NATIONAL VOLUNTEER WEEK

By Kirstie Fitzgerald

Regardless of what division your club is in, how many premierships you've won or how many superstar players you have recruited, one thing all clubs have in common are hard working volunteers.

Over 13th-19th May, Australia recognises and celebrates the tireless work and sacrifices all volunteers make across the country in the 2013 National Volunteer Week.

With the number of volunteers doubling in Australia over the past 18 years, over six million people willingly give up their time each year to help support various clubs and individuals in the community.

Volunteers are the backbone of our society, lending a hand in multiple areas including community health care, sport, heritage and arts, environmental conservation, emergency services, education and social justice.

Whilst the roles throughout the community are important, the role of volunteers is especially important in all football communities.

In the WRFL alone, it is estimated that close to 2,000 volunteers contribute each week assisting clubs in all aspects from event organising, to cooking meals, timekeeping, coaching, team-managing, car-pooling parents who transport the team to and from matches and the list goes on and on.

With more than 713 million hours donated by volunteers to various causes across Australia every year, there is no doubt society would not be the same without them.

In a world where time is a valuable commodity, the work volunteers do is irreplaceable and unfortunately, it can sometimes go unnoticed, and at times, be taken for granted.

This weekend, all clubs, players and supporters are urged to take a minute and say thanks to the people who dedicate so much time and effort in and around your club, as the success of any club is directly related to the support of volunteers.

To all of our volunteers great and small, the WRFL thanks you for your tireless effort and dedication which you display every week, for without you, our game would not be as successful and enjoyable as it is today.

CELEBRATING OUR WRFL VOLUNTEERS

By Lavan Ruban & Kirstie Fitzgerald

SANDRA MAYRAND

Role: Time Keeper for Albion

How long have you been volunteering for? Six years.

Why do you volunteer your time? As a parent, you don't feel obligated to help, but more that you feel that you want to help. My son stopped playing three years ago, but I still love to help out.

How many hours a week do you volunteer at the club? About 20 hours a week - 4hrs each night on Thursday and Friday and all day Saturday and Sunday.

What's the best thing about volunteering?

It's such a family environment and the actual people in the club are so friendly, and so willing to help.

DEB HODGES

Role: Spotswood Trainer

How long have you been volunteering for? This is my fourth year at Spotty, but I have been a trainer for the Western Bulldogs, Williamstown, the Western Jets, and the Super Rules for ten years.

Why do you volunteer your time? I just love being involved with football, and the community is great.

How many hours a week do you volunteer at the club? Probably around 3-4 hours a week at Spotty, and for the Super Rules it can sometimes be an all day thing.

What's the best thing about volunteering?

I was originally with Point Cook until I was invited down here by the club in 2008 and I just love it here. My son does umpiring for the league and so it's just great to give something back to the community, where I can.

CELEBRATING OUR WRFL VOLUNTEERS

By Lavan Ruban & Kirstie Fitzgerald

RICHARD BRENNAN

Role: I've done timekeeping, boundary umpiring, and now I'm a Water-boy for Albion

How long have you been volunteering for?

Six years.

Why do you volunteer your time? There's always a shortage of volunteers, so I think that they're a very valuable resource to the club, and it also gives you a feeling of inclusiveness in the club, and it's really appreciated by the junior players as well.

How many hours a week do you volunteer at the club? I'd say about three hours a week.

What's the best thing about volunteering? I really think that it's the appreciation shown by the players and the other parents as well.

JOAN MURPHY

Role: Spotswood Canteen Manager

How long have you been volunteering for? About 46 years.

Why do you volunteer your time? I used to be in the Hospitality business for 32 years, so I just love talking to people, and helping out the club.

How many hours a week do you volunteer at the club? About 30 hours a week-I'm here on Thursday and Friday nights doing meals, and in the canteen on the weekends at home games and helping out with the juniors on Sunday.

What's the best thing about volunteering?

There have been four generations of Murphy's at Spotswood, and so there is no other club for us! I just love helping out and seeing the club being successful, which makes all the hard work worth it.

Spotswood canteen Queens, Joan Murphy and Jessica Allan

Things are looking good at Kinder Smith Reserve for Brett Jacobs and his players after an impressive victory over Hoppers Crossing last weekend.

Led brilliantly by Mitch Hahn in the middle and Patrick Wiggins up forward, the Kangaroos moved the ball quickly and efficiently all day and never looked like losing. This week they travel to Kings Park to take on the improving Saints in what should be a great battle. St. Albans will welcome back Aaron Henneman from suspension and with Tim Jenkins and the old timers Teghan Henderson and Damien Fitzpatrick in form it will be tight and tough in the clinches.

