AFL to support Women's Round and it will be great obviously on the MCG, the home of football."

The first all-female match will kick off at 5:10pm at the MCG, with the AFL's Round 14 clash between Melbourne and the Western Bulldogs to be followed at 7:40pm.

It was great to see some genuine nail biting finishes to a few games last weekend and an enthralling and highly skilled battle between Altona and Spotswood in the match of the day.

The tempo and intensity steps up between now and the start of the finals as the fair dinkum stuff begins.

Round 11 has a couple of vital matches and the radio match of the day between Hoppers Crossing and Spotswood looms as a definitive game, especially for Hoppers Crossing.

The Warriors got home by two points over the Colts and slipped back into the five, but this week they face a Spotswood team smarting after going down to Altona. Spotswood's barnstorming final quarter almost saw them steal the points from the Vikings. Kade Carey makes a big difference to the way Hoppers line up and James Mulligan took some telling marks late in defense to get the Warriors home. It is no secret that quality talls don't grow on trees in this competition, Hoppers will need theirs firing, if they hope to knock Spotswood over.

St. Albans matched Deer Park for shots on goal last Sunday but did not put a dent in the Lions armour. Kwame McHarg continues to be a star for Deer Park both on the ball and in front of goal, adding another half dozen last week. Yarraville Seddon Eagles will be competitive, but no match for the premiership favourites.

Sunshine survived a very spirited challenge from Albion and Brett Jacobs knows his boys need a lot of improvement if they want to play a significant role in the finals.

St. Albans need to beat Port Melbourne Colts who were probably unlucky to go down to Hoppers Crossing by such a narrow margin. While it is folly to ever write off the boys from Murphy Reserve, this maybe their last chance, to keep alive their finals aspirations. The Saints may rue some close losses from early in the season as the finals approach, but they have the talent to make a big run. The next three weeks v Colts, Hoppers Crossing and Spotswood will show, if the story of their season, will have a happy ending.

Altona take on Albion who are improving all the time. The Vikings had some unlikely heroes last weekend in the win over Spotswood with David Barnaby deservedly taking out the Ascotvale Sports and Trophies medal and the Tigers Clubhouse dinner voucher for best on ground. Close games are good games, let's hope we see more this weekend.

Seniors Update

If there were extra points for which side could bag the biggest winning margin of the year, then Round 11 produced plenty of entries.

Scoreboard attendants around the grounds certainly earned their positions on an afternoon of one-sided contests.

For all the negativity that could come out of a Saturday that left little to be desired in the way of close encounters, it did confirm one thing.

That the battle for finals spots is on.

A quick cast of the eye on the Division 2 Senior ladder at this point in the season, paints an intriguing picture.

It will no doubt keep the players, coaches and fans keenly watching their side until the final game of the season.

Five teams now find themselves on four wins, all with similar percentage. All with the opportunity to play when it really counts – finals.

Of them, Caroline Springs appears the most likely. It's an easy case to argue, given the Lakers demolished West Footscray, also on four wins, by 113 points.

Who can go past Lindon Harris' efforts during the afternoon, snagging seven goals next to his name in a much-needed victory.

Reason being, that Caroline Springs face the uncompromising third placed Wyndhamvale.

But the Falcons too will be full of steam, after an unsurprising demolition of Braybrook by 159 points.

After a four game winning streak for the Brookers, it's now three losses from the last three. It only gets tougher, with another Pennell Reserve clash this weekend against stiff opposition in Parkside.

And aren't the magpies flying yet again in season 2013? By their standards, a regulation win over Sanctuary Lakes. At the final siren, a 142 point drubbing, and Parkside seem to be running away this season with a crushing defeat over Sanctuary Lakes last weekend. Image by Vladimir Bera another percentage boosting win.

While over at Dempster Park it was a battle of the Sunshine's with Heights playing North. Yet it was Sunshine Heights who posted the biggest win of the round, that being 229 points.

Hopes for a tighter round appear to be limited this weekend. A clash between bottom of the table strugglers North Sunshine and Albanvale will provide possibly the closest of results.

