PRIME MINISTER SENDS LETTER TO WRFL

MESSAGE FROM PRIME MINISTER JULIA GILLARD

WESTERN REGION FOOTBALL LEAGUE
2013 SEASON LAUNCH

Friends,

The long hot summer is over, autumn is here – and that means it's footy season once again.

Like you, I've been looking forward to this for months, and the Dogs' smashing start against the Lions in Round One is a symbol of the way we all hope the season will pan out for every team in the WRFL.

I know there's been a lot of hard work since the end of last season – not just in training and working off the results of Christmas indulgence, but in preparing the grounds, administration, uniforms and so many other behind-the-scenes functions that it takes to put a team on the field, let alone a regional whole league.

So a big "thank you" to Bill Baarini and everyone in the Western Region Football League who has made this launch possible.

I know every player will give their best in the true spirit of sportsmanship.

And if you're ever short of motivation, just think about the Life Members being inducted tonight and their spirit of loyalty, and you'll never go far wrong.

So play hard – play fair – and have the great season our game deserves.

The Honourable Julia Gillard MP
Prime Minister of Australia
Member for Lalor

2013 WRFL SEASON'S LAUNCH

It was a fitting start to the 2013 season last week, where over 190 club representatives, league partners, local government members and special guests joined the WRFL Board and executive staff to celebrate the start of the new football season.

With all senior football competitions now in full swing, there was a reoccurring theme of excitement, anticipation and celebration, as the absence of football during the off-season was finally over.

WRFL President, Bill Baarini started proceedings on a positive note, reading a letter sent from Prime Minister Julia Gillard (see page 1) to the league, whilst WRFL CEO Bob Tregear welcomed special guests including Western Bulldogs President Peter Gordon, Cr Catherine Cummings, and EJ Whitten Foundation CEO, Ted Whitten Junior.

Representatives from the league's newest clubs, Sanctuary Lakes Administrator Paul Tyres and Manor Lakes President Gary Sheppard, joined MC Kevin Hillier on stage to share their insights into the challenging experiences they have faced, whilst starting a new club.

"Everything that happens at the club this year is creating history....whether it's our first win or loss, the first goal, or our first premiership, everything that happens at our club sets the foundation for our club's history in the future," Sheppard said.

Western Bulldogs President, Peter Gordon, was the special keynote speaker for the night, delivering a down to earth speech, highlighting the emergence of a stronger and more effective WRFL, now operating in one of the fastest growing regions in Australia.

The Hoppers Crossing Football Club were presented with the 2012 Premiership pennant flags for the U18s Division 1 and U18s Division 2 competitions, Yarraville Seddon Eagles took home the Division 2 Seniors and Reserves flags, whilst the Altona Vikings were awarded with the Division 1 Seniors and Reserves pennants.

The highlight of the night for many though, was the induction of the WRFL's two new Life Members in Jim Lee from Parkside, and Ray O'Hara from the Yarraville Seddon Eagles.

The amount of work and time both men have dedicated to each of their respective clubs has been outstanding, and both men were very worthy recipients of the award.

The night was a great success, raising over $1700 for the WRFL's Community Partner, the EJ Whitten Foundation.

RAY O'HARA – LIFE MEMBER

Yarraville Seddon Eagles legend honoured at Season's Launch

At the 2013 Season's Launch on Wednesday April 10, Ray O'Hara was presented with a WRFL Life Membership. Nominated by his club, the Yarraville-Seddon Eagles, O'Hara has been a source of aspiration to those who are involved at the club.

Eagles President, Brett Edwards, best describes Ray as, "the one person that every club wishes they had."

"He's a great figure for me personally, and he's an inspiration for us to do more for our club," Edwards added.

Ray has been with the club for over 40 years, and in that time he has established himself as an integral part of the club. Ray has been involved with many roles within the club, from time keeping, ordering food for the canteen, helping out at training and also doing cleaning up duties after each game.