Hoppers Crossing face Altona who bounced back last week in a one sided romp over Port Melbourne Colts. Jayden Post kicking six for the Vikings and Steve Kennedy and the fleet footed Tyler Healy among the better players. Kade Carey may return for Hoppers but they need more than one man to turn their current form around. Coach David Mitchell has a lot of work to do to keep them in the five.

Things don't get any easier for poor old North Footscray facing the might of Deer Park this week. Ross Hedley has taken the reigns following the departure of John Barnes and after a 50 goal loss last week to Spotswood, he has an enormous task ahead. I trust the players, supporters and administration of the Devils give 110% for the remained of the season. It is going to be very tough but North Footscray is a club with a proud history and I hope a bright future.

The Port Melbourne Colts vs. Albion game will be very interesting with the loser going to find it hard, even at this early stage to be looking at the top five.

Yarraville Seddon Eagles host Spotswood who went on a goal kicking rampage last week, kicking 50 against North Footscray but the best news for the Woodsmen was the return of Lachlan McGhie to the seniors and Mick Lewis in the reserves. Round Six looms as a key indicator of what lies ahead in season 2013.

400 GAMES FOR A SUNSHINE GREAT

Ricky Martin reaches 400 games

Whilst many people may recognise the name Ricky Martin to signify a Latin superstar, with multiple award winning hits, to the people at the Sunshine Football club, the name Ricky Martin represents 400 games.

Originally beginning his football career with the Albion Football Club when he was eight years old, Ricky Martin fell into the sport through the help of his babysitter.

"I really began playing football as a result of the lady who babysat me, who had three boys that played at Albion, so I tagged along," Martin said.

Playing football with the Cats until he was a top age U16, he left the club to join the Sunshine Kangaroos to play U18s football with his friends from high school, and has never looked back.

"I don't really remember a lot about my first game, but I do remember having fun playing the game I grew to love over the years with my mates," he said.

Having won two premierships already for the Sunshine reserves side in 2008 and again in 2011, Martin is keen to finish in the top three this year, to have the best chance of securing that elusive premiership.

"My expectations for this year are that as a team, we play finals again and have another crack at winning the premiership."

Despite going down to Hoppers Crossing in his milestone game last weekend by 42-points, Sunshine's Reserves currently sit in second position on the ladder, boasting a healthy percentage of 233.

Whilst the traditional backman, doesn't have any pre-game superstitions in the lead up to a match, he still carries with him one piece of advice he was told when he was a kid.

"I remember being told as a young kid that when you go out to your position on the ground, make sure you check your opponents number so you know who you're on, and that's something which I still do today, some 23 years on."

Although it seems unlikely the 31-year-old will retire from football anytime soon, Martin hopes to remain at the club in the future for many years to come and hopes to one day try his hand at coaching.

"Once I finish playing football, I would love to stay involved at the club, whether it is coaching juniors, assisting at Reserves level, or even as a runner on the sidelines," he said.

Martin epitomises a true clubman and sees the club as something bigger than himself, putting them first and foremost.

"I love playing for Sunshine as I've been here for half my life now and have made so many great friendships over the years playing, which I will keep well beyond my playing days," Martin said.

"It's just such a great family and social club as anyone will do anything for you and if they can't they will find someone who can."

DIVISION TWO

Seniors Preview

I'm firmly of the belief that the 2013 WRFL season is proving itself to be a magnificent vintage. Not really needing any bolstering, an already outstanding Division Two season absorbed a further injection of class on the weekend, with the Glenorden debut of 271-game AFL veteran and all-Australian, Adem Yze on Sunday afternoon. Yze kicked six goals amidst another consummate performance from the flag favourites. Their victims this week were Manor Lakes - the Storm consigned to their first ever defeat and being unable to stifle the Hawks in the last quarter, as they went on a 10-goal rampage. John Zangari, who humbly vacated the number 13 guernsey for Yze, was adjudged best afield for Glenorden with the number 42 on his back and the Hawks are on track to emulate their team of 2006 who, under the tutelage of Dean Comensoli and Adam Brookshaw, waltzed through the season undefeated on their way to premiership glory.

The other newsmakers on the weekend were Wyndhamvale and West Footscray. The Falcons won themselves a crucial four points by defeating Sunshine Heights by 16 points in a tightly-fought Division Two match of the day at the Dennis Family Oval. Whilst at Albanvale, the Cobras were ambushed by West Footscray who, with Tom Augustine in continued good goal-kicking form and with influential midfielder Jason King back in the fold, emerged from their travels with a six point victory.