Attention will be back on the resurgent Glen Orden and former AFL player Kent Kingsley, as to how many goals he and Damien Yze can slot through against West Footscray.

Continued good form appears critical for the Hawks, who head into the return away leg against Wyndhamvale next Saturday afternoon.

While Sanctuary Lakes will be keen to put in a more competitive performance against near rivals Sunshine Heights at Ainsworth Reserve.

Wooden-spoon leaders Laverton can expect another game of pain, when it meets the ever impressive league newcomers Manor Lakes at the Magpies' home turf of Laverton Park.

THE ULTIMATE FOOTBALL PRIZE!

Your chance to win a money can't buy experience

The Western Region Football League, in conjunction with our community partner, the EJ Whitten Foundation has three terrific prizes for you and your club to win in this year's Ultimate Football Prize raffle.

As one of our major fundraisers for our community partner, the WRFL urge all clubs, teams and supporters to get behind the initiative and continue to sell raffle tickets at $20 each, to be in the running for some 'money can't buy experiences'.

Valued at $3,500, the major prize this year is for 10 x Adult tickets to a Superbox at Etihad Stadium to watch the 2013 Ray White EJ Whitten Legends Game held on Wednesday July 10, during the second week of the school holidays.

The Superbox will be fully catered for, with finger food and drinks provided. All guests will be in prime position to see some of the past AFL greats strut their stuff in front of more than 26,000 people. Guests will also get to enjoy a meet and greet with EJ Whitten Foundation CEO, Ted Whitten Junior.

The runner-up prize is for a special behind the scenes tour of the Player Change rooms for you and a friend. Go down into the rooms to see some the game's past greats, including Richard Champion, Russell Robertson, Tony Liberatore, Brendan Fevola and a host of others. A great opportunity to get some photos and signatures in a truly once in a lifetime experience.

Third prize is for 50x General Admission tickets for you and your team to the EJ Whitten Legends match

Victorian captain Anthony Koutoufides and All-Stars Captain Wayne Carey lead their teams out onto Etihad Stadium in last year's Ray White EJ Whitten Legends Game and get up close with your favourite legends from both the Vics and All Stars in Melbourne's only state of origin clash this year!

To be eligible for these terrific prizes, teams must lodge their tickets and funds to the WRFL office by 5pm on Wednesday July 3, with the winners to be notified on Friday July 5.

All funds raised from the raffle will be donated to the EJ Whitten Foundation which is a leading men's health not-for-profit charity, established with the aim of raising funds for research and awareness into prostate cancer. As there are no symptoms in the early stages of the disease, it is vital for all men to begin regular testing for prostate cancer at the age of 50, or from the age of 40 if there is a family history of the disease.

With the help of the WRFL, the Foundation aims to continue to promote these initiatives, particularly to the young male population in Melbourne's western suburbs.

We are endorsed by and are proud sponsors of the WRFL and have been providing Income Protection Insurance Advice to Football Players and their families for over 20 years.

We also provide advice in these areas:-

- Death, Critical Illness and Total and Permanent Disability Insurance cover
- Business Insurance & Succession planning
- Superannuation
- Investments
- Retirement Planning
- Lending (Mortgages, Investment, Leasing)
- Accounting

Please contact Stephen on 0419 781 200 to arrange an appointment or, if you already have insurance in place to arrange a free no obligation review to see if you are paying too much for your cover.

UNDER 18 DIVISION ONE

Update

A strong Albion side have further established themselves as premiership contenders, with a win over Deer Park, in Round Ten of the Under 18 Division One competition.

The final margin was a mere six points, despite Albion having six more scoring shots than visitors Deer Park.

Both teams were tied up at the main break, though the home side had kicked six more behinds and one less goal. At three quarter time, the margin was fifteen points, and a hardworking Lions squad couldn't prevent a six-point Cats victory.

Albion full back Tim Mahoney was named best afield, while Brandon Creed starred for Deer Park. Spiros Amarantidis kicked three goals for the Lions, while the Cats had seven individual goal kickers.

The win sees both sides retain their ladder positions, with Albion sitting in second place and Deer Park at fifth.