Not being a man of many words, Ray was genuinely surprised at even being nominated for this honour.

When asked how he felt about achieving this award he said, "I'm very wrapped actually, I wasn't expecting to receive it."

Ray contributes at the club, not because he wants someone to pat him on the back for a job well done, but because he's "150% dedicated to the club," Eagles Administrator, Karen Bermingham said.

"Even when the league was at Yarraville Oval, Ray's always put in so much time and effort...he's an icon at our club, he is the club!"

Ray seems to be the one person at Yarraville Seddon, who knows how everything works and is often described as 'the go-to guy'. Nominated for his unwavering dedication and tireless effort, Ray is the person with all the answers, and is happy to do whatever it takes to get the job done.

Even after the final siren has gone and the crowds have cleared out, you can still find Ray cleaning up the grandstand and switching off the lights at the end of the day. It is this type of dedication, passion and selflessness, which makes Ray a much loved character at the Yarraville Seddon Eagles, and such a worthy recipient of this Life Member award.

JIM LEE INDUCTED AS WRFL LIFE MEMBER

Parkside legend honoured at Season's Launch

There is no greater honour within the Western Region Football League than receiving a Life Membership and having your name etched into the history of the competition forever.

On Wednesday April 10, the WRFL acknowledged Jim Lee's contribution to the league of 55 years, by awarding him this accolade, putting him in the elite company with the other true greats in the league.

Lee has been heavily involved with the Parkside Football Club for many years, covering a number of key roles, throughout his time, including being president for two years and the club secretary for a decade.

"I've been involved at the club in every position bar treasurer, several times over," Lee said.

"Parkside has been my club since I was 16 years-old, and I would never ever be with any other club other than Parkside, whilst it is alive and well."

Lee has been with the club through thick and thin, enjoying the highs and lows of football, and believes that the bad times are when you see the true character of people within a club.

"We've had our clubrooms burnt out, flooded, and we've even had times when we haven't had clubrooms at all. It's times like these you learn who the fair dinkum members are," Lee said.

The reputation of the previous life members holds in good stead, with Lee recognising the significance of the honour and the work other life members have done.

"It's a great honour, I get to follow in the footsteps of some great people, such as Herb Pascal, who I was good friends with and I'd like to think that I've honoured his work with what I've done for the club," he said.

Lee also passed on his congratulations to fellow Life Member inductee, Ray O'Hara from the Yarraville Seddon Eagles.

"I would also like to congratulate Ray O'Hara on his Life Membership, he is a very worthy recipient and it is highly deserved for somebody who has put so much into the club and the league," Lee said.

Wow !

That is all I can say after watching Altona and Spotswood put on a show and a half last Saturday at Grants Reserve before a very good crowd. The game was a classic in every sense.

Altona were pumped after unfurling their first ever Division One flag and it looked at quarter time as if they would run away with the game. They well might have, if they had been playing any other opposition, but they were playing Spotswood and that says it all.

Spotswood worked their way back into the contest and the last quarter was as thrilling and exciting as their last meeting in September. The skill and determination of both sides was amazing and the goals by Reece Miles and Chris O'Keefe in the last quarter when the game was on the line were sublime.

Things don't get easier for Spotswood who will host Hoppers Crossing at McLean Reserve. The Warriors have accounted for St. Albans and Port Colts already and look to be one of the teams to watch in 2013. The Woodsmen were very good and have some new faces in Sam Myors, Shaun Ross and Stu Jones who showed some class and will only get better.

Albion were very competitive against Sunshine and will need all that to match it with Altona. The reigning premiers are all class and the addition of Jayden Post, Ben Norton and a fit John Hevern is ominous for all opposition.

Yarraville Seddon Eagles unfurled their flag and had an historic and memorable win over North Footscray to celebrate their debut in Division One. I am sure the trip to Deer Park this week will be a lot harder task. The Lions won a tight contest against St. Albans and will be better for another game under their belt.