So to Round 7 - and the key contest will emanate from Ainsworth Reserve, where Sunshine Heights host Parkside. The Dragons have been impressive under new coach Daniel Xuereb, but they will face a stern examination from the Magpies in a final five-shaping contest. In other games - Wyndhamvale, Manor Lakes, Caroline Springs and Glenorden will go into their games as hot favourites over Albanvale, West Footscray, Sanctuary Lakes and North Sunshine respectively, leaving us with the Match of the Day clash between Braybrook and Laverton. It may not be the most marquee of games for coverage on 88.9 WYN FM, but these type of games are always terrific value, with hardness at the contest being a feature. Gary Sheldon has the Brookers in good form, but the Magpies are rebuilding slowly and Dallas Harvey's side will be no pushover. It should be a compelling struggle and I hope you can get down to Pennell Reserve or, if not, tune in with us from 1:30pm on Saturday.

A SUNSHINE HEIGHT'S FAVOURITE REACHES 300 GAMES

Dragon Nick Mallia celebrates his milestone last weekend

Known around the club for his football talent and modest nature, Nick Mallia began his football career at the Sunshine Heights Football Club as an Under 9's player in the early nineties.

Fast forward 20 years and Mallia continues to play football with the Dragons, this year lining up in the senior squad, in the WRFL Division Two competition.

A one club player his whole life, the only year Mallia was away from the Dragons was in 2007, when he moved to Queensland for work purposes.

"Whilst he moved to Queensland, he still played footy and spearheaded the Gladstone Mudcrabs to their first flag in 30 years," Sunshine Heights Football Operations Manager, Michael Grima said.

Holding a Sunshine Heights record of four club Best and Fairest's throughout his career, Mallia's form so far this season indicates that he may well win his fifth.

Wearing the number 18 on his back, Mallia can normally be found wherever the ball is, playing in the midfield whilst sometimes heading into the forward line to kick a few cheeky goals where needed.

"On field, Nick has been our best player for over ten years, playing on the ball and in the middle of every pack," Grima said.

"As a player, Nick is a competitor. He loves the contest and the physical nature of the game and when we need a goal, he goes up forward and usually delivers."

Despite going down to Wyndhamvale in his 300th game by 15-points last weekend, Mallia was named amongst the Dragons' best on ground performers.

Yet whilst Mallia is clearly a fantastic player on the field, many can attest to his off-field generosity, with Grima describing him as a 'champion'.

"As a person, Nick's best trait is loyalty. Over the years he has had countless offers from other clubs but has always stayed loyal with the Dragons.

Sunshine Heights' Nick Mallia attempting a one handed mark in their match against North Footscray

"There is nothing that he would not do for his club and his team mates," Grima said.

Not only does Mallia contribute a lot to the club on the field, but he has been a long time sponsor at the club, donating money to pay for memberships and purchase sporting gear for younger players in the team on numerous occasions.

"There have been times over the last few seasons when the club was really struggling and without a player like Nick on the field, the club could have completely fallen over," Grima said.

"Even when times were tough, he continued to turn up to training and really held the boys together."

Sitting fifth on the ladder, Sunshine Heights will hope to secure their fifth win for the season as they host a red hot Parkside outfit at Ainsworth Reserve on Saturday afternoon.

Preview

Round five of the Division One U18 competition saw Deer Park record their first loss of the season, at the hands of Albion by a demoralizing six points.

Holding the home team scoreless in the first quarter, the Lions increased the margin in the second term, leading by 20-points at the half.

Just when you thought it was over, Albion struck back hard in the third term, kicking six-goals to the Lions two-points, which saw the visitors sixteen points down.

In a stressful final quarter, Albion was held goalless by a fighting Deer Park squad who missed their chances, spraying three shots at goal.

With ninety seconds to go and the ball locked in the Deer Park forward line, Albion pulled together to emerge as victors, with a final score of 7.9.51 to the Lions 6.9.45.

Albion's big ruckman Joshua Michetti was named best afield, while teammate Mathew Serafin booted six goals.

Albion coach, Norm Heath was unhappy with the slow start and is looking to improve in preparation for next week's game.

"We were a little bit flat footed in the first half; (next week) we need to start better as we did in the first four games this year," he commented post-match.

"I'm happy with the desperation, and their tackling has been fantastic," he added.

Around the grounds, Hoppers Crossing remains the only undefeated team, overpowering Spotswood by 87-points. Luke Henderson and Nathan Williams were among the best goal kickers, kicking ten majors between them.

St. Albans were also big winners in Round five, placing themselves as potential finals contenders. Playing away, the Saints demolished Yarraville Seddon by 101-points. Anthony Fawcus was once again pivotal in the forward line, booting thirteen goals. The Eagles are now the only team in the competition yet to register a win.

