IMPORTANT MESSAGE FROM CEO

Bob Tregear

A quick glance around the 120-plus WRFL matches played across Melbourne's west each weekend reveals the unique multicultural makeup of our community. Any doubts would be quickly dispelled by examination of team sheets, where correct pronunciation of the myriad names is a challenge in itself! It's clear that the western region is the mixing bowls for cultures from all parts of the world.

Australian Football has been an important catalyst for the integration of successive waves of immigrants to this country over the past seventy years. In the 1950s, 60s and 70s it was the Europeans who first learnt then came to dominate the game at all levels, both on and off the field. The 1970s, 80s and 90s featured a mainly Asian migrant stream who, while not as prominent in our game, still made their mark and now account for a significant number of AFL club members. The 1980s and 90s saw the arrival of large numbers from middle-eastern countries, especially from Lebanon who have again adapted well as players at community and AFL levels. Our own Bachar Houli started his career at Spotswood and has gone on to stardom at Essendon and Richmond.

The current wave of newcomers is dominated by families of African origin. They have quickly established a prominent face in the game, with another WRFL graduate Majak Daw (ex-Wyndhamvale) blazing the trail at North Melbourne as the first Sudanese-born AFL player.

The WRFL has played a huge role in the integration and development of the multi-cultural face of today's football. More than any other, this League has contributed to the success and popularity of the game as one fit for the world stage. It's disappointing then to hear the abuse and vilification voiced by a troublesome minority of players and spectators towards players and umpires from non-Australian backgrounds. Already this season we have received three official charges of vilification that will need to undergo mediation. This is unforgivable, especially as all players and the parents of juniors sign-off on a code of conduct that specifically outlaws any form of abuse or vilification.

Our game has benefited greatly from the involvement of players and officials from all corners of the globe. The vast majority of WRFL followers have welcomed them into the fold and are proud of their achievements. There is no room for any form of racial or religious intolerance in our game and those who would seek to perpetrate it are not welcome. Everyone has a responsibility to ensure that our games remain a friendly and welcoming environment to everyone, no matter what their origin. The WRFL Board has a zero-tolerance attitude to vilification. We trust that all players, official and spectators will heed the call to ensure that the WRFL is seen as a model for Australian Football.

HOPPERS CROSSING LADIES DAY

Celebrating women in football

In a sea of pink balloons, table decorations and sweet smelling aroma, the Hoppers Crossing Football Club celebrated women in football at their annual Ladies Day Luncheon last Saturday.

Dressing in a touch of pink, over 90 women were treated to a day of indulgence, with a two course buffet lunch, drinks and entertainment, in order to highlight the importance of women and the many roles they play within football clubs.

In its 11th year, function organiser, Kylie Buckingham was excited to see the amount of women who made the effort to dress up and attend the event, and was very pleased with how the overall day went.

“Originally it started as a social gathering with only a handful of women, so the player’s wives, girlfriends and mothers could meet and create new friendships for the coming season.

“But with the player change rooms having moved into our new pavilion this year, we now we have the space to hold more women, and the turnout has been fantastic.” said Buckingham

With multiple door prizes and huge raffle draw, everyone was a winner on the day, collecting a special gift bag upon arrival, which included beauty samples, vouchers and most importantly a three-step breast check guide for women.

With approximately 40 women diagnosed with Breast Cancer in Australia each day, all money raised from the event was donated to the Breast Cancer Network Australia.

“In order to highlight the importance of early detection, we have included a breast check chart for all women in their gift bags, with all money raised going to the BCNA, in line with Pink Sports day,” Ms Buckingham said.

Injured Hoppers Crossing player, Kade Carey, was the guest speaker for the day, discussing his football career in a down to earth Q&A with host Kylie Buckingham.

“The work women do behind the scenes is amazing, helping out in all aspects of the club, so to have a day which recognises their hard work is a great idea,” Carey said.

Many women throughout the football community were in attendance, including Yarraville Seddon ex-president Karen Bermingham, who was delighted to be part of the day.

“It was really great for Hoppers to invite a few of us Yarraville Ladies here, and I must say the day has been really well organised, with great catering, and a good atmosphere.

“Women are part of the football community, so it’s a great way to celebrate that and we’re hoping to hold our Ladies Day come early June,” Bermingham said.

With Spotswood, Caroline Springs and Hoppers Crossing holding Ladies Days already this year, the tradition continues this weekend when the Sunshine Football Club hold their Ladies Day this Saturday, at Kinder Smith Reserve.