Port Melbourne host the Saints in a most intriguing match up with both keen to get a win on the board. North Footscray need to bounce back after their loss last week and they will find Sunshine pretty tough especially with Tom Millar and Rusty Douglas teaming up in the middle for the Kangaroos.

500 GAMES FOR ST.ALBANS GREAT

By Kirstie Fitzgerald

There are few players throughout the WRFL who can say that they have played over 500 games, and there are even fewer to say this, and remain a one club player throughout their career.

St. Albans player, Dale Marshall, is one of the few who can proudly attest to this, as he celebrated his 500th game for the Saints under lights at Kings Park Reserve, last Friday night.

Despite going down to Deer Park by five points, it was a great occasion for Marshall, being named as one of the Saint's best on ground.

"Being able to reach 500 games with the Saints, as a junior and senior player is both rewarding and a privilege and I have made many lifelong friendships along the journey," Marshall said.

With AFL not a prominent sport in his culture, Marshall began his football career at age eight, playing under Ross Wilshire for the Saints' under 9s team.

"I don't remember much about my first game, but I do know that my first few years playing footy, would set up the rest of my career," he explained.

With his father's support from the sidelines, he continued to play under Wilshire for six seasons, with his four brothers also pulling on the boots for the Saints over the years.

Despite multiple offers from other clubs, Marshall has unquestionably remained with his beloved Saints for more than 25 years.

"Like most footballers, opportunities to play with other clubs presented themselves over the years, but my personal and family connections, are and always will be, with the St Albans footy club."

Throughout his time at the Saints, Marshall's most memorable moments include being part of the 2001 A1 Senior Premiership squad, as well as having the honour of co-captaining the Saints' Reserves Premiership side in 2005.

Spending most of his career as a defender and tagger, he has enjoyed his new role in the Reserves forward-line, with his wife Dianne and two year old daughter Jasmine, supporting him each week.

"Playing sport has been a huge part of my personal life, and to still be playing footy in my early thirties, I consider myself to be extremely fortunate," he said.

Whilst he has no children of his own following in his footsteps just yet, the secondary school teacher has enjoyed playing with some of his ex-students, who he has previously taught at the local high school.

"Last year in the seniors there were about a dozen students who I had taught playing in the one match against Sunshine, with another 20 ex-students of mine playing at the club throughout the different age levels."

Hoping to play football for the Saints for many years to come, the 500 gamer's body may have other plans, as Marshall explains that it is taking a little longer for him to bounce back and recover after each game.

"I will sit down at the end of the footy season and make my decision as to whether I have anything else to offer the club," he said.

Regardless how many more games he has left in the tank, Marshall's passion for the St. Albans football club will continue to live on, with the hope of coaching for the club in the future.

"I would love to coach in some form and help out with the committee again, because playing for the Saints isn't the only reason I put my body through the ringer each week....but it's mainly because I love the St. Albans FC and all the people that make it what it is," Marshall said.

"I would like to take this opportunity to thank all of my coaches over the years, as in some form or another, they have all helped shape me as a player and I have learnt many valuable lessons both on-field from each of them."

DIVISION TWO

Seniors Preview

Round three ought provide more excitement for WRFL fans, with some terrific second division contests on the cards.

In the broadcast match of the day, juggernauts Parkside and Glenorden do battle with the winner usurping premiership favouritism. Glenorden was too strong for the Wyndhamvale Falcons last week and with Damien Yze and Dash Barolli in stellar form, Nick Diker's side are on an early season tear. With more improvement likely and with significant players yet to appear, things are in good order down at the Heathdale Oval.

Parkside have had an excellent start to the year themselves and crushing wins over Braybrook and a much-improved Caroline Springs outfit have them looking bullet-proof early on and it's clear after two rounds that some astute recruiting has augmented an already premiership-calibre Magpies playing list.