"Still with 14 players unavailable due to commitments or injury we performed really well against second placed Albion," Lions coach Colin Clohesy commented after the game.

"We started with 19 players, and in the second quarter down to 18, third quarter 17 players, and finished the game out with only 16 players on the field.

"We went down by six points in the end, but the effort and character was outstanding and is commended by all at the club."

Around the grounds, Altona have recorded only their second win of the season, in a comprehensive defeat of St. Albans. Omar Abou-Zeid, who is a current member of the Western Jets squad, starred with two goals and a best on field performance.

Hoppers Crossing were also once again on the winners list, defeating Yarraville Seddon by 83 points. Lachlan Rule was best afield, while Mitchell Appleby kicked four goals.

Deer Park will have a chance to redeem themselves this week, when they travel to Grant Reserve to take on Altona. Albion face a challenge this weekend, when they come up against the undefeated Hoppers Crossing.

Spotswood is returning from the bye, and will play the Yarraville Seddon Eagles. Currently in third place, the Woodsmen will be looking to climb up the ladder as we get down to the business end of the season.

St Albans sit smack bang in the middle of the ladder in fourth, and will use the upcoming bye to rest up for their next clash.

PLAYER Q&A PROFILES

Shae-Lee Murphy-Burke

Name: Shae-Lee Murphy-Burke

Club: Altona Vikings

Age: 18

Games played: I've played 85 games so far and will be playing my 100th club game this season. Overall I've played six years of footy, all with the Altona Vikings.

Jumper Number: #6

Favourite Position: Wing, for a few different reasons. It's a running role and there's plenty of opportunity to take a couple of bounces, as well as work with the midfielders to get the ball into the forward line. I love that you have so much space that you're responsible for. It tests your ability and mental toughness to run forward but also push back and be accountable.

This season's highlight: Being invited to try out for the Women's Victorian team and playing in the trial match with some of the most promising female talent running around at the moment.

Career highlights: Being selected for the Under 18 Victorian team in 2012, my last year in Youth Girls. With that came pulling on the Big V and winning a National Title on AAMI Stadium. Hands down the two most rewarding moments in my life so far.

Career aim: To play footy at the highest level. Whether that is in the women's AFL in the near future, representing Victoria or developing my footy in the women's academy or other programs like it. I will always work hard to improve myself and my footy.

My pre-game ritual is: I prepare well leading up to the game both physically and mentally, I eat the right food at the right time and hydrate etc. I blast music in the car on the way to the game to get the jitters out of me and also to pump me up. Then once I get in the rooms and I'm ready to warm up, my heads in the game and I mentally prepare and focus on my role.

Who has had the most influence on your career?

My Mum has had the most influence on my career. At first she was reluctant to let me play footy but once she realised how serious I was about it, she has helped me every step of the way with everything.

She's taught me that if you want something in life, you've gotta go get it! Mum is my number 1 supporter; she's been to every single one of my games including interstate state trips too!

Favourite AFL team: The Doggies! I'm a bulldog through and through.

Shae-Lee Murphy Burke was the WRFL's first female Best & Fairest winner last year

Favourite player: Although he is now (sadly) retired, Brad Johnson. He is an absolute champion! I really like him mainly for his stand out qualities which makes him such an inspiration to me including his resilience, leadership, courage and his passion. He made his debut for the club in the same year I was born and announced his retirement a day after my 16th birthday. Johnno is a legend and I aspire to possess the great qualities he has, both as a player and a person.

Best thing about footy: Impossible to keep this answer short. I love everything about footy. The pride in the club you play for and the jumper you wear, the passion you play with, the desire to win, the trust in your team mates, from siren to siren it's a war, I love the courage you see on the field, the power of positivity and encouragement, footy is so unique. It's truly the greatest game. In footy you have many amazing experiences, you make mates and have a certain bond that will always remain, who doesn't love watching the underdog win or seeing someone take a massive specky! It's exciting. You often see the littlest player take down a bigger opponent, it's great.

In five years time I hope to: I hope to be running around Whitten Oval for training, and putting on a red, white, and blue jumper every week. That's my dream. I also hope to be working in the AFL in some capacity.