ANDREW LOVETT

Ex-AFL player set to make his WRFL debut

Former AFL player, Andrew Lovett, is set to strap on the boots for Deer Park this Saturday afternoon, when he makes his WRFL debut against Albion.

Known for his quick pace and silky skills, the 30-year-old officially signed a two year contract with the Lions last week, after leaving the Gippsland League's Maffra Football Club.

Deer Park President, Mark McGoldrick was delighted to secure the services of the 2005 Anzac Day medalist, explaining that there were numerous discussions involved in the contract, before the deal was announced.

"Andrew has some mates playing with us and indicated that he was not enjoying the travel up to the bush each weekend, especially with a young family and we had numerous discussions before finalizing a deal that suited both parties," McGoldrick said.

Having played nearly 100 AFL games, Lovett spent five seasons with Essendon from 2005-2009, before being traded to St.Kilda in 2010.

Since leaving the AFL, Lovett has played numerous games at a grassroots level, including stints at East Perth, Fitzroy Stars and Darwin.

"The club is super excited to have Andrew at our club, he will bring an X-factor to the team and will create a lot of interest for the competition and in particularly our junior players, who will be excited to see him in our jumper," McGoldrick said.

Lovett's former Essendon teammate and now current Deer Park Senior coach, Marc Bullen, is looking forward to adding Lovett to his already talented squad.

"Andrew has the ability to win games off his own boot and we will aim to play him through the midfield and in the forward line, so we can utilize his pace, ball use and goal kicking ability.

"It is an exciting time for our club to have a player of Andrew's class running around and we believe a midfield combination of McHarg, Klix, Aryes and Lovett will give us the leg speed required to complement our inside midfielders," Bullen said.

Dubbed the 'Dream Team' by many this season, the Lions have come a long way since their disappointing sixth place finish in 2012, as they are the only team to be unbeaten in the Division One competition this season.

Appointing Marc Bullen as the club's senior coach over the summer, Deer Park have won four straight games this year, sitting top of the ladder and with the inclusion of Lovett, look like one of the premiership favourites for season 2013.

Tracy's Joins the A4e Group of Companies

Locals may have recently noticed some changes in the branding of The Tracy Group – a leading provider of education and job services in regional Victoria and Western Melbourne.

The Ballarat-based Tracy Group is a Job Services Australia provider who is well known in the Western suburbs of Melbourne. The group also includes FastTrack, providing labour hire and payroll services, and a Registered Training Organisation known as ICP Educational Institute, which delivers over 49 qualifications, nine accredited courses and nine individual units.

In 2011, The Tracy Group was acquired by A4e Australia – a branch of the UK-based employment services and welfare to work provider.

A4e delivers services across nine countries and began operating in Australia in 2009, where a few years after they acquired The Tracy Group.

Tim Tracy, former Managing Director of The Tracy Group and current Chief Operating Officer of A4e Australia noted: “The many synergies between the companies made for a natural fit - both businesses began as simple, family operated service providers and have now been successfully providing employment and related services for some 20 years.”

“The merger of the two organisations will result in the delivery of an exceptional suite of services to our clients, both employers and jobseekers, who will still experience the same high level of quality service,” Tim said.

As part of A4e Australia, The Tracy Group will continue to operate across 14 locations in regional Victoria and Melbourne, and will continue to offer nationally accredited training in areas such as Aged Care, Children Services, Disability Work, Employment Services and Hairdressing.

They will also deliver a variety of pre-vocational training courses to assist people seeking to enter or re-enter the workforce.

Under A4e Australia, Tracy's will continue to provide the same high quality service as they have done for twenty years.

WRFL Radio special comments man Steve Thom has labeled Deer Park “The Dream Machine” after their win over reigning premiers Altona last Saturday.

Social media pundits have been mockingly calling Marc Bullen’s team “The Dream Team” which Steve has never liked, but after what he saw, especially in the first half last weekend, he is a believer.

To Altona’s credit they got their game back on track in the second half and were very good in the last quarter, reducing the margin to only 15-points. New recruits Andy Lovett, Heath Ayres and Joe Laverde are yet to play a game, so the Lions will be further strengthened in the coming weeks-an ominous sign for other clubs. People are already talking about the Spotswood game in Round 7.