Kent Kingsley's much-anticipated debut for the Hawks will be a feature of what should be a fine game, at the Merv Hughes Oval. Also of interest - another Glenorden recruit - former Parkside clearance machine Peter Kreuger taking on his old team. I'm predicting this to be one of the highest standard Division Two games for a very long time and it should be a sensational game of football.

In other matches, winless Caroline Springs take on the undefeated Sunshine Heights in what should be a telling match, both sides looming as finals contenders despite contrasting early season ladder fortunes. The Wyndhamvale Falcons will be hoping to rebound with a victory, as they host West Footscray.

New clubs Manor Lakes and Sanctuary Lakes square off for the first time, with the young Sharks side looking to disrupt the Storm's perfect WRFL entry.

Braybrook travel to Cobraland looking for its first win over undefeated Albanvale. And North Sunshine take on Laverton, with the Road Runners going in underdogs but looking reasonably placed to cause an upset over the Magpies and notching up their first win, for many a long month.

So some fantastic games - all on Saturday afternoon - in what should be tremendous round of footy.

BULLDOGS MUSEUM

Walking through the doors at Whitten Oval, football fans can escape to another era, turning back the clock to get a glimpse at some of the Western Bulldogs most precious treasures, in the new Bulldogs Museum at Whitten Oval.

Whilst having only one premiership to their name over their 130 year history, the sons of the west have a lot to be proud of, showcasing items from their rich and colourful heritage which have played a part in shaping the club since its inception in the 1800s.

People of ages can get up close to the club's one and only day time 1954 Premiership cup, as well as the 2010 NAB Cup, and discover the origins of the old red, white and blue hooped jumpers.

There are also 12 heritage cabinets full of numerous memorabilia items including Charlie Sutton's Jock McHale Medal, old player boots, multiple VFA Premiership trophies, player badges, and even the original game ball from the 1954 Premiership.

Commissioned by the club in 2002, the Team of the Century painting by Jamie Cooper is also on display for the community to see, with the great Ted Whitten running out to a guard of honour on Western Oval, to celebrate the greatest Bulldogs team of all time.

Associate Professor in Sport History at Victoria University, Rob Hess, is the Western Bulldogs resident historian, who along with his team, put together the heritage cabinets in the Museum.

"I have been surprised and impressed by the amazing range of objects that the club has managed to preserve over time- everything from a handwritten letter of thanks to a supporter penned in the nineteenth century, to the mechanism used to operate the old scoreboard, not to mention a vast array of cups, trophies and medallions," Hess said.

"It's been one of the most satisfying experiences of my professional career, uncovering the story behind each object, especially when new discoveries are made, such as Harry Hickey's long forgotten trophy."

Named on the wing in the Bulldogs Team of the Century, Triple Best and Fairest winner, and former captain, Harry Hickey's 1939 Most valuable Service Trophy is displayed proudly in the museum, after it was discovered in a Seaford backyard, late last year.

In addition, the Cabinets celebrate numerous icons of the west, such as premiership captain/coach Charlie Sutton, Doug Hawkins, Chris Grant, and Brad Johnson, Brownlow medalists in Tony Liberatore, Scott Wynd and Adam Cooney and of course all the memorable times from the 60s through to the 90s.

The Footscray/Western Bulldogs Hall of Fame also takes pride of place in the Museum, honoring those people whose involvement and contribution to the club have been significant and memorable, paying tribute to 37 inductees including John Schultz, Brian Royal, Jack Collins, Allan Hopkins and Scott West.

Located at Whitten Oval, the Bulldogs Museum is free for everyone to visit, opening from 9am-5pm every weekday, and on Saturday between 9am-2pm.

CLUB LEGENDS

Len Murphy from Spotswood Football Club

Len Murphy has been involved with the Spotswood Football Club for more than 50 years, first joining the club as a 13 year old, in the Under 16's team.