After Albion's close win last week, they will travel to Grant Reserve to take on sixth placed Altona. Deer Park will host St. Albans at home, as the Saints, coming off a heavy win, will be looking for their third win of the season.

Yarraville Seddon and Spotswood will also go head to head, both wanting to make amends for devastating round five losses. The Woodsmen sit in fifth place, while the Eagles are anchored at the bottom of the ladder.

Having recorded their fourth consecutive win for the season, Hoppers Crossing will enjoy a well-deserved rest over the bye.

FORMER AFL PLAYER ATTENDS WRFL INTERLEAGUE TRAINING

Swapping his muddy footy boots for a coach's uniform, former Essendon player Scott Lucas made a special appearance at the WRFL U12 and U13 interleague training on Monday night.

Having played 270 games with the Dons including the 2000 Premiership side, Lucas has worked at the AFL and AFL Players' Association, developing an extensive football knowledge base since ending his playing career.

Whilst also being involved in the media and player management, Lucas' other passion is coaching, being heavily involved in a junior development program called V-Squad.

V-Squad is a junior football development program designed to assist the physical, mental and social development of talented young footballers across Victoria.

Working closely with U12 interleague coach, Cam Atkins and U13 coach Mark Smyth, Lucas ran multiple training drills with both squads, which focused mainly on kicking skills, with the aim of providing our players with simple information they could use immediately to improve their delivery of the ball by foot.

Under 12's interleague coach, Cam Atkins was impressed with the type of drills Lucas organised with the players, saying that it was an honour to have a player of his experience at training.

"It was great to have coaches of Scott and Luke's calibre on the training track last night. Their delivery of the 'front and centre' drill and its key points for players certainly left an impression on the boys," Atkins said.

Having Lucas take a number of drills at training was also beneficial for the coaches, allowing both Atkins and Smyth to cast an educated eye over their players, as they look to choose their final squads of 24 players.

Following the training session, Lucas took time out to speak to the players for about 30 minutes, providing advice on pre-match preparation and on the importance of building correct technique in all football skills.

In his address, Lucas stressed to the players that their age group was in the middle of a critical time for all sportspeople for physical and skill development.

"Off the field, Scott encouraged the boys to use their school and community life to develop the skills that will be critical to their development both as footballers and as people – listening, asking questions, concentration, commitment," Atkins said.

Preview

Wyndhamvale has snapped a three game losing streak, returning to some red-hot form against Caroline Springs last weekend.

It was a case of straight out of the starting blocks for the Falcons, booting four goals to none in the first quarter and never looking back.

At the Dennis Family Oval it was the home side's Jordan Southall once again causing most of the damage.

As he racked up numerous possessions, he also managed to split the middle of the big sticks three times.

But Southall's three goals was not the only highlight in the 109-point romp over the Lakers.

The number four up forward, Matt Malual, topped the goal scorers for the morning, kicking four of his own.

On the flip side, little can be said about Caroline Springs who only recorded the one major for the game-a goal in the final quarter.

As far as hidings go, the honor for that title last weekend went to Glenorden.

Playing on the Sunday, the Hawks dismantled the league's newest side Manor Lakes at home.

In one of the year's most devastating performances, the brown and gold booted 11 goals in the second term to hold a 96-point lead at half time.

By the final siren, that margin had blown out to a 192-point embarrassment of the Storm.

While Newport maintained it's status as the competition's team to beat, pulling away against a spirited West Footscray.

The Power's lead at half time was only two points, and by three-quarter time their breathing space had evaporated.

Trailing by ten points heading into the last, Newport more than doubled its score to win 96 to 58.

Coming off the bye will be Hoppers Crossing, who head into the blockbuster match of Round 7.

Caroline Springs players are on hot pursuit of Wyndhamvale's Jack Wenlock

The second-placed Warriors face near rivals, the third-placed Glenorden at home this Saturday morning.

The goal kicking form of the Hawks' Hayden Masson (11 goals this season) and the Warriors' Andre Bistisi (10) is likely to play a factor in who wins the vital clash.

Coming off its massive win last weekend, Wyndhamvale face much stiffer opposition against Newport, at the Power's home ground.

That's as Manor Lakes heads out to improve on last round's score of just seven, in the match against West Footscray.

And Caroline Springs get the bye, ahead of next Saturday's home battle against ladder leaders Newport.

PROUD SUPPLIER OF THE WRFL

PLAYER GRADUATE

Maj's star on the rise

Anyone who calls themselves a true football fan, would have no hesitation in naming Majak Daw as one of the AFL's feel good stories of 2013.