This week though, the Lions will take on Albion who will be buoyed by their nearly 100-point victory over North Footscray. Altona will be at home to Port Melbourne Colts who are sitting second bottom on the ladder, a position they are not used to and certainly not wanting to keep. Expect a very hungry and fired up Colts to run onto Grant Reserve.

The Match of the day this week is at Kinder Smith Reserve when Sunshine hosts Hoppers Crossing. Both last round winners and both keen to cement their spots in the top five. Patrick Wiggins and Mitch Hahn tore it up last weekend, something the Warriors will be very mindful of. Hoppers found new ways to goal without spearhead Kade Carey with their midfielders Kitchen and Murphy kicking four majors each. This will be a great game between two very evenly matched teams, make sure you tune into 88.9 WYN FM for the coverage.

Spotswood will be too strong for North Footscray and will be looking to get premiership players Lachlan McGhie and Mick Lewis into the lineup in the next few weeks.

Sunshine’s Macauley Goring and Ex-Western Bulldog player Mitch Hahn in their Round 3 clash against Deer Park

St. Albans are my team to watch for the next month before the Queen’s Birthday bye. They have been playing some good football but not getting the results on the board. They do need a change of fortune with injuries, but I think they are about to get on a roll in the next month and give the five a real shake starting this Saturday against Yarraville Seddon Eagles.

DIVISION TWO

Seniors Preview

Round Six of Division Two contains two pivotal contests.

On Saturday afternoon, the Wyndhamvale Falcons host Sunshine Heights. It's a crucial game for the Falcons who, having been defeated by Glenorden in Round Two and then by Parkside last week, are needing victories against fellow top-three contenders to give credence to their double chance claims. A win over the Dragons will have the Falcons back on track, whilst defeat will potentially be another costly setback.

The battle of the midfields will be significant. Sunshine Heights have an emerging ruckman in Dalton Tonkin, whose duels with the combative Nathan Reschke and the high-marking Quentin Suckling will be vital.

Equally important will be control of the stoppage ball. The Dragons possess one of the division's best ball-winners, Nick Mallia, who with Michael Nicolaides will give the Falcons plenty of headaches round the packs. Tough-tackling Devan Ellis and the ultra-reliable Luke Dennerley will need to have good days for Wyndhamvale.

It may be that Cam Beazley, recruited to add physical strength to the Falcon midfield mix and a consistently good player for many years, will have a significant part to play in the outcome of the game, which should be a superb and tough contest and a great exhibition of WRFL footy.

The other defining match of the round will occur at Heathdale Oval on Sunday, where Glenorden will unveil new clubrooms - and perhaps an ex-AFL star or two - before battling for top spot with competition newcomers Manor Lakes. Both sides have won five from five and have booming percentages, so it should be a sensational advertisement for Division Two football.

The Storm have unearthed some terrific players and have been a revelation, but the Hawks with the 'Shepparton Connection' of Dash Barolli and Damien Yze in ripping form, are looking indestructible to this point and are the nominal warm favourites.

In other matches, Braybrook host Sanctuary Lakes in what should be a tightly-fought battle. West Footscray, with skipper Mark Speakman leading the way, will give themselves a chance of an upset win over Albanvale at Cobraland.

Whilst the other matches of the round look likely to follow predictable plotlines, with Caroline Springs and Parkside expected to enjoy comfortable wins over North Sunshine and the Laverton Magpies respectively.

Nonetheless, another compelling round of Division Two football spread over two days - WRFL fans continuing to be spoilt for choice in 2013!

Jumper Number: #1

Favourite Position: Fwd Flank / Wing

This season's highlight: Round 2, turning a 50m penalty into a 150m run and then screwing up the kick at goal!

Career highlights: Hadn't played footy since under 16's and then returning in my 30s to play over here in Melbourne has been a highlight.

Career aim: Not how sure many years I can continue to play...but to just have constant progression in my footy.

My pre-game ritual is:

CLUB LEGEND OF THE WEEK

John Purches of Albanvale FC

John 'Purch' Purches has been honoured by the Brimbank City Council for his volunteer work with the Albanvale Football Club.

The Council inducted Purcho into their Hall of Fame at their sports awards night to recognise his 25 years of work with the club.

The 59-year-old began volunteering at the club taking on roles such as goal umpire, water runner and assistant coach, when his sons first started playing in 1987.

He also took on the role of club administrator for 17 years, before standing down at the end of the 2012 season.