Since his debut in 1961, Len 'Spud' Murphy continues to have a presence at the SFC today, currently taking on the role as head of the supporter group.

"The nickname Spud came because over in Ireland, Murphy's were called 'Spuds,' and my grandparents had a fruit shop in Spotswood, so naturally I was called Spud," Murphy said.

Murphy has received a number of honours throughout his time at Spotswood, including being awarded the AFL Victoria Volunteer of the Year award in 2010, Life Membership of the WRFL and at Spotswood, and was named as a ruck in Spotswood's Team of the Century.

Since retiring from playing in 1981, Murphy and his family have continued to be heavily involved with the club.

"I still run the supporter group, and my wife runs the canteen," Murphy said.

"There's been four generations of Murphy's play at Spotswood. My son played there and I have five grandchildren playing there too."

Murphy's various roles at the club have included running the supporter group since 1981 and filling the role of vice-president for over twenty years.

A 260 game and seven time premiership player, 'Spud' also had a very unique pre-game ritual, back in his playing days.

"I used to like to have a couple of beers before the game," Murphy said.

"How that started was one day I walked into the pub to get a lift to the game and one of our life members was there, and I ordered a lemon squash and he said to me what are you doing? If you're going to have that you might as well have a beer, it's all liquid going into you."

"So the next week before the game I went there and had a beer and I played pretty well that day, so that's how that started," Murphy said.

Collecting such an array of achievements, throughout his 50 years with Spotswood, it's safe to say that 'Spud' is one of the WRFL's true club legends of the game.

If you think there is someone at your club who is a Club Legend, let us know about it! Please email the WRFL Media Team at k.fitzgerald@wrfl.asn.au

NEW PAVILION OPENED

Hogans Road Reserve

After many years of planning, the newly renovated Hogans Road Reserve Pavilion has been declared open for business for season 2013.

Originally planning the idea of having a pavilion 10 years ago, the Hoppers Crossing Sports Club officially began putting ideas into action in 2004, after managing to raise over $2.5million for the first stage of the three part master plan to be completed.

Stage One of the development has seen the re-alignment of the two football ovals, allowing for more space between the two grounds for the pavilion to be situated.

The Pavilion includes brand new change rooms with toilets and showers, a fully functional canteen, community room; umpires change rooms, trainers' rooms and gymnasium.

The Hoppers Crossing Sports Club is made up of several sporting clubs including netball, darts, swimming, fishing, golf, basketball, cricket and a football club, who will all benefit from the new facilities.

Officially opening the new Pavilion on March 26, President of the Hoppers Crossing Sports Club (HCSC), Darren Hellmann, is extremely proud of what his club have been able to achieve.

“It’s great to see that this is what you can achieve when you’re patient and have a long term plan. There have been many changes to the circumstances regarding financing and the timing of this development so we are very satisfied to have the first stage behind us and we now have a facility which we can be proud of Hellmann said.

In conjunction with the HCSC, the Wyndham Council have also contributed to the redevelopments, providing financial support for the re-alignment of the ovals, cricket nets, lighting, goal posts, netting, new car-parking, coaches boxes and landscaping.

“The commitment the council has made is near on $5 million, and their willingness to sit down with us every month and go through the plans for the pavilion and reserve has been fantastic,” Hellmann said.

“We want to give our sporting clubs the best possible opportunity to perform at their maximum potential, and I don’t think people understand just how much of a commitment the council have made, to make this a reality for us.”

Originally planning to have the developments completed before Christmas last year, heavy winter rains saw construction delayed for six weeks.

“We are still in for some more disruptions over the 12 months or so due to Council car park works, but the worst of it is behind us now and we can enjoy the new facilities.”

Stage Two of the master plan will involve the construction of a sports bar, which will join onto the current change rooms, whilst the old change rooms are set to be turned into a fully functional bistro.