DIVISION TWO – UNDER 18

Update

Round 11 of the Division Two U18 competition saw big boosts in percentage for the top three sides last weekend.

Ladder leaders, Newport Power demonstrated why they are this season's premiership favourites with an 89-point win over Manor Lakes.

Kicking five goals to the Storm's two in the first quarter, Newport were challenged by a competitive Manor Lakes outfit who have only won the one game this season.

Despite trailing by 20-points, the Storm continued to show spirit in the second quarter, having just as many scoring shots as the top placed side, but failed to make the most of their opportunities in front of goal.

Yet the second half saw the Power's forward pressure unbearable for the Storm, piling on a staggering 11 goals to the Storm's one, to finish with a final score of 19.8.122 to 5.3.33.

Newport's Ali El Houli dominated the forward-line, ending the match with six goals whilst fellow teammates Wajih Taleb and Ali Khaldi kicked ten majors between them.

Sitting second on the ladder is Glenorden, whose percentage was boosted by a healthy 26 per cent over the weekend after a comfortable win over Wyndhamvale.

The opening half saw the visitors come out firing, kicking six goals to nil in the first quarter, followed by an additional four goals in the second term, to go into the major break 61-point leaders.

Whilst the third term saw Falcon player Jack Wenlock score his team's first and only goal for the match, the game was never in doubt, with the Hawks running away 95-point winners.

Glenorden's Mitchell Palma had a terrific performance for the day, named best on field for his team, whilst Timothy Miles and Nathan Johnson were also amongst the visitors' best.

Over at Town Centre Oval, Caroline Springs could not withstand the force of West Footscray, going down to the Roosters by 94-points.

Whilst 17-points separated the two teams at the first quarter break, the Roosters unleashed in the second term and continued to do so for the rest of the day, finishing with a staggering 40 scoring to the Lakers nine.

West Footscray's Bradley Fava kicked an outstanding eight goals for the day, moving him into top position in the competition's leading goal kickers, ahead of Glenorden's Hayden Masson, and Newport's Ali El Houli who also had dominate performances in front of goals.

After their disappointing loss, the Lakers will host Wyndhamvale at home in Round 12 who sit just above them on the ladder in sixth place.

The match of the round will be at Shorten Reserve though, when West Footscray take on Glenorden. With five wins and two loses each, it will be a great to see some of the competition heavy weights go head to head.

Having the bye last weekend, Hoppers Crossing will be fresh to take on Newport Power at Hogans Road Reserve, whilst Manor Lakes will use this week's bye to regroup and prepare for their Round 13 clash against Wyndhamvale.

UMPIRES CORNER

The Centre Square Rule

Everything is in readiness for play to get underway. The controlling field umpire approaches the centre circle and tosses the football high into the air. Before the two ruckmen contest the ball, one of the boundary umpires blows their whistle and indicates that a player has stepped over the circle square. As per the rules, a free kick is paid in the middle of the ground and the game continues.

Law 11.3.4 in the AFL Laws of Australian Football (2013) refers to the number of players permitted in the centre square when the football is being bounced or thrown up by the umpire. The rule is the same for the start of a quarter or when play recommences after a goal has been scored. Only four players from each team are allowed in that area at that time.

From the moment the controlling field umpire commences his or her approach to the centre circle, until the ball hits the ground when the umpire bounces it or until the football leaves the umpire's hand when it is being thrown up, no other player or club official can enter the centre square. If another player or official enters that zone, one of the boundary umpires, who sees the infringement, blows his or her whistle and calls out which team is being penalised. The field umpire signals time on and awards a free kick to the player of the opposing team who is the closest to the centre circle.

All the above is pretty straight forward although there are some variations to the rule which may occasionally occur. If a player is physically pushed or forced into the centre square at the time of a circle bounce or throw up, then a free kick is given against the player who caused the infringement. Also, for this rule, the advantage law doesn't apply. If players or officials from both teams enter the centre square breaking the rule simultaneously, the field umpire shall blow his or her whistle and direct all the offending personnel to leave. When they have left the area, play is then re-commenced with a bounce or throw-up of the football in the centre circle.