"John's basically held the club together in terms of the paperwork and the communication aspect for those 17 years," said current Albanvale club administrator, Steve Micallef.

Although no longer in his official position with the Cobras, Purcho is still actively involved at the club, providing support for the players and board members.

"He's still who you turn to whenever things come up and he's been to every game and I suspect he'll still be at every game from here on in," said Micallef.

"This year officially he has no role, but unofficially he's as much a part of it as he ever was," said Micallef.

Over his time at Albanvale, Purcho has been a significant figure, at all levels of the club.

He is seen as the 'voice of reason' at the Cobras, and a laid back character who just gets the job done.

"He's mild mannered, happy go lucky, until things aren't going our way on the field, then the passionate supporter in him comes out," said Micallef.

"He's that conduit between generations of the football club and generations of the committee as well he's seen as a father figure and a mentor as well."

Purches was initially unaware that he was being honoured within the Brimbank City Council with his Hall of Fame position, as he was away on a holiday when it was announced.

"He didn't know anything about it, he was away with his wife on a holiday cruise when we got the announcement, so when he came back he got a nice little surprise and we went to the awards ceremony the other week for them," said Micallef.

Adding to his accolades, John has also previously been honoured with a Life Membership at the Albanvale Football Club for his involvement at the club.

25 years of volunteering at a club is a great effort, with the recognition by the council a fitting tribute to Purches, who is no doubt a true club legend.

Preview

Altona have finished second best against a powerful Deer Park outfit, going down by 33-points at John McLeod Oval last Saturday.

Whilst a competitive first term saw both sides finish on fourteen points apiece, the second quarter saw Deer Park take the upper hand, with an early lead of nine points.

The second half saw the Vikings run out of legs and the Deer Park squad fire, as the Lions booted five goals to two in the second half.

Deer Park's midfielders once again combined effectively, and were instrumental in the four final quarter goals which sealed the win. Altona's Jay Paton also produced an exceptional performance in a losing side, and was the Vikings' best on ground for the day.

Altona coach, Sean Grima was somewhat happy with his team's efforts, however said there was still room for improvement.

"We did move the ball quickly, but what we need to work on is our communication, and our disposal of the footy.

"We had just as much of the footy as they (Deer Park) did yesterday, but we kicked it right back to them!" Grima joked.

Meanwhile, Hoppers Crossing has made a name for themselves as the team to beat, restricting Yarraville

Seddon to a mere three points, in a 172-point demolition. Hayden Bray and Daniel Strnak were standouts, booting five goals apiece.

The strong Warriors side are producing some interesting statistics: their already-high percentage has soared a further 256 per cent after the Round Four clash, with their three opponents this year having scored an average of 21.

St. Albans made the trip across to McLean Reserve and have recorded their first win of the season over Spotswood. The visitors were on top for the entirety of the game, and won easily by 52- points. The Saints' Anthony Fawcus kicked seven majors for the game, and was an integral member of the squad.

Altona can now look forward to the bye this week, and will have an extended period to prepare themselves for round six. Deer Park will be hoping to continue their successful start to the season, taking on Albion, who comes off the bye.

Hoppers Crossing will also be looking to remain on the winners list, and retain their premiership favouritism, when they travel to McLean Reserve take on the wayward Spotswood.

Yarraville Seddon will be looking to get their first win of the season, playing St. Albans at home. The Eagles currently sit at the foot of the ladder, and one above them are their opponents, the Saints.

Time to Test

For men approaching 50
Make a date with your GP

Prostate Cancer can be a silent killer often having no symptoms.
Don't take the risk.

one blood test

YOUR TIME TO TEST IS NOW!

Men want the best performance from their cars right? What about their bodies? When was the last time you gave yourself a health tune up?

Just like a car needs a regular tune up, men approaching 50 should be aware that their bodies may also need a tune up.

It seems like men pay more attention to their cars than their health – and it is showing up on their growing waistlines. Life expectancy for men is 4.6 years less than it is for women. That's nearly 5 years more time that women have to play with your money when you are gone.

Men have heard the health warnings, but are guys taking action?

A growing waistline is one warning sign to check your health for men at any age however at 50 there is one thing that can be a silent killer that often has no symptoms – Prostate Cancer. A blood test is an easy way to check for this and other health issues.

When was the last time you gave your body a tune up or had a blood test with your GP for cholesterol or diabetes? One blood test can cover many areas including Prostate problems.