Eyes were glued to the screens and ears peeled to the radio last night, as the versatile Sudanese big man went toe-to-toe with West Coast's Nic Natinui.

In many ways the hype around North Melbourne's 22-year-old, is rivaling the Eagles' Fijian ruckman.

And a week earlier the footy world was abuzz, as the man affectionately known as 'Maj' produced a six-goal return in just his fourth AFL game.

Amazingly, he had 11 shots on goal in the 54-point belting of the Western Bulldogs.

For his more regular coach this season, the Kangaroos' Brad Scott is taking the inevitable hype in his stride.

"It's great for the game, it's a great story," he said.

As North Melbourne rides on the back of Daw's growing cult figure status, it's easy to forget his humble beginnings.

It's been well documented that at the age of 19, he became the first African born player to be drafted into the AFL.

Backtrack a decade, and Daw was fleeing Sudan's civil war with his father William, and mother Elizabeth.

Werribee's McKillop College is where Daw was taught and coached in his school footy days, by teacher Andrew Exton.

"It's such a big thing for the Sudanese community to set the example for those younger than him to follow," Exton said.

And within four years of picking up the football, Daw joined the Wyndhamvale Football Club.

He spent time under a number of coaches, bringing him into contact with the likes of Falcons' figures Luke Dennerley and Nathan Evans.

While on the rookie list at Arden Street, Daw's bided some time and development at VFL level.

Most of that's come at the Werribee Tigers, where's

Ex-Wyndhamvale junior player, Majak Daw all grown up wearing his North Melbourne guernsey he's grown his game under the tutelage of coach Scott West.

"I'm rapt for him. For three year's he's been working really hard.

"There's been a lot of people behind the scenes doing a lot of work with him, I'm just a little part player in the whole scheme of it."

West can look no further than Daw's athleticism.

It's been said many players at the club, including veteran Roo Brent Harvey, are envious of the young man's physique.

"Again he's been working really hard (at that). But it's a natural aspect."

Not that the freakish build of Daw should over shine his ability, which he's been forced to develop from the ground up.

West said over the last 18 months he's been involved with him, he's improved his ability to read the play.

"Been able to learn through playing in the ruck. This year he's been able to go forward.

"That ability to get another notch on the belt in regards to position has been really important for his development."

UMPIRES CORNER

By Graeme Hodgart

One of the most recognisable faces within the WRFL umpiring circle is Henry McFerran. Born in Belfast, Northern Ireland in 1950, Henry came to Australia when he was eight years old, initially living in Brunswick before moving to St.Albans. As a child, he barracked for North Melbourne as they wore the same colours as his soccer team, Distillery back in Northern Ireland.

Whilst he didn't play football initially, he eventually played at St.Albans in both the juniors and the seniors, before moving to Maidstone Juniors to play and then later coach. Coincidentally, their home ground was Scovell Reserve where the WRFL Umpires are presently based. Being only a lightly framed player and tired of nursing injuries, Henry changed to umpiring in 1973. Originally starting in FDFL on the boundary in the mornings and goal umpiring in the afternoon, Henry later progressed into field umpiring.

After only a few years of umpiring, Henry was elected to the Umpires Association Committee, after the Secretary at the time moved interstate. Taking on the new responsibilities, Henry held the position for the rest of the season and remained in that role for the next 14 years. Then in 1986, he was elected President of the Umpires Association, a position which he still holds today.

It seems the love of umpiring runs in the family, with his daughter Shannon, umpiring in the Footscray District Football League on and off from 1992 as a boundary and as a junior/senior field umpire. His son Daniel, before embarking on a successful senior football career at St.Albans, also umpired for a number years as a senior boundary umpire and junior field umpire. Henry's brother Sam was a goal umpire in 1981 and his wife Sue is also involved in football and has been a trainer for over 20 years.

Young Jackson Carroll and his mentor Henry McFerran

Henry was awarded Life Membership of the Umpires Association in 1982 for his long term commitment to local football umpiring. In 1994 he was also given Life Membership of the FDFL for his services to umpiring, making Henry only one of five umpires to be awarded this honour. Over the years, Henry has freely given his time and talents in assisting individual umpires and more importantly, helping to develop umpiring in the western suburbs.

Although out on the training track, he is outrun by several generations of younger umpires, Henry still trains on a regular basis and is quite fit. Nowadays, even though he still loves his umpiring, he is quite content to officiate in the U18 grades and help mentor new up-and-coming umpires. This year, Henry will celebrate his 40th year as an umpire in the FDFL/WRFL and we congratulate and thank him for his experience, knowledge and passion he has dedicated to umpiring for 40 years.