If there is an injured player receiving treatment in the centre square when there is a centre bounce or throw up, the field umpire will direct the player to leave the centre square. In this situation, play does not re-start until the player has vacated the centre square. If the injured player doesn't leave the centre square when requested by the field umpire, a free kick will be awarded to the opposition team. This is taken by the player who is closest to the centre circle. If the injured player requires a stretcher, then the field umpire stops the play until the stretcher has left the playing surface.

All players should be well aware of this rule but many not understand all the different variations. Nowadays, coaches do not appreciate when one or more of their players enters the centre circle at the wrong time, contravenes this law and gifts a free kick to the opposition. It tends not to happen very often but it still does.

CLUB HISTORY

The North Sunshine Football Club

Name: North Sunshine Roadrunners

Year it was formed: 1967

Inducted into WRFL: 1971/2

Total Club Premierships: 1 (2003)

Team colours: Red, white, and black

Team mascot: The animal logo is the roadrunner

Home ground: Dempster Park

North Sunshine's senior squad was first fielded in 1971/2, after originally starting out as a running club. Known to many these days as the 'The Roadrunners' and or 'Crossroads', the origin of the club's two nicknames came from a priest who is said to have founded the club, who had to cross the road to play footy.

"It's a story I heard when I started at this club," current club trainer Julian Camilleri commented.

Camilleri has been at the North Sunshine Football Club the longest, and is one of only a few living life members. When asked how the ground and change rooms had altered since the beginning of the club, he exclaimed, "Oh, still the same!"

Whilst the current clubrooms have been up for more than 70 years, come September they will be demolished and a new club facility will be completed by the second round of the 2014 season.

"At first they were going to talk about refurbishing, but they are going to knock the two buildings down and make one big building," club president Ray Portelli explained.

"There'll be a small eatery where you can sit down and watch footy, a bigger trainer's room, bigger change rooms and it'll be more user friendly for both sexes."

Throughout its proud history, just three of the club's players have made it to play at the highest level.

Anthony Stockwell left the club at the age of 16 when he went to play for the Footscray Football Club. He represented the reserves squad, and later transferred to the Richmond reserves.

In the 90s, Danny Del-Re was also drafted to the Bulldogs. Playing as a full-forward, he played 62 games and kicked 139 goals over five seasons.

The most recent Roadrunner to have made it to the AFL is 19-year-old Will Hoskin-Elliott who played his junior football at North Sunshine, before being drafted to Greater Western Sydney in 2011, at pick number four in the National Draft.

Hoskin-Elliott is also the club's number one ticket holder, of which the club hasn't had for a long time. Having not fielded a junior team for a considerable time,

Having not fielded a junior team for a considerable time, Portelli expressed an interest in allowing local schools to use the club facilities, as a way to increase the interest in junior players in the hope of one day fielding a junior side in the near future.

"We're quite happy to join with the council if schools want to play school footy here, they'd have a key to get in to use the facilities."

Camilleri added, "We used to have juniors, and we used to be a stronger club. We'd like to get the juniors back here... you need the juniors to help the club."

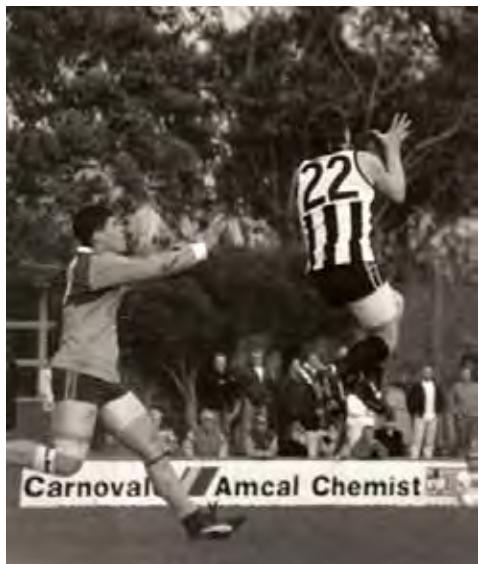

A thank you to Julian Camilleri and Ray Portelli who provided the information which featured in this article.