“Eventually, in the future we will be looking to extend upstairs to build a function centre, including lifts for more access, but I don’t even want to put a timeframe on its completion, because it’s all relative to finances.” Hellmann said.

The HCSC President was quick to express his gratitude to all the people who have contributed to the development of the new facilities, in particularly to the General Manager George Csio.

“There hasn’t been anyone else who has put in more time and effort into this than George, and he has been fantastic in getting this all up and running. I’d also like to thank the HCSC Board, ex-mayor Kim McAliney for her support of the project, the Wyndham Council, and all of our members who have put both time and money into this, your support has been truly appreciated and the result is there for all to see.”

UNDER 18 DIVISION ONE

Preview & Ladders

In their inaugural match in the Division One competition, the Yarraville Seddon Eagles were no match for Albion, going down to the Cats by 37 points on the weekend.

In a high tension game, the Eagles proved they were up for the challenge early, keeping up with the pace of Albion, with both teams kicking three majors in the opening term.

With windy conditions proving tough at times, the Cats dug deep in the second, with tall man Josh Michetti taking a great mark in the forward line, helping his team go into the half-time break with a handy three point lead.

It was a tight tussle in the third quarter with the Eagles applying pressure in defence and on the score board, with Paul Azar kicking an inspirational goal, to help put his team two points up, going into the last term.

With only three points separating the sides at every change, the Eagles ran out of legs in the last, with Albion stepping it up a gear and piling on a mammoth six goals to go out 37 point winners.

Yarraville Seddon Eagles assistant coach, David Bongetti, was happy with the performance, but said that his team needed to be more consistent when it came to training during the week.

“The guys had a good wake up call today, they realised that they can’t just turn up and expect it to happen, they have to get down to training each week and work hard together,” Bongetti said.

“I don’t think the higher division is an issue...we’ve got players who just need to learn how to play together and get fitter, and if they can get down to training more often, that will happen.”

Around the grounds, Spotswood started off their 2013 season campaign competitively, defeating the Altona Vikings by a comfortable 20 points.

The Woodsmen shot out of the blocks early in the match, keeping the Vikings scoreless in the opening term.

Jordan Bennett was impressive kicking five majors for the day, whilst Jack Cairns and Brodie Oakford were named in Spotswood’s best.

Albion taking a good mark over the Eagles, in their opening Round 1 match last week

Over at Kings Park Reserve, it was a much closer affair, with Deer Park coming home with the chocolates against the Saints in a two point thriller.

Holding most of the lead throughout the day, inaccuracy proved fatal for the Saints, as Deer Park steam rolled home in the last term, kicking 26 points to the Saints one, finishing the match with a final score of 8.8.56 to the Saints 6.18.54.

Having a bye in the first round, Hoppers Crossing come into the season with fresh legs, and will be up against an in-form Spotswood side, at McLean Reserve next Saturday.

Deer Park will host the Eagles for Round Two at John McLeod Oval, Albion will look to make it two wins on the trot against Altona at home, whilst the Saints will look to improve on last week’s performance over the bye this week.

CLUB PERSONALITY FOR THE WEEK

Fabulous Phil

Known to many as the lead singer of 70's favourite pub group, the Blue Echoes, Phil Golotta has had a passion for football for many years. An Essendon fan all his life, Phil sponsored players from the Essendon Football Club until 1993, when a player failed to return his call. What became that player's loss was Hoppers Crossing Football Club's incredible gain.

Since then, Phil Golotta, or 'fabulous Phil' as the players affectionately know him, has ensured that every single player in the senior's squad has sponsorship.

"Sponsorship is very important and I do it because I don't want a young player looking up at that board and seeing he doesn't have a spot," Phil said.

Since retiring from his business, Westside Talent, his time and energy has been spent negotiating with multiple businesses, in the hope of acquiring more support for players at the club. Whilst it wasn't quite as easy as just singing them a song, Phil had secured an amazing 36 new sponsors for players within three weeks, ensuring that no player would be left behind.