A blood test is a quick and easy way to begin your health tune up.

PLAYER GRADUATE

Ex-Spotswood player Spencer White becomes a Saint

It's easy to see why St.Kilda chose Spencer White at pick #25 in the 2012 AFL national draft.

Standing at 196cm, he has all the makings of a future AFL star, with many already comparing him to Hawthorn spearhead, Lance Buddy Franklin.

Picking up the football when he was eight years old, White began his junior career with the Research Football Club playing with the side for two years, before moving to play for the Macleod Football Club.

"I moved around a bit in my junior career, playing football at Research, until I moved house and started playing for Macleod," White said.

Having moved to Williamstown, White pulled on the emerald and gold, playing for Spotswood in the U16s, before playing in the WRFL's interleague squad.

"I played interleague for a few years then got invited to the Western Jets where I played 16's and then 18's for two years, before I was picked up by St.Kilda last year," White explained.

Running the 20m sprint in 2.89sec and having an incredible leap, the 19-year-old will be a tough opponent for any defender and is only going to get bigger with maturity.

"I love footy because I have played it all my life, and there is no better feeling than getting a win with your team mates. I love the challenge and the fact that you always have areas to improve on."

White seems to have the X-factor all AFL teams look for, kicking a spectacular long running goal-similar to that of Buddy Franklin, for VFL affiliate side Sandringham last week.

Playing in the same team as Riewoldt and Koschitzke, White now has the best possible chance to learn from some of the great key forwards from the last decade.

"My role model would definitely be Nick Riewoldt, especially since I came to the club he has been huge for my development and has been an elite key forward for many years," White said.

Recovering from a wrist injury late last year, the young Saint said it wasn't easy getting to where he is now, and puts it all down to hard work.

"The best advice I got as a junior was that talent means nothing without hard work," he said.

"I think it is so important to give everything if you want to make it big, and that might mean you have to make sacrifices but ultimately it is worth it."

With exceptional marking ability and the flexibility to play back and as a forward, we are sure to be seeing a lot more of Spencer White in the future, as he may just be the key to help the Saints capture that elusive premiership.

DIVISION TWO – UNDER 18

Preview

A narrow win at home by just two points has ensured Newport sits top of the ladder after five rounds of the Division Two Under 18's season.

In a thrilling finish to the weekend's game against a toughened Glenorden outfit, the Power stormed home before the final siren, to produce a 64 to 62 win.

But it was an uphill battle all day for Newport on Bryan Martyn Oval, trailing at every major change.

The biggest blowout came at half time, as the Power wandered into the rooms trailing by 25 points.

In a stunning turnaround, the boys in teal, white and black hammered through seven goals to three in the second half, to produce a famous win.

The result means Newport remains the only team in the competition, to be undefeated in 2013.

Manor Lakes earlier showed why it will battle to win a single game in the Storm's debut season, losing to nearest rival Caroline Springs by 18-points.

It was a competitive effort from the Storm, who led going into the final term by four points; however three goals from Chris McKenzie saw the Lakers come home with the chocolates.

The Storm are now anchored to the bottom of the ladder, with a percentage just under 20 per cent.

And in the late game wrapping up round five last Saturday, Hoppers Crossing nearly blew a massive lead against Wyndhamvale.

Even with a huge 43-point lead at three-quarter time, the Warriors could only hang on to post a 15-point away win against the Falcons.

Glenorden's Aaron Doughty winds up to take a kick against Hoppers Crossing

The Warriors this week enjoy the bye, ahead of a rematch against Glenorden next week – who Hoppers bet earlier this season.

Coming off a week's break is West Footscray, who run into the rampaging Newport Power.

In a clash between first and third, the Roosters can take confidence the game will be played at their home of Shorten Reserve.

A blowout is expected at Heathdale Oval, as Manor Lakes continue the search for their first win of the season against Glenorden.

And in another likely one-sided affair, Wyndhamvale is at home for another week to play Caroline Springs.

The Falcons will be keen to return to the winners list this weekend, to stay in touch with this year's best performing sides.

CLUB HISTORY PAGE

West Footscray Football Club

A year after the Footscray District Football League's inception, the precursor of today's Western Region Football League, the West Footscray Roosters enter the competition in 1932.

It didn't take them long for the club to taste premiership success either, finishing atop eleven other sides in 1934 and 1935, and winning a total of five premierships, the most recent in 2007.