"Fabulous Phil" performs at special occasions at the club, whether it's at the Hoppers Crossing dinner dance or presentation nights.

"Sometimes it's impromptu, when we've won a couple of premierships I've got up here and sang," he said.

It appears both performing and the Hoppers Crossing Football Club are massive parts of Phil's life, given the amount of time and dedication he puts into them. Over the years, he's been offered leading roles within the club and turned them down.

"It's such a big club ...so I prefer not to be a recognized member, but just do things off my own bat so I don't have the pressure on me."

Not having a recognized role within the club has given Phil more time to focus on performance, "a couple of months ago I did something that I've always wanted to do...so without telling anybody I auditioned for X-factor."

At 74 years of age, Phil has gotten through to see the main judges in a couple of weeks. This is an example of his determined and dedicated spirit, something that is also evident in his work at the Club. Regardless of how Phil goes at the X-Factor auditions, I'm sure he will be singing at the Hoppers Crossing Football Club for many years to come.

DIVISION 2 UNDER 18

Preview

Newport Power have the perfect chance to start its first Under 18 side in the WRFL with back to back wins this weekend, when it hosts fellow league newcomers Manor Lakes in Round Three.

The Power has enlisted the help of Life Member and nearly 300 game veteran, George Abboud, as the side's inaugural head coach for season 2013.

Abboud brings with him a wealth of coaching experience, involved with teams in the EFL, EDFL and VAFA, before returning to his home club.

"It was a lot of hard work, a lot of phone calls, a lot of meetings with players and a lot of running around trying to organize players, but we got there in the end."

The new coach has quickly made his mark at the club, setting his team a 'zero tolerance' approach to their behavior on the field.

They'll meet a Storm side, devastated to the tune of 157 points at the hands of Hoppers Crossing last weekend.

"If these boys look at the scores over the weekend gone, they'll think this will be an easy one. We'll be talking to them, and telling them not to take any game for granted," said Abboud.

Newport will wear black armbands for this Saturday's away meeting with Manor Lakes, at the newly opened Howqua Reserve.

Last weekend was one to forget at Hogans Road Reserve, as the Storm could only find the middle of the big sticks twice, with both goals coming in the second term.

The day belonged to Andre Bistisi, who slotted home six goals for last year's finalist, to stake his claim for selection in the Hoppers' Division One U18s side.

It wasn't enough to take the interim honors for the season's highest goal kicker though. Currently Glenorden's Brent James holds that title, with eight next to his name.

On the weekend, he only managed the one major, as his Hawks grinded out a solid 30 point win at the newly developed Heathdale

Oval against Wyndhamvale.

In a low scoring game, the Falcons struggled to find avenues to goal, managing just the one major in the first three quarters, eventually going down at the final siren, 24 to 54.

West Footscray posted their first win of 2013, making the winners list for the first time this season, with a 41 point win over Caroline Springs.

The Lakers put up a fight in the second term, wrestling the margin back to within 21 points at half time.

It couldn't be maintained though, as the Roosters lifted another gear after the major break in a five goals to one, third term.

They'll now travel to the Dennis Family Oval to face Wyndhamvale as Round Three gets underway this Saturday morning.

It shapes up to be a tight contest, with both winning and losing the one game in the early stages of this season.

While Hoppers Crossing will be confident of securing a win over the struggling Caroline Springs, in yet another home game for the Warriors.

Glenorden who sits top of the ladder, undefeated and boasting a percentage of 191 - will this week enjoy the bye.

Ex-Tiger Jayden Post returns to Altona

These are the words every junior footballer aspiring to reach the upper echelons of the game, wants to hear.

“When I was 16, I don’t think anyone would’ve pictured me getting drafted.”

They are the words of Jayden Post, the returning Altona Viking who admits he probably surprised a few around him when he was drafted in 2008.

Through a bit of dedication to getting the best out of himself, life changed quickly for this former AFL utility.

A product of the Western Jets program, the now 23-year-old endured an up and down three years with Richmond.

In that time, he managed 30 games, playing both forward and back, and often in the colours of the Tigers’ affiliate team, Coburg.

“When I left Richmond, the conversation I had with (Coach Damien) Hardwick, was mate it’s really through no fault of your own,” said Post.

“He goes you’ve done everything you possibly could to make yourself a better player – and I genuinely believe I did.”

What’s become Richmond’s loss, will become Altona’s gain.

Their highly regarded head coach, Anthony Eames, will welcome the versatile 195cm tall onto a list that’s already brimming with talent.

The new number seven will join a swag of talented VFL expats at the club, with the likes of Travis Lunardi, Kane McKenzie and Steven Kennedy just to name a few.

Even in his final season at the Tigers, Post said he got down to as many Altona games as he could.

It’s for that reason he said, his new teammates consider him “one of the boys”.

“That’s kind of made the transition a lot easier to come back.”

“I’ve been pretty happy with how I’ve been received and the boys have treated me like any other bloke who’s come along from any other club.”

And that’s one of the things Post is most looking forward to. Getting back to the reason why he first played footy, for the fun of playing with “your mates”.

Post believes the side that last year broke through for a Grand Final triumph by a single point over perennial finalists Spotswood, is even stronger this season.

But he’s earmarked the improving lists at Deer Park, Hoppers Crossing and St Albans as ones to watch in 2013.

“I think just from my time playing footy it’s probably the strongest the league’s ever been.”

In his first home and away game back, Post nailed four goals up forward as Altona enjoyed a three-point season opening win over an inaccurate Spotswood.

Altona are away taking on Albion in the Division 1 Seniors in Round Two on Saturday to be played at JR Parsons Reserve at 2.15pm.

UMPIRES CORNER

By Graeme Hodgart

With the football season now upon us, it is time to pull out the old umpire whites, whistles and flags for another year in the WRFL.

Whilst we have been inundated with articles on the AFL and all its trials, triumphs, tragedies and tribulations over the off-season, it is time to fold up the newspaper after a lazy Saturday morning and stroll down to the local footy ground.

With last year's victories, losses and near misses now all a part of history, the new season brings with it fresh hopes and expectations. Seeing some club greats hanging up the boots last season, and others moving on to different clubs and associations, it's great to see new recruits and fresh faces progress up through the lower grades, and take their place in the side.

The same can also be said about the umpires, who have been hard at training since the first week in February. Sadly, quite a few of us have had to retire, those being mainly the young secondary students who find it difficult to commit to training and umpiring when faced with increased workloads and longer hours dedicated to their studies.

Whilst we have lost a few to retirement, we are proud to see a handful of our WRFL umpires be accepted at a VFL level, after being invited to try out over the summer months. Everyone at the WFRL wishes them well and we hope they can eventually gain some senior experience to have an opportunity to be part of the AFL umpiring fraternity one day.

There will also be many new faces featuring amongst the umpires in WRFL during this month, some of whom come with previous experience. Greg Denison was a top field umpire in the WRFL five or six years ago, before having a shot at the VFL and performing impressively. Now, after a short break from umpiring, he is back at the WRFL, with his wealth of knowledge and experience sure to be a great bonus for the league.

Whilst many fresh faces are new to umpiring, it is hoped that a number of them will slowly begin to climb through the ranks after gaining some experience in the junior grades on a Sunday and in the U18 games on Saturday. Even though the likes of Andrew Fregonese, Terry O'Donnell, Bob Wallace, Terry McGarity, John Sutton, Alan Pascoe, Henry McFerran, Paul Battaglia and Geoff Tressider all love their umpiring, they just can't keep going on forever. Hopefully the next generation of umpires will be fully equipped with the skills, the discipline and the desire to take their places when called upon to do so.