In the 50s, the club moved to Kevin Shorten Reserve, where they are currently based at today. Fast forward 63 years, and the venue still features the 1930s-style coach's shelters, with the tough metal structures reminiscent of the Sydney Harbour Bridge.

Over the years, the club has had a rich history shared with Braybrook, participating in the only FDFL/WRFL Senior Grand Final draw to date. The Brookers, entering the match as favourites, kicked a final minute goal in wet weather to tie the scores.

In more recent times, the Roosters played the 2012 ANZAC Day match, once again against Braybrook. Having met each other in five FDFL Grand Finals between 1942 and 1947, as World War II was coming to a close, it was a fitting Anzac clash, with the Roosters running out 76-point victors.

Arguably one of the best products from West Footscray FC was the New Zealand-born Marty McDonnell. He was recruited to Footscray Football Club in 1939, after being a standout defender in the FDFL. He also pulled on the Big V eight times in his career, where he was once again exceptional.

In his war-interrupted eleven year career, McDonnell played 92 games of which he polled 19 Brownlow votes. Had it not been for World War II, which coincided during the peak of his career, he would have been a household name, and one of the greatest defenders at the highest level.

A more well-known West Footscray star, who made it to the highest level, was three-year Footscray captain Laurie Sandilands. Born in Seddon and living in Maidstone, he first played football at North Footscray Primary School.

He joined the Roosters' Under 16 squad, and was skilled enough to play both U16s and U18s games. The Footscray Football Club invited him to train with the U19s where he represented the side in the thirds.

In 1966, he made his senior debut. A key forward, he topped the Bulldogs' goal kicking from 1972 to 1975. In 1978, after playing 160 games and booting 228 goals, he moved to Collingwood to for one final season.

Today, the club currently have approximately 180 players, ranging from Auskick to senior level.

Whilst both the Division Two Seniors and Reserves are sitting 11th on the ladder with just the one win, the club's U18 side is doing well this season, placed third on the ladder with three wins to their name.

The Roosters next Senior/Reserves match will be played against Albanvale at Robert Bruce Oval on Saturday at 2:15pm.

A thank you to West Footscray Football Club committee member Danny Backus and former South Fremantle Football Club historian Dr Steve Errington, who provided information which has featured in this article.

UMPIRES CORNER

The Order Off Rule

Football is played right across our great country at all levels. Whether it be out in the local streets or down at the nearby park, many people enjoy having a kick in various places without worrying too much about the intricate rules of the game.

In the Laws of Australian Football (published in 2013) there is just one rule that applies to all other competitions except the AFL. It is Law 20. This is the Order Off Rule and the majority of local football fans would have witnessed it in action within the WRFL on more than one occasion.

In the WRFL, every field umpire carries with them a yellow card and a red card onto the field of play. If either a player or an official commits a reportable offence, then they are shown a yellow card and ordered off the playing field for 15 minutes.

This 15 minutes is actual playing time and does not begin until the timekeepers are notified. This player or official cannot be replaced and the law states that it is up to the umpire whether or not to report the offender.

If the player or official is ordered from the field again on a second occasion during the same match, then they are shown a red card. The red card means that they are not allowed to return to the field for the rest of the game and they are not to be replaced.

It is important for everyone to be aware, especially the players, about this next part of the rule. If a player is ordered from the ground for an initial reportable offence and then commits a second reportable offence prior to leaving the ground, then they will be given a red card. Players and officials who receive a red card must be reported and the case must be referred to the tribunal.

There is the odd occasion when a player or an official is given a red card without a yellow card being issued previously. Any player or official who manhandles, assaults or threatens an umpire will be shown a red card and immediately ordered from the ground for the rest of the match. They cannot be replaced.

If a player or club official is ordered off for the third time during the same season, then they are given an automatic one week suspension. If a fourth order off occurs then an automatic two week suspension shall be enforced. If a fifth order off happens, then three weeks automatic suspension is issued. Any additional send offs mean that the player or official must appear before the WRFL Board.

Hopefully during this season our football is played as hard fought tussles between players enjoying the thrills and excitement of great contests. Let's also hope that the umpire's coloured cards can stay in their pockets and that Law 20 is not needed very often during Season 2013.

Worked in a
workplace?

Having trouble hearing?

If you have worked or are working in noisy conditions you may be entitled to compensation for your hearing loss.

Melbourne Injury Lawyers have won compensation for past and current employees who have a hearing loss due to workplace noise.
